RAILROADS STOPPED FROM RAISING RATES BY ORDER OF COURT

Advance in Tariff on Coal Postponed by Company to Await Outcome of Injunction Case

WASHINGTON, June 1.—It was discovered today that the government's injunction against the Western trunk line freight rate increase applied only to tariff A115, mentioned in the bill, and did not cover the increased rate on wool of 10 per cent, which went into effect today.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Rates on coal from Illinois and Indiana mines to Chicago and to points basing on Chicago, which were to be effective today, have been postponed until July 25. The change proposed in the rates was a flat advance of 10 cents a ton.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The La Follette amendment to the railroad bill providing for the ascertainment of physical valuation of railroads as a basis for fixing rates was rejected by the Senate by a vote of 25 to 30.

Circuit Court Certifies Injunction

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—The temporary restraining order which Federal Judge D. P. Dyer issued last night at Hannibal, Mo., prohibiting twenty-five railroads from advancing rates, was certified to the United States Circuit Court here this morning.

Processes against the defendants were prepared and will be served by United States marshals in the districts where the different railroads have their general offices.

Under orders of Attorney-General Wickersham an expediting certificate providing for a speedy determination of the issues was filed. A copy of the expediting order was mailed this morning to Circuit Court Judges Hook, Sanborn, Vandeventer and Adams.

OFFICIALS WON'T TALK.

Railroad officials here generally refused to be quoted concerning the suit today. They said it was too early to express opinions and explained that they would prefer to keep silence for a while, because interviews could not benefit their cause. The action of the Government, however, was a surprise to them.

It was pointed out that the attack on the railroads is unique in one respect. It is the first time in which the commercial interests of the chief Western cities are not proceeding in full harmony; in fact, several of the strong organizations are siding with the carriers. The St. Louis League of Businessmen is not antagonizing the proposed increase in freight rates, but in other cities opposition has developed.

IMPORTANT OPPONENTS.

The most important active forces in opposing the increase in rates are said to be the Missouri Manufacturing Association of St. Louis and the Illinois Manufacturers' Association. It was stated today that it was not the purpose of the railroads to increase all rates in this territory today. Only commodity rates were to have been advanced, which apply almost solely to freight, which the general public is not directly interested in.

VOTE ON AMENDMENT.

The thirty votes against the La Follette amendment were cast by Republicans.

Of the twenty-five affirmative votes fifteen were cast by Democrats and ten by Republicans. The Republicans who voted for the amendment were Messrs. Borah, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Crawford, Dixon, Dolliver, Gamble, Jones and La Follette.

The Democrats who voted for it were Messrs. Bacon, Bailey, Clay, Fletcher, Frazier, Gore, Newlands, Overman, Owen, Paynter, Purcell, Rayner, Simons, Stone and Taylor.

Those absent and not paired were Burkett, Beveridge and Bourne, Republicans, and Bankhead, Hughes, McEnery and Smith (Maryland), Democrats.

ANOTHER PRESENTED.

The defeat of the La Follette provision was followed by the presentation of one by Senator Simons requiring such physical valuation of the property involved in cases before the Interstate commerce commission. He spoke in support of the amendment.

The Senate adopted an amendment to the railroad bills by Mr. Simons prohibiting the interstate commerce commission from granting a lower charge for a long than for a short haul when made to destroy water competition.

BLAME COMET FOR WOMAN'S LOSS OF MIND

Governess Brooded Over the Talked-of Collision With Tail and Goes Insane.

Brooding over the prophesy of some scientists that when Halley's comet swept this planet with its mystic, gaseous tail it would destroy the world, Virginia Tuerta, governess of the children of Senor Don Ramon Corral, vice-president of the Mexican Republic, who are living at 6.2 Forty-first street to be educated, went suddenly and violently insane early in the morning of May 23 and today she was committed by Superior Judge Wells to the State asylum at Stockton.

Her malady has developed into a most malignant type of maniacal dementia and during her confinement in the insane division of the Receiving Hospital it has been necessary to keep her strapped down to her bed. Her shrieking is piercing and incessant and at intervals it is interspersed by her singing of "The Merry Widow," which seems to have impressed her deeply during the last stages of her mental competency.

COMET IS TO BLAME.

Testimony given at the unfortunate woman's hearing this forenoon was to the effect that she was brought from Mexico with Vice-President Corral's children last September and that prior to her mental derangement she was a sensible, kind, even-tempered servant, devoutly religious and apparently possessed of a complete and sound mentality. She went about her domestic duties contentedly and faithfully

OMB HURLED AT PRINCE PROVES CAN OF BEANS

BERLIN, June 1.—There was a commotion among the royal party assembling from the annual joint review of the Berlin and Potsdam garrisons at Tempelhof Field today when a man, who had followed at a distance, hurled a missile at Crown Prince Frederick William. The object missed its mark and harmlessly at the feet of a policeman. It was found to be an ordinary tin can and was filled with smoked beans.

The party was about to enter a palace at the time, and for a moment it was believed a bomb had been thrown.

The police seized the assailant, who proved to be a Russian named Abraham Elerweiss, a resident of this city. It is thought he is not responsible for his action.

The crown prince represented the emperor at the review, as the emperor's right wrist is still bothering him.

Among the Americans present were Herman Ridder and Mrs. Ridder of New York, Harold McCormick of Chicago; H. C. Emery of the tariff board, and the German-American Veterans who are visiting the fatherland.

CHIFTEN GIVEN LIFE IN JAIL FOR KILLING WHYBARK

Boy Murderer Must Pay the Penalty for Crime in San Quentin Prison.

WARNED THAT RETRIAL WOULD MEAN HANGING

Bravado Gone, Prisoner Weeps and Begs Judge for Mercy.

"It's all up, Chiften. You are not in a position to ask for a new trial. If you are acquitted on the charge of murdering Whybark, it simply mean that you will be taken back to Oakland and in all probability hanged."

Advice of Attorney O'Neil which resulted in Charles Chiften's acceptance of a life sentence in the San Jose courts this morning, without attempt to carry his case to a higher tribunal.

After refusing the counsel of former Senator Charles M. Shortridge, who defended him during his trial for the murder of Night Watchman Whybark of Santa Clara, Charles Chiften, the boy murderer whose crimes in this city are thought to have been manifold, was advised by Attorney Louis O'Neil, whom he retained some days since, to give up all attempt to obtain a new trial, and was this morning sentenced to life imprisonment in the Superior Court of San Jose.

BREAKS DOWN.

When the extreme penalty for murder in the second degree was read, Chiften broke down and, cowering in his chair, begged the court for mercy. With tears streaming down his face, he pleaded that he was but 22 years of age, retracting his former statements that he was 26 years old, and in an effort to gain the judge's sympathy admitted that his real name is Walter Owsley.

"I come from Hickory county, Missouri, Judge," sobbed the condemned man. "My old father and mother are living back there, and this will kill them. For God's sake, make the sentence lighter. Give me another chance."

The air of bravado which characterized him throughout the trial gone, the boy flung reserve to the winds and cut for the interference of Attorney O'Neil, who rushed to his side, would have fallen on his knees in front of the judicial bench. When he learned that the court's ruling was irrevocable, the condemned man sobbed aloud, tears streaming down his cheeks. After the reading of the sentence he was led back to the county jail, where he will be held pending the trip to San Quentin, which for him will mean the end of life in the outside world.

BETRAYED BY WOMAN.

Chiften was betrayed into the hands of an outraged law by Anna Bell, a woman with whom he lived in Oakland for several weeks. The couple were known as man and wife here. In one of the most sensational confessions on police record, the Bell woman, asserting that she was afraid Chiften would kill her because of her knowledge of his many crimes, broke down and confided to detectives that he had not only killed Night Watchman Whybark, who was shot by a thug in the performance of his duty in Santa Clara, early this year, but that Chiften was also responsible for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Lindquist, who was shot in a San Pablo avenue saloon in this city while attempting to prevent a holdup.

Cornered by the evidence against him, the accused man admitted the killing of Whybark, pleading self-defense. The other crimes he has steadily denied, but a solid network of evidence built up by the local police department for use in case Chiften was brought here for trial would seem to prove the woman's story beyond a doubt.

The boy thug quarreled with Attorney Charles M. Shortridge, who defended him during the trial, some days ago, because of the lawyer's refusal to attempt to obtain a new trial. In desperation he employed O'Neil, but the latter, after going over the evidence, agreed with Shortridge that a second hearing could but result in more serious consequences than the first, with the result that sentence was pronounced today.

Knowland Coming West for Meeting

California Congressman Leaves Washington to Attend N. S. G. W. Grand Parlor.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Representative Joseph R. Knowland of California, who is grand president of the Native Sons of the Golden West, left this afternoon for Lake Tahoe to attend the meeting of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons. For a time it was thought that the serious illness of Knowland's youngest son would prevent his departure, but the marked improvement shown in the condition of the patient in the past three days convinced the physicians that all danger is past.

TOOLS REPORTED STOLEN.

"Come to Me," Housepainter Cries to Society Girl, and Wedding Is the Result

MRS. GEORGE C. GOTTUNG, who until her marriage today was Miss Violet Kenneth Albright of East Oakland.

"You had better come to me; you need a strong man to lean upon. Come to me."

With these words uttered but three months ago by a stranger who jumped to prevent her from falling as she slipped in the muddy street, began a romance, short but strenuous and punctuated by wordy objections from all the members of her family, which resulted today in the marriage of Miss Violet Kenneth Albright, young, beautiful, accomplished, to George C. Gottung, a painter, and 23 years her senior.

LAUGHS AT OPPOSITION.

The bride's family is an old and prominent one and the opposition brought to bear was violent and sustained. But despite the prayers of her relatives and without the blessing of any of them save an aunt, Mrs. Mary F. Duncan, Miss Albright, who is the daughter of Mrs. Fanny T. Albright of 1310 Fourth avenue, and the late George W. Albright, today married the man of her choice with her mother notably absent from the nuptial services.

The ceremony was solemnized in the Baptist church at Eighth avenue and East Sixteenth street, East Oakland, at 11:30 o'clock with Rev. L. L. Loofbourow officiating. The only witnesses to the service were Mrs. Mary F. Duncan, the bride's aunt and the pastor's wife, Mrs. Loofbourow.

LEAVE FOR HONEYMOON.

A traveling suit with hat to match was the bridal costume of Miss Albright and immediately after the ceremony the couple left on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will live at the home on East Fourteenth between Third and Fourth avenues which Gottung today deeded to his wife as a wedding gift.

MRS. BRAY IS ANGERED.

Mrs. Howard W. Bray, whose home in Twenty-seventh avenue is frequently the scene of characteristic Southern hospitality, was especially unreconciled to the union. When interviewed today she said:

"I do not know whether or not my sister was married today."

"Then the family is opposed?" the reporter added.

"I do not know."

"At what hour did the marriage take place?"

"I do not know. You had better consult the bride."

"What is her telephone number or where may she be found?"

"I do not know," was all the reply the disappointed sister voiced.

"Please say," said her aunt, Mrs. Duncan, "that owing to a recent bereavement in the family the wedding was extremely quiet."

When asked what the bereavement was she sparred for time and stated the family

DEMOCRAT LEADER FACES TRIAL ON BRIBERY CHARGE

Lee O'Neil Browne Held in Connection With Lorimer Scandal; Pleads Not Guilty To Allegations of Prosecutor

CHICAGO, June 1.—Lee O'Neil Browne, leader of the Democratic minority in the lower house at Springfield, must stand trial on the charge of bribing State Representative C. A. White to vote for William Lorimer for United States Senator. This much was assured today when Judge McSurley overruled the motion of the defense to quash the indictment against Browne.

W. S. Forest, of counsel for the defendant, entered an exception to the ruling. He also sought a postponement for two weeks in placing Browne on trial, but was again overruled, the court setting June 6 as the date for beginning the trial.

While this argument was on State's Attorney Wayman demanded that Browne be arraigned at once. Forest interposed sharply:

"Mr. Browne pleads not guilty."

TERMS PLEA UNIQUE.

The argument of the defense was that bribery of legislators voting to elect a United States Senator is not an offense against the State, but against the federal government, and that the federal law provides no punishment. Judge McSurley said he believed it to be a plea unique in the history of the courts.

On the point raised by the defense attacking the jurisdiction of the Cook county court declaring that a promise to pay money for a vote constituted bribery, and not the consummation of that promise by the actual paying of the money, the court declared that the payment of money for a vote constitutes bribery. In the case at bar it is alleged Brown promised to pay Representative White $1000 to vote for William Lorimer for Senator, and that $850 of this sum was subsequently given to White in Chicago. This rule is without prejudice to the jurisdiction of the Sangamon county (Springfield) courts.

INVESTIGATION IS SEARCHING.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 1.—State's Attorney Burke announced today that the investigation into the vote of Senator Holstlaw and Representatives McKinney and H. D. McCollum is to receive the aid of testimony from Representative H. C. Breckmeyer in the effort to show that there was an agreement as to the vote for Lorimer.

After a conversation over the telephone with State's Attorney Wayman in Chicago, Burke said Breckmeyer, whose story corroborated the initial confession of Representative White, would be in Springfield tomorrow. The plan of the prosecution extends further than the inquiry into the Lorimer vote and is designed to uncover details which have a bearing on the "jack pot."

Senator Holstlaw's, testimony coupled with that which Burke expects to get from Breckmeyer will be used as the basis of operations in the questoins in the questions which will be asked McKinney and McCollum. Johnson of the Johnson & Jancock Co., who obtained the State House desk and chair contract, which Holstlaw claimed was tainted with bribery, is scheduled to be questioned by the grand jury.

Insurgents Would Meet Col. Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Representative Carey of Wisconsin, who is one of the insurgent Republicans of the House, has a plan for all of the insurgents to go to New York in a body and meet Colonel Roosevelt on the latter's arrival from Europe, on June 18.

MOUNTAIN IS TOPPLED OVER ON QUARRY

Laborers Crushed Under Tons of Rock Without Moment's Warning.

MAY HAVE BEEN WORK OF REVENGEFUL LABORER

Rescue Trains and Doctors Are Being Sent Out to the Scene Communication Cut Off.

OGDEN, Utah, June 1.—Twenty-five workmen were killed and thousands of dollars worth of damage done to the property of the Union Portland Cement Works at Devil's Slide, thirty miles east of here, in a quarry this morning. The loss of life may be still greater, as only the most meager dispatches have been received.

The explosion blew down the telegraph and telephone poles and communication with the scene of the disaster has been limited to a brief message sent out by a courier from Morgan, Utah, soon after the disaster.

Most of the dead are Japanese and Greeks, who made up a quarry gang of 75 to 100 men.

A special train is leaving Ogden, carrying doctors and nurses. The injured are reported to number a score or more.

The victims of the disaster were literally blown to pieces. On the hillside overlooking the scene of the explosion portions of limbs and arms were picked up, and here an there a head or a torso. Such of the remains as were recovered had been blown fully a hundred yards from the quarry. Among the man missing is Hugh McGuire, foreman of the quarry.

CAUSE OF EXPLOSION.

The explosion came about through either the carelessness or intent of a rock driller in setting off a blast before the accustomed safety signal had been given. The explosion was so severe as to be heard for miles as the concussion set off a box of dynamite sticks kept in reserve for the work.

The quarry which is located in one of the picturesque sections of the state, has been operated for several years. It is at the base of one of the small mountains and the explosion was followed by an avalanche of rock that buried the equipment of the plant and workmen who were underneath.

RESCUING PARTIES OUT.

Rescuing parties have been dispatched to the scene in the hope of saving some of those buried in the debris.

The greatest danger prevails because other parts of the mountain side have been weakened and the working parties are constantly bombarded by falling stones.

It is understood that the superintendent of the work is among the dead.

There was an extended strike in the quarry not long ago and feeling ran high between American laborers and foreigners who were brought on to the works recently. Whether the explosion is a sequence to this strife is not yet known, although the theory is given some credence.

Government Troops Badly Defeated

Nicaragua Insurgents Under Gen. Estrada Put Regulars Into Full Retreat.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Nicaraguan government's army, under General Lara, which has been in front of Bluefields for several weeks, has been defeated by the insurgent troops of General Estrada and is now in full retreat.

The information reached the State Department today in a dispatch from Commander Gilmer of the gunboat Paducah, now at Bluefields. Commander Gilmer said General Lara's army now consists of about 300 men.

This force had been in the vicinity of Bluefields for a fortnight and for the last week had made repeated attempts to capture the city from the revolutionists under General Estrada.

All their efforts met with failure and General Estrada's forces succeeded in killing several hundred of General Lara's soldiers, besides capturing more than 200 troops.

Providence Hospital Training School Awards Coveted Degrees to 10 Nurses

SPEAKERS PRAISE WORK IN CAUSE OF HUMANITY

Encourage Young Women Who Graduate After Three Years of Preparation.

FATHER R. A. GLEASON PAYS THEM HIGH TRIBUTE

Declares Physician Relies More on Helpers Than on Medicine.

In the presence of a large assemblage of nurses, undergraduates, clergymen and friends ten young women received their diplomas last night from the Providence hospital training school for nurses in St. Francis de Sales hall, Jones and Grove streets. The class of '10 were the recipients of congratulations and gifts. Rev. Father P. F. Keane, acting pastor of St. Francis de Sales parish, presided over the exercises, which were of a literary and musical nature.

At 8:30 o'clock the ceremonies of the evening commenced. The graduates, who were seated on both sides of the platform, made an attractive picture in their white uniforms and caps. The decorations were palms, which were scattered on both sides of the stage.

TEN ARE GRADUATED.

The nurses who occupied the platform and received their medals and diplomas from Dr. Milton, Dr. J. M. Kane and Dr. O. D. Hamlin were:

Miss Amy A. Blanchard, Stockton; Miss Mary A. Malony, Pinole; Miss Lorraine I. Kipp, San Francisco; Mrs. Marie R. Plate, Santa Rosa; Miss Marguerite R. Pereira, Fort Jones; Miss Amy J. McCormick, Sonora; Miss Mary E. Donnelly, Stockton; Miss Mary E. Scanlan, Watsonville; Miss Margaret L. Kiernan, Modesto and Miss G. Winifred Young, Palo Alto.

One of the interesting features of the program was the opening number, consisting of a medley recitation, which was given by thirteen girls. They were Bessie Dwyer, Agnes Toomey, Marjorie Coyle, Madeline Fox, Margaret Wicks, Isabel Steele, Lucile Holtkamp, Margaret Dempsey, Ruth Mengel, Elizabeth Corbett, Elizabeth Gallagher, Anne Coakley and Adelaide Albers.

TWENTY IN CHOIR.

Twenty young girls formed a choir and sang "Lead Kindly Light." The singers were Ethel Ball, Theresa Lenane, Margaret Dooley, Agnes Ambrose, Helen Quinn, Adelaide Albers, Etta Green, Mary Barsocks, Myrtle Gischel, Lucille Cain, Madeline Ball, Loretta Coyle, Anita Beauchamp, Regina Hoenisch, Veronica Barron, May Dooley, Rose Kogler, Kate Carey, Gertrude Dooley and Madeline Gallagher. Miss May Bailey acted as accompanist.

Judge Henry A. Melvin was the first speaker of the evening and in a few words congratulated the young women who will enter upon their labors for the cause of humanity and devote their lives to administering to the sick.

On behalf of Rev. Father Bishop O'Connell of San Francisco, who was unable to attend, Rev. Father Keane, acting pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, delivered the message and blessing of the bishop to the graduates. In a few forceful remarks Father Keane said:

"This is no doubt an important moment in your lives, as for some years you have looked forward to this evening when you would receive from this worthy institution, in which you have been trained, the mark of its approval.

"Bear in mind, the beautiful motto on your card of invitation, 'God and charity.' Whatever be the object of a Catholic institution, be it school, college or hospital, it stands for God. In a skeptical age we are too often led to follow the material instinct and forget that success in every profession depends on the knowledge that our thoughts, our actions, our motives must ever be in accordance with the law of the supreme being, as written on our hearts. Under the inspiration of that motto more has been done for the amelioration of human ills than any other influence. Let 'God and charity' be your motto. It is a beautiful one and very suggestive. It will be an inspiration to you in many trying moments. Live in its light and your work will be successful and you will reflect credit on yourselves and the noble institution that is sending you forth with its approval and blessing."

CALLING DIGNIFIED.

Dr. J. M. Kane, one of the members of the faculty of Providence Hospital Training school was the orator of the evening and read the following paper:

"To you—young women who this day dedicate yourselves to the work of caring for the sick, I would impress upon you the dignity which surrounds your calling and assure you that you have chosen well, if the opportunity to do good makes a calling a meritorious one, and I believe it does. The fact that your work lies among those who are unable to help themselves makes it a task of no mean proportions. Persons who are suffering are as you know apt to be petulent and peevish for not infrequently they see things with a distorted vision.

"When you assume control in the sick room you become the executive officer of the physician in charge and it is not within your province to reason why, it is yours to do and do to the best of your ability the work set before you. With the physician in charge rests the responsibility and your work is to supplement his efforts and minister to the comfort of the patient.

"The church has ever associated the care of the sick and the unfortunate with other forms of religious duties. The order under which you have received your training is but the expression of that idea sanctioned by the church. So at the risk of being charged with lecturing at a time when I should possibly be congratulating you, I say that meritorious conduct on your part reflects upon the church and the order which has made it possible for you to engage in the calling of your choice. And I must, to be consistent, add that any act on your part not strictly in accordance with the principles and in keeping with the spirit of the obligation which you this day assume, will in the eyes of the world tend to discredit the organization which gives you authority to call yourselves graduate nurses."

FATHER GLEASON SPEAKS.

Reverend Father Richard A. Gleason, president of Santa Clara College, said in part:

"What shall we say of trained nurses? It certainly is a noble profession and hence most beneficial. Physicians in our day rely more upon the intelligent, skillful devoted care of nurses than on their own medicine in the relief and cure of their patients. This noble institution also does the world owe to the Catholic Church. The first nurses were the members of religious orders of charity, both men and women. In the middle ages they had their share in caring for the sick. So extensive, indeed, was their training and to such a degree of excellence and skill did it reach that both nurse and monks could act as physicians and surgeons when these professional men could not be had.

"I heartily congratulate you light this noble band of nurses who have completed their long years of anxious careful training, the crowning of which we, their friends and well-wishers, have gathered to behold. I congratulate in my own name and in that of all here present, those who have prepared you, both physicians and sisters, for your honorable profession.

HELP THE SOULS.

"You then, my good nurses, sharing as you do the honor and the duty of the physicians, will in your ministrations to the sick, help even the souls of men. The priest and the physician work hand in hand and without leaving their proper sphere, do skillfully a perfect work. The nurse is helpful to both and shares their duty and their responsibility.

"Your profession then, my dear nurses, is a noble one and of the greatest beneficence. Nor is the beauty and the glory of their character diminished because in following your profession you expect some recompense. There is absolutely no proportion as all sensible men will see, between what you do and what you receive. Your profession has something of a sacred character. Nor should I forget to say, and I do with all seriousness and earnestness, that you yourself must do honor to your profession.

"You will do this if your work has three characteristics; it must be faithful. The physician trusts you the welfare of your patients depends upon you.

"Your service must be assiduous. Neglect nothing. The work is difficult, but the consciousness of duties well fulfilled is a solid comfort.

SERVICE SKILLFUL

"Your service must be skillful. There is no danger of its lacking this quality after the splendid training of the noble Sisters of Providence, whose reputation as nurses is as wide as our country, and of the splendid corps of physicians under whose guidance you have been up to the goal of graduation honors.

"There are, it is true, dangers of soul as well as of body in your profession, noble as it is. Be true to yourselves. Be mindful of the pure and noble lives of the good Sisters and you will be saved from the first. Be prudent in the care of the sick where there is danger of infection. Trust not to strength of body. Use all the ordinary precautions.

"In a word; realise your dignity, acquit yourself honorably of your duty and men and angels will rise up and call you blessed."

REV. FATHER P. F. KEANE, acting pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, who presided over the graduation exercises of Providence Hospital Training School last evening and delivered Bishop O'Connell's message and blessing to the graduates.

SAN FRANCISCO PREPARES TO PROVE WORTH OF CLAIM

Campaign for Fund Goes on Uninterruptedly To Show Officials City Can Handle Financial End of Exposition

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1. — While the solicitation of subscriptions to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition fund is kept up with unrelaxed zeal and the money is pouring into the treasury in an uninterrupted stream, the exposition committee realizes that a good financial showing must be made at Washington against New Orleans, which is recognized as a dangerous competitor. Inasmuch as San Francisco has declared through its representatives that it will not ask Congress to appropriate a dollar toward the exposition, ample proof must be given of the city's ability to assume the financial obligations associated with such a gigantic undertaking before it can hope to obtain the recognition of Congress as the exposition city and the President's invitation to foreign nations to participate.

Moreover, ever since the California delegation became aware that New Orleans and the allied interests behind that city had succeeded in tying up several Representatives and Senators, the committee has bent itself to the task of offsetting that influence by appealing to the friends of California throughout the United States to bring pressure to bear upon Congressmen to support the claims of the Pacific Coast, represented by the struggle that San Francisco is making for recognition.

SEND OUT LETTER.

Homer S. King, president of the exposition committee, has addressed the following circular letter to the business men of the Coast to use their best endeavors in this regard:

"Dear Sir: This is to advise you that the wires forwarded by the mercantile interests of San Francisco to their Eastern connections, influencing votes of Congressmen in favor of San Francisco's exposition, have had splendid results, but there is yet more to be done.

"We are in receipt of advices from our delegation in Washington stating that Friday, June 3, is the day appointed for the reports of the committees of both houses. It is very necessary, therefore, that strong appeals be sent to the following list of Senators and Representatives who are doubtful or against San Francisco in the fight for the exposition of 1915. They are at present in Washington:

"Representative Loudenslager, New Jersey; Representative Rodenburg, Illinois; Representative Ames, Massachusetts; Representative Barthholdt, St. Louis; Representative Hitchcock, Nebraska; Representative McKinley, Illinois; Representative Garner, Texas; Representative Gill, Maryland; Senator Rayner, Maryland; Senator Crane, Massachusetts; Senator Crawford, South Dakota; Senator Purcell, North Dakota; Senator Taylor, Tennessee; Senator Paynter, Kentucky; Senator Overman, North Carolina.

"If you have any connections or affiliations in the East that can reach these Congressmen give it your attention immediately. If you have not, wire them in the name of your firm or otherwise, as you may deem best. But have a wire reach them today. It is all-important. On inclosure please note a suggestion for a wire to those Congressmen whom you cannot reach by direct connection in the East."

KNOWLAND REPLIES.

Yesterday, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce received from Congressman Joseph R. Knowland the following reply to its request that he support the demand of San Francisco for Panama-Pacific Exposition:

"I wish to acknowledge the receipt of wire of the 24th instant, asking me to convey to Congress that the Oakland Chamber of Commerce earnestly indorses the effort to have the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco.

"It is of course understood here that California presents a united front in asking for this exposition. The fight is a very hard one. Tremendous influences are at work for New Orleans, and the California delegation is doing everything that can be done. The New Orleans committee has enlisted the support of people from every section of the United States, and there is hardly a member of Congress who has not received wires from people of prominence in his district. Page advertisements are being run in local Washington papers almost daily, and, of course, these advertisements allow the committee to run a great deal of reading matter booming New Orleans.

"It is impossible to secure any action by Congress at this session. I shall consider that we are fortunate indeed if we get a favorable committee report, in view of the pressure which is being brought upon the members of the committee to delay action until the December session."

FIRE TRAPS COME IN FOR CRITICISM

Daniel Crowley Denounces the Granting of Permits for the Erection of Shacks.

A denunciation of those responsible for the granting of permits for the remodeling of old buildings, not conforming with the fire ordinances, was made last night at the Merchants' Exchange meeting by Daniel Crowley, who, in the absence of President L. E. Young, acted as chairman. The fact that alleged fire traps are being remodeled in a manner not conforming with the fire regulations is, according to Crowley's statement, the chief reason why insurance rates have not been lowered. According to the speaker the law is being violated.

"I have seen cases where new roofs have been put on old frame buildings, and when these have been practically rebuilt, right in the business section of Oakland," said Crowley. "We ask for lower insurance rates, but we will not get them until this condition is remedied. Why is a big owner allowed to rebuild a shack while the small owner is compelled to make his alterations conform to the requirements of the fire ordinances?

"We are paying fat salaries to several officials supposed to protect us in this matter and see that the law is obeyed. These officials are not doing their duty. Why doesn't the building inspector, drawing a good salary from Oakland taxpayers, do his duty and see that these old buildings are properly remodeled? When we get decent alterations we will get better insurance rates, and not before."

SOCIALIST SEES VICTORY AT POLLS

Milwaukee Mayor's Campaign Manager Thinks the Old Parties Doomed.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Victor L. Berger, who engineered the campaign which made Emil Siedel the Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee, is in New York for a series of lectures on Socialism. He declares the Socialists expect to carry both New York and Chicago, and thinks both the old parties are doomed.

REPUBLICANS ARE SPLIT.

"The Republicans are hopelessly split and the Democrats are rotting away," is the way he puts it in a long statement given out today. "This first important Socialistic victory in a large American city," he continues, "means the sweep of the popular tide toward the radical doctrines and the end of the two important political parties. The Democratic party I view as a decomposing carcass that met its end because of lack of principles and ideals, and the Republican party as a disintegrating force in government.

"The spread of insurgency in the Republican ranks means the formation of a new party that will be composed of the defecting elements in that party and the Democrats who have espoused the cause of W. J. Bryan.

THE OTHER PARTY.

"The other party will be made up of the machine Republicans and the gold Democrats.

"Neither Theodore Roosevelt nor any other Republican is able to close the wide breach in the party and the moribund Democratic party cannot be reconstructed sufficiently to take advantage of the schism in the opposition faction. In the forthcoming Congressional campaign, the Republicans will lose heavily, but the Democratic gain will be minimized by the inroads of Socialism, which, I believe, will have representation in the next Congress."

Petaluma Preparing To Celebrate Fourth

PETALUMA, June 1.—Great preparations are being made for the big celebration which is to be held here July 2, 3 and 4. All the cities in Sonoma county have been invited and many have accepted the invitations. The Presidio Drum Corps, Patriarchs Militant Band, Healdsburg, Ukiah and Santa Rosa bands will be in the parade. Marshal E. A. Hustler has been chosen grand marshal. The Palo Alto military company and two companies from San Jose will participate in the procession. The Veteran Firemen of San Francisco are coming and many other organizations have yet to be heard from. Petaluma is preparing for one of the grandest festivals in the history of the city, and already a substantial fund has been subscribed for the celebration.

Veterans Angered at Use of Wax Flowers

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 1.—General J. Madison Drake of this city, supervisor of soldiers' and sailors' graves for the board of freeholders, is in trouble with Grand Army men because of his action in substituting wax flowers for natural blooms in decorating the graves of soldiers in Evergreen cemetery. When the veterans reached the cemetery Decoration day and found wax flowers they were indignant and the imitations were thrown away. Last night they held an indignation meeting and fixed up a long letter of complaint to the board of freeholders.

WILL HOLD STOCK SHOW AT IDORA

The Exposition Must Be Held Within City Limits to Get State Appropriation.

The Alameda county stock show will be held at Idora Park immediately after the State fair at Sacramento. Controller Nye declared that the show could not be held at the Emeryville race track as was first planned, as the track is outside the Oakland city limits.

Nye explained that if the show were to be held one mile outside the city limits it could as well be held anywhere in the county, and that no appropriation from the state will be made unless the show is held in this city.

"Idora Park is small for the purpose," said Theo. Gier, of the committee, last night, "but we will hold the show there. We do not wish to pass up the affair and admit that Oakland is not big enough for it. Mr. Miller, manager of the park, who is a member of the stock show committee, will assist us as much as possible, and I think we can get along pretty well in the park."

Returns From Prison To Find Wife Married

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—William Holmes, after serving two years in San Quentin, returned to his home two days ago to find that his wife, who had promised to wait for him and to return to him when he was released, had changed her mind in the meantime, that she had divorced him and was married to John Flippin. Holmes threatened her life and landed in the city prison. In Police Judge Shortall's court yesterday he asked for a secret audience with the court, and then told him this story:

"I was to go away. Perhaps she is right in not coming back to me, though it is pretty hard to have her go back on her promise after I had planned and counted on it so hard."

"But why did you threaten her?" asked the court.

"I was enraged with jealousy. I couldn't stand it. But now it is different. John Flippin is a good man. She married him after divorcing me, and I think she loves him. I will endure it."

Policeman Prevents Waterfront "Rolling"

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1. — Policeman Joseph Hayden of the Harbor station, was just in time to prevent what he believes was an attempt to "roll a drunk," at an early hour this morning, when, while standing in a dark doorway he noticed two men edging up to a third in front of the saloon at 70 East street. As he approached he saw Peter Carr put his hands into the pocket of James Worthington, of 629½ First avenue. The third man ran off, but Hayden arrested Carr and placed him in detinue, charging Worthington with intoxication so that he could be held as a witness against the other.

OFFICER VICTIM OF BOLD THUGS

Special Policeman Is Beaten, Disarmed and Robbed of Valuables.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Taken by surprise by two thugs, who sprang suddenly upon him from around a dark corner at 4 o'clock this morning, Special Policeman Tony Romill, a watchman for the Southern Pacific Company, was severely beaten, disarmed and robbed without having a chance to offer resistance.

Romill is on duty at the yards at East street and Broadway, and had been making his hourly rounds. He stopped a moment to light his pipe, and as he applied the match, the robbers made their attack.

One grabbed him by the throat, while the other beat him in the face, bearing him to the ground. In the struggle he was able to draw his revolver, but it was knocked from his grasp before he could use it, and $25 and a gold watch were taken from his pocket.

The watchman believes that the timepiece, which is valued at $75, was the object of the theft, as he believed the two men are the same who asked him the time about 1 o'clock in the morning Monday. After the assault he struggled to his feet, but the robbers had made their escape, and he applied to the Harbor Hospital, where several wounds of the face and head were dressed.

Fourth Victim of Wreck Is Claimed By Death After Hours of Suffering

ANOTHER VICTIM OF WRECK DIES

Orville Lewis Succumbs to His Injuries After Hours of Suffering.

to formally placing the blame for the catastrophe?" he was asked.

"I do not know," responded the superintendent.

"Does the company contemplate the dismissal of Conductor Holbrook, to whose carelessness the accident was due?"

"I do not know." Potter repeated, and concluded with the statement:

"I know nothing, and I have absolutely nothing to say."

POTTER VISITS HOSPITAL.

It is known that the superintendent visited Alameda last night to inquire as to the condition of the patients in the hospitals. "It was a terrible accident," he said, "but what can the company do? We can only have the best possible care taken of the victims and those who are crippled will have to reckon with the claims department.

"Conductor W. J. Holdorf is still in the employ of the company, but is not working. He has not resigned and no action in his case has been decided upon by the company officials."

Mrs. Leo Miller of 3617 Virginia avenue, Fruitvale, is at the Alameda Sanatorium in a critical condition. She has a broken nose and numerous body bruises but these injuries are not considered so serious as her general condition. She is in a delicate state of health and the shock of the accident is feared more than the actual injuries sustained.

OTHERS WILL RECOVER.

The other three injured victims at the sanatorium will recover. They are Harold Weston of Mills College, J. H. Anstott of San Francisco, and Alvin Pratt of Berkeley. One of the Pratt boy's legs has been amputated.

The body of Motorman Chris Christensen has been sent to Hayward from where the funeral will be held. Coroner C. L. Tisdale has set the Chris ensen inquest for June 7.

"I have not been in communication with the officials of the Traction company," said Mrs. Bartholomew, mother of Orville Lewis, who died this morning, "and the company has made no offers to assist in any way so far as I know. We are too much broken up over our loss to think of anything else at this time."

MANY DAMAGE SUITS.

That numerous suits for damages will be the outcome of the collision seems inevitable and several have already signified their intention of taking action against the traction company. Among them is Jacob Wehrle of 809 East Fourteenth street who was aboard the car with his wife, both being seriously cut and bruised.

"I shall sue the company for damages," he said, "for whether or not the conductor was to blame the company should be held responsible. My wife is more seriously injured than at first supposed and I am not inclined to let the matter pass lightly."

MAY BE CRIPPLE.

BERKELEY, June 1.—Raymond W. Olsen, son of former Town Trustee Neils Olsen, who was on the fated car with the party of Berkeley school children; although he was not one of the party, is at the Roosevelt Hospital in Berkeley, his right thigh badly crushed and his left ankle fractured. Physicians are working to save him from being permanently crippled, but there is some chance that the bone may be so badly fractured and the limb so mangled by the car accident that amputation will be necessary.

An X-ray will be taken by the attending physicians of the injured portion of the boy's body this afternoon, and it will then be decided whether an amputation can be avoided. Young Olsen resides with his parents at 2415 Seventh street, West Berkeley.

SCHOOL IN MOURNING.

There is mourning in the Berkeley schools today, especially among the classmates of the wreck victims at the Washington school, in which Maude Rothrock and Harold Hall were both pupils. Orville Lewis, who died last night, was a West Berkeley boy, and well known among the school children in the upper grades in the West End. Alvin Pratt and Edwin Swindell, both seriously injured, were also Berkeley boys who fell victims to the car accident.

The school children are expected to turn out in force in respect to their dead mates when the funerals are held. Resolutions of sympathy for the bereaved parents were passed by the classes this afternoon.

The funeral of Harold Hall has not been arranged for. Miss Maude Rothrock, "the little motherly," whose loss will be so deeply felt in the Berkeley household over which as elder sister she presided, will be buried from the Albert Brown undertaking parlors in Addison street tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery.

SCORES COMPANY.

In a speech condemning the methods of the Oakland Traction Company, A. Hunse, a real estate agent of Fruitvale, living at 4600 Fleming avenue, near High street, held the undivided attention of the members of the Board of Public Works this morning for fifteen minutes.

Hunse began his appeal for action against the traction company by declaring that he had spent hundreds of dollars searching records in the master and had discovered that the company ran its car over a line in the Leona Heights section of the city without a franchise.

He sent a ripple of surprise throughout the lobby of the meeting room when he declared that the conductor who has assumed the blame for the recent accident should not be held to answer, but that the tactics in use by the company are such that the most careful employe could not be free from the possibility of making mistakes.

WATCHED EMPLOYES.

"I have stood at East Fourteenth street," he said, "and have seen the conductor jump from his car many times and run to the telephone booth to determine as to whether or not the track ahead of him was clear. I have heard him yell "hello" in that telephone for nearly five minutes without an answer and then proceed on his way onto the single track.

"I have also seen the cars meet on this single track where the accident occurred Monday and have to back to a switch to allow one of them to pass on.

"I appeal to this board to demand that the Traction company install double tracks on that line. You can demand that they do this in ninety days and if they have not done so you can compel them to stop running cars there, for I can bring you the documents which will prove that they have no franchise whatsoever.

"That line was previously owned by the California Railway and was built by that company. No franchise was taken out by the California railway for the reason that the line was built on their own property.

"Notwithstanding this, the line was constructed across four county roads. When the Oakland Traction came into possession of the line the cars were operated there on schedules which to this day have never been uniform. You can never tell whether the cars are going to run every forty minutes or every ten or every twenty. Sometimes they do not run at all for a great length of time.

"The Oakland Traction Company is to blame for the accident last Monday. That single track business is death and should not be allowed.

"This board can take action and take it with the greatest possible authority. The Oakland Traction Company has no franchise for the Leona Heights line."

The last statement of Hunse created some concern among the members of the board and Mayor Mott moved that Hunse be requested to present the documents which he had obtained regarding the franchise matter to the board at the next meeting, when they would be examined and possibly an action taken in the case.

Club Demands Action Against Car Company

An enthusiastic rally of the Central Improvement Club of East Fruitvale took place last evening at Allendale Hall. Committee reports were heard on the streets, sewers and fire service. The principal business of the meeting was a report on the Leona Heights street car tragedy on May 30 and the necessity of compelling the Oakland Traction Company to obcessity of compelling the Oakland Traction Company to ob- Ernest Phillips, president of the club, introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the Oakland Traction Company owns rolling stock enough to accommodate all of the passengers desiring to ride upon the cars of the company and provide each person with a seat and prevent overcrowding; and

"Whereas, the loss of life and injury to two score and upwards of persons on the Leona Heights line on May 30, 1910, was in part due to the overcrowded car of the said company and a single track line, all those passengers forced to ride upon the front platform of the outbound car being either killed or crushed, maimed and injured; and

"Whereas, the cars of the Oakland Traction Company, westbound between 6 and 8 o'clock a. m. and eastbound between 5 and 6 o'clock p. m., are greatly overcrowded in violation of Section 2184 of the Civil Code of the State of California, which recites as follows: 'A common carrier of persons must provide a sufficient number of vehicles to accommodate all the passengers who can reasonably be expected to require carriage at any one time;' and in violation of Section 2185 of the Civil Code of the state of California, which recites: 'A common carrier of persons must provide every passenger with a seat. It must not overcrowd the vehicles by receiving and carrying more passengers than the rated capacity allows;' therefore,

"Resolved, by the Central Improvement Club of East Fruitvale, that a committee be appointed to forthwith present to and demand from the District Attorney immediate action looking to a compulsory observance of law, viz., Sections 2184 and 2185 of the Civil Code of California, by the Oakland Traction Company, or proceedings by the District Attorney to that end and purpose by formal notice to the said company that a continued violation of the law will be followed by a presentment of the matter to the grand jury.

The following committee of five members was appointed by the chair to present the resolutions to the District Attorney: E. L. Lawson, John F. Dietzman, J. R. Locke, R. R. Clarke and H. F. Bergendahl.

SOCIETY GIRL WON BY HOUSE PAINTER

Miss Violet Albright Becomes Bride Despite Opposition of Her Family.

wished no mention of the nuptials published.

The mother of the bride would not be interviewed, and the bride herself was averse to making any statement of her family's attitude toward her marriage. "She's a modern Cinderella, that's what my girl is," said the venerable bridegroom. She told me that the first time she saw me she said, 'That is the man I'm going to marry.' She's true blue and has a very romantic nature. The family is wild about her marrying me, but we don't care. I am a retired painter and have plenty to take care of us both. She is very much like my first wife."

The marriage is the culmination of a three months' acquaintance. Miss Albright slipped and fell on the street and Gottung, a bystander, jumped to her assistance and the chance acquaintance soon became a suitor.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Howard W. Bray, her brothers, Frank Albright of this city, who is treasurer for the firm of Hammer & Bray, and Duncan Albright, all joined the mother. Mrs George W. Albright, in opposing the December and May union, to no avail.

ALICE ALBRIGHT'S AUNT.

Another brother of today's bride was the late John Albright, whose widow is now Mrs. Robert B. Bain of Fruitvale, and whose daughter, Miss Alice Albright, will wed Frederick Farnum in August.

Gottung is a native of Germany and 34 years of age. He has a daughter by a former marriage. He came to Oakland about four years ago from San Francisco. The bride is a native of Missouri, where her family was prominent in the anti-bellum regime. She is an accomplished musician, being a pianist and a vocalist of more than ordinary talent. She recently spent a year in New York pursuing her musical studies, and her beautiful voice has been heard in local churches and cathedrals upon numerous occasions. She has also traveled extensively. In view of her unusual talents and her housewifely tendencies, her brothers and sisters and her mother were bitterly disappointed at her choice of one in whom the disparity of age and education is, they felt, no notable and the poignancy of their disappointment could not be concealed even at today's ceremony.

Dr. Rall has been at First Church since 1904. He came here from New Haven.

WRIGHT BROS. MAY WANT PRIZES

Silent as to Connection of the Curtiss Flight and Patent Infringements.

NEW YORK, June 1.—While the local newspapers are vieing in the offering of prizes for long-distance aeroplane flights, the Wright brothers are silent and their silence gives rise today to speculation and comment.

The Wrights have patent suits pending and it is believed that they are certain of winning these suits. Aviation experts declare that Wilbur and Orville are holding back, willing to let the others risk their lives while they collect the prize money through orders of the court.

If the Wrights win their suit against Glenn H. Curtiss, that aviator must turn over to them the $10,000 he won for his daring flight from Albany to New York.

The Wrights claim that the Curtiss aeroplane is an infringement of their patents and that they are entitled to all benefits accruing from its use as well as to a court order restraining Curtiss from flying in machines modeled after theirs.

It was commented upon freely that of all the congratulations poured in on Curtiss from all parts of the world by distinguished aviators, commendation by the Wrights was withheld.

It was thought that the Wrights might set aside legal consideration for the time being and praise the daring of the man. It is believed, however, they feared such action would have jeopardized their case.

Striking Laborers Attempt Violence

TACOMA, June 1.—Without a minute's warning a hundred Italian laborers working for the Tacoma gas company threw down their picks and shovels at 9 o'clock this morning, and marched to Sixth avenue and State street, where they forced another gang of laborers digging ditches for the mains of the gas company to join them. In some instances they seized the tools of the men who refused to join the movement and dragged them from the ditches. A dozen American laborers were seized by the collar and pulled off the work. A squad of uniformed police officers answered a call and on their arrival no further interference was attempted. Strikers demand an advance of 25 cents a day and an eight-hour day.

EIGHT INSANITY CASES IN WEEK.

There have been eight cases of insanity confined in the insane division of the Receiving Hospital during the last week, indicating that the change of weather has had its usual effect in this direction. Physicians say that insanity increases in practically all communities with radical changes in the temperature and there the present outbreak of deponents is to be expected with the advent of hot weather and therefore cannot be regarded as extraordinary.

Texas Mine Owners Grant Wages Asked

FORT WORTH, June 1.—After a suspension of coal mining in the bituminous fields of Texas for two months, 500 miners returned to work today. The mine owners granted the demands of their owners.

ROBBED WHILE ASLEEP.

'Little Hip,' Baby Elephant, Joins Tribune Newsboys' Ranks

"LITTLE HIP," tiny jungle king who is the latest addition to the army of enterprising little merchants who sell THE TRIBUNE.

Have you seen THE TRIBUNE'S new newsboy?

"Little Hip," from the African jungles where his ancestors have lived for thousands of years, and the smallest performing elephant in the world, is the latest "newsie."

He joined the ranks of the little TRIBUNE merchant tha "Noodles" Fagan, declared the most enterprising in the west, last night, and in a single run down Broadway in the automobile in which his jungle majesty goes forth to his labors, disposed of 500 copies of Oakland's great daily, hot off the press.

He's no believer in frenzied finance, however, is "Little Hip," and under the terms of his contract to dispose of Tribunes during his week's engagement at the Bell Theater in this city, the brown-skinned autocrat refuses to accept the customary nickle for the "news of the world condensed in twenty-four sheets," preferring rather to shower them on an eager public with lavish hand.

A great believer in the power of the press, "Little Hip," upon his advent in some new city immediately sees to it that his business manager learns the name of the largest and most important publication printed in the vicinity, and straightway waddles forth with dignified but clumsy mein, to offer his services, as newsboy par excellence.

He was royally received in the business office of THE TRIBUNE last night, and after receiving his big allotment of papers from the distributor returned to his waiting automobile and was piloted up the city's main thoroughfare.

The novelty was the subject of much public interest and the 500 papers were eagerly snapped up, those who obtained them taking them from the elephant's outstretched trunk.

"Little Hip" will be out again this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Watch for him. After his distribution of the papers the little beast returns to his cage for a hearty supper after which he makes his nightly appearance at the Bell Theater, where he is one of the weeks' best attractions.

NORTON SLATED AS TAFT'S SECRETARY

The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Declared Selected Secretary.

WASHINGTON, June . — Matters occupying the attention of statesmen or politicians, as they may be defined and classified here in Washington, at the present time, relate to an infinite variety of subjects, ranging from invoking the aid of Attorney General Wickersham in behalf of shippers down to the appointment of a private secretary to the President of the United States.

In the estimate of some, this arrangement might be reversed, inasmuch as there are many who regard the appointment of a private secretary of paramount importance and even of more interest than complaints of shippers and presentation of their troubles either to the Senate or to the Attorney General.

NORTON IS SLATED.

So far as the appointment of a secretary to the President is concerned, it appears certain that Charles D. Norton, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury at the present time, will get the appointment. That he can have the appointment is certain, but it remains with the President, the Secretary of the Treasury and the young man himself to determine whether it is desirable to transfer him from a post where he is doing excellent work to another in which he would be equally effective, but by transferring him embarrassment would be caused to his present chief.

It is understood, however, that the secretary of the Treasury has agreed with the President that if Norton be called he can be spared, and that his selection will be very agreeable to everyone.

Another matter of general interest which might be considered as intermediate between those referred to is the doings in the Senate when the Sundry Civil bill, which is now before the House, is taken up for consideration in the upper chamber.

It is certain that the insurgents will consider it a necessity to renew their attack on the tariff, and the regulars will find time and occasion to defend it, while the Democrats will take a shot at both and predict happiness and all sorts of blessings for the country, including a perfect tariff, when they return to power in the somewhat indefinite future, dates not being a matter of expediency or desirable.

The tariff discussion, however, is likely to be one of the closing features and the somewhat stormy end to a long protracted session.

COMET IS BLAMED FOR LOSS OF MIND

Governess Broods Over Visit of Astral Stranger and Becomes Insane.

until the talk about the comet, much of which portended death to the people of the earth, reached her ears. Subsequent developments in her case caused those who were interested in her to recall while testifying that the stories Miss Huerta heard seemed to trouble her grievously and prompted her to devote more time to prayer and her other religious duties.

The climax came about 2 o'clock in the morning of May 23, when a relative of the children was roused out of a sound sleep by someone rapping on her bedroom door. She asked who was there and Miss Huerta answered

"What do you want?" she was asked.

"Did you feel the earthquake?" came the reply

"No; there was no earthquake."

INSISTED ON EARTHQUAKE.

"Indeed there has been a very serious quake," came the rejoinder of the agitated woman in the hall. "The comet caused it and we are all going to our destruction."

The relative admitted Miss Huerta into her apartments and found her greatly excited and trembling with terror. She talked reassuringly to the governess and after much pursuasion induced her to return to her bed.

From that time on Miss Huerta was never herself again and before a week had passed she was in such a deplorable mental condition that it was necessary to ask District Attorney Donahue to take charge of the case. He assigned it to Deputy District Attorney Smith, who, after hearing all the details, telegraphed to Vice-President Corral, in the City of Mexico, for instructions. Corral wired back asking that the woman be committed to an asylum temporarily. He said that his private car would arrive in Oakland some time during the current month to take his children back home and that he would have the Huerta woman taken back to Mexico at the same time.

COMMITTED TEMPORARILY.

It was with this understanding that Judge Wells committed the woman to Stockton; otherwise he would have directed the District Attorney to take steps for the patient's deportation as an undesirable alien. The order of commitment was entered solely out of courtesy to Vice-President Corral.

Drs. H. B. Mehrmann and George G. Reiule sat with Judge Wells on the lunacy commission that committed Miss Huerta and the former said after the hearing that the woman's condition was such that he doubted very much if she would live long enough to enable Vice-President Corral to get her back to her native home.

Struck by Fast Train On Bridge and Killed

Former Resident of Oakland Meets Death on High Trestle Near San Jose.

Thomas Cullen, for many years a resident of Oakland, was killed at 9:05 this morning by the Shore Line limited train near San Jose, where he was employed in the Southern Pacific yards. Cullen, who for some time has been a member of the survey staff of the railroad company, was on the big bridge west of the city, and seeing the train coming, attempted to get on the other track. The train was traveling at a rate of 60 miles an hour, and he was struck before he reached safety. He fell about 50 feet to the ground.

Cullen was about 50 years of age and was well known in this city.

Detectives Arrest Alleged Tool Thief

A man giving the name of William Marshall was arrested by the detective force of the city this morning on a charge of stealing tools belonging to the telephone company from an alley in the rear of the St. Mark hotel. Marshall wore a military blouse when captured and a medal for bravery was pinned on his shirt.

"King Bicycle Thief" Is Held to Answer

H. E Martindale, known as the "king bicycle thief," was this morning held to answer to the Superior Court by Judge Samuels on a charge of grand larceny. Martindale was arrested on the charge of stealing three bicycles three days after he was released from San Quentin.

Nurse Disappears; Foul Play Feared

Thomas Walsh Appeals to San Francisco Police to Find His Missing Sister.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Becoming alarmed at his sister's continued absence from home and fearing that she has met with foul play, Thomas Walsh of 771 Fourteenth street reported to the Mission police station that Eleanor Walsh, 22 years of age, mysteriously disappeared Friday night and has been missing since then.

Miss Walsh had been employed as a nurse by Mrs. Helen Davis of 1317 De Haro street, while living with her mother at 2610 Mission street. Friday night she left the Davis home, saying that she was going for a walk. Since then she has not been seen by either her employer or relatives.

In a statement to the police Mrs. Davis said that no anxiety was felt for the safety of Miss Walsh when it was found that she had not returned Saturday morning. It was thought that the girl had gone to her mother's house for the evening.

According to Walsh he did not know of his sister's disappearance until last night, when Mrs Davis told him of her continued absence from her place of employment.

Suspected Chinese May Be Bold Thug

Chin Sing, a Chinaman, was arrested this morning on suspicion of having been one of the Chinese robbers who have been terrorizing the Oriental section of the city for many months past. While in custody Sing was identified by one of his victims, Kim Yuen, as one of three men who broken into his home at 337½ Eighth street on the evening of May 13 and after gagging and binding the owner, stole $30 worth of opium and $66 in coin. The prisoner is suspected of other burglaries in Chinatown.

His prophecy fulfilled

Shortly after his election to the Presidency Theodore Roosevelt visited Oakland. In a letter written in Oakland at that time to a friend in Washington, he said: "Oakland is a city, just across the bay from San Francisco, where one finds the soft air of Italy and the beauty of English villages combined with a spirit of Western Progress and commercial advantages which will some day as far as I am able to judge from my limited investigations, make it the greatest railroad terminal on the Pacific Coast."

THE great railroads terminating in Oakland have authorized expenditures aggregating $22,000,000 for Oakland traffic and terminal facilities. The city has planned to improve her twenty-seven miles of water front by an expenditure of $25,000,000. Splendid manufacturing sites with rail and water transportation are still available at low figures. The climate is ideal and the residential advantages for employer and employee unsurpassed. Oakland is indeed a bustling, beautiful city of thousand-fold opportunity and 300,000 population. Write for souvenir book of views and literature free.

IMPORTANT TAX DECISION IS WRITTEN BY MELVIN

Assessment of Mexican Petroleum Company Means Big Annual Increase In State's Revenues

Associate Justice of the Supreme Court Harry Melvin is receiving praise for a recent decision he wrote in the suit of C. A. Canfield against the county of Los Angeles to avoid paying taxes on shares of stock of the Mexican Petroleum Company, the property of which is all in Mexico and the principal place of business and offices in Los Angeles, and which was assessed for $323,285. The suit was decided against the oil company and they were ordered to pay the taxes. The case came before the Supreme Court on an appeal and the decision of the lower court affirmed.

INCREASES STATE'S REVENUE.

It means the obtaining of a great deal of revenue to the state which heretofore it has lost. In brief, the ruling is that the stockholders of a company can be taxed for stock in a concern which has its plant outside of the state. If such a corporation has a part of its plant in the state and subject to taxation the stockholders are credited with such taxes as may be paid in such parts of the plant as taxes have been paid on. The decision written by Judge Melvin is a long one, taking in all parts of the case and establishes a precedent which will be of great interest to the taxpayers of the state. It was concurred in by Justices Angelotti, Sloss, Henshaw and Lorigan. Justice Shaw did not sit in the case.

PART OF DECISION.

Judge Melvin's decision in part follows:

"Section 1 of article XIII provides that 'All property in the state shall be taxed in proportion to its value to be ascertained as provided by law. The word "property" as used in this article and section is hereby declared to include stocks,' etc.

"Here, then, is an express declaration that it is only property in the state that is subject to taxation, and the word 'property' is construed to include stocks only as that word is used in this article and section. It seems to us that this is almost an express declaration that the word 'property' shall not be construed to include any of the things mentioned unless they are within the state.

"The words 'in this state' certainly do not necessarily mean property which is in fact out of the state and only in this state theoretically by virtue of some legal fiction, and so we say that accepting the construction most consonant with the justice of the case, we should not extend it to include stocks representing properties which are physically beyond the state's jurisdiction."

When we consider the purpose of taxation it must be apparent that there should not be a construction at variance with the ordinary meaning of the words of the above quoted section of the constitution. Citizens are taxed for the support of the government that protects them and their property. It would be manifestly unfair to tax one citizen for personal property of a tangible, salable kind located in California and omit the imposition of a similar burden on the possessors of equally valuable and vendible personality, just as difficult to protect, just as much subject to the law of supply and demand in this state, because the value of that property depends in whole or in part upon the holdings of a corporation in a country where they may or may not be taxed. In Bank of Commerce v. Tennessee, 161 U. S. 146, it was held that "the capital stock of a corporation and the shares into which such stock may be divided and held by individual stockholders are two distinct pieces of property. The capital stock and the shares of stock in the hands of the shareholders may both be taxed and it is double taxation."

CLAIM OF APPELLANTS.

The doctrine for which appellants contend would in many cases prevent the assessment in California to residents of this state of valuable stock in foreign corporations. This would be true at least in respect to the stock of those corporations having their entire property in other countries. Assessments levied upon such stock and similar credits, however, have been held to be valid even when the evidences of ownership were out of the state. (Stanford v. San Francisco, 131 Cal. 34; Estate of Fair, 128 Cal. 614.)

In Ohio this question has come up in much the same manner in which it is presented here, in a case in which the assessment of stock in a foreign corporation was involved. In that case Bradley v. Bander, 36 Ohio St. 34, the court [illegible].

It is said, that because the capital of the company is invested in real and fixed property in the state where the corporation is located, and in which state taxes upon the same are regularly levied and paid, a tax here upon the shares of stock of those residing here, is a tax upon the same property, and therefore results in double taxation.

SUBSTANCE OF ARGUMENT.

"The argument is that the capital of the corporation is invested in property which is taxed in the name of the corporation, and that the shares of the capital stock, when owned by individuals, only represent proportions in the ownership of such property, and hence, to tax the shares is another mode of taxing the property of the corporation, and that a tax upon both, although the tax upon one is imposed in another state, violates the rule or principle of equality established by the constitution. This argument, however plausible it seems, has never met with favor from the courts. Double taxation, in a legal sense, does not exist, unless the double tax is levied upon the same property within the same jurisdiction. Here the property owned by the plaintiffs is not only not the same as that owned by the corporation but its situs, so far as shares of stock are capable of one, is in a different state.

"The constitutional power to tax shares of stock, owned by our citizens in corporations located without the state, does not depend on whether the capital of the corporation is or is not taxed in the state where the corporation is created. The power is the same, whether the capital of the corporation is there taxed or not, otherwise, the power of taxation conferred by the constitution would be made to depend upon the question of laws of a foreign jurisdiction—a proposition so obviously ill-founded that the moment it is stated its falsity becomes apparent."

In the matter of taxing the shares of stock in a domestic corporation owning property without the state that court has gone even beyond the doctrine in the Chesebrough case, because it sanctions assessment of the stock without deduction for the value of the corporation's property in the state. (Lauder v. Burke, 55 Ohio St 532).

After a careful examination of all the authorities presented we see no reason to change the rule expressed in Chesebrough v. City and County of San Francisco, supra, and the other cases to which reference has been made herein.

The judgment and orders from which appeals are taken are therefore affirmed.

SAYS REIS INCOME IS $600 MONTH

Company's Secretary Takes Stand in Sensational Divorce Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—That the income of William B. Reis, whose wife, Clara M. has brought suit for divorce, charging that he has an affinity, is but $600 a month, was the testimony given by C. B Klein secretary of the Reis estate company in Judge Cabaniss' court, today.

Mrs. Reis, accompanied by her four-year old boy, was present in the court room, and following the testimony of Klein, was questioned in brief by Attorney Barrett who represents her husband. The latter's property in toto is represented as being valued at about $175,000.

Reis has not been contesting the divorce but has been fighting his wife's demand for $500 monthly alimony. In her complaint she charged improper conduct with an affinity at the San Margarita ranch and also at a house on Vallejo street in this city.

REJECTED LOVER'S SUICIDE FAILS TO END WEDDING PLANS

SAN DIEGO, June 1.—Miss Bertha Schaetz, for love of whom Burr Westlake of Pasadena committed suicide Sunday morning in a room at her home, went to Santa Ana this morning and will be married at noon there to Harry Sale, a traveling salesman of San Francisco. The marriage license was issued at Santa Ana yesterday and all arrangements for the wedding were completed by the groom-elect. Rev. A. P. Roadhouse will perform the ceremony.

Miss Schaetz last evening admitted that she was to be married today and said that because of the recent affair at her home it was decided the ceremony should take place in Santa Ana instead of San Diego. She also said that the marriage is not sudden as she and Sale have been engaged for weeks.

After the wedding the couple will go to Los Angeles, said Miss Schaetz, and later would go to England where Sale's parents live. They will make their home in San Francisco.

NAME COMMITTEE FOR LABOR DAY

Building Trades Council Prepares to Hold Festivities on Union Holiday.

Committees to arrange for the Labor Day celebration of the Oakland and Alameda county unions were appointed last night by President H. J. Banker of the Building Trades Council. The Building Trades committee will act with another general committee to be appointed soon from the Central Labor Council, and arrangements will be made for a parade and several other festivities in honor of the day. In appointing the committee President Banker named three men from the council at large and one delegate from every affiliated union.

The list of names is as follows: From the council at large, R. M. Hamb, F. H. Pratt and J. C. Flaherty; from the unions, W. L. Curran, Tom Westoby, D. M. Bonsack, C. R. Elder, D. F. Dwyer, T. Taylor, E. A. Hattley, L. M. Dimmick, E. J. Alphonse, James Carey, William Britton, George E. Manes, E. L. McAdams, P. McWalter, M. V. Manning, M. Hyland, J. Bloomer, D. S. McCarthy, E. McGuire, Charles Groff, C. L. Philbrick, A. Lynn, W. T. Stanley, E. Barney and William Owens. James Talbot, from the Mill Men's Union, was seated as a delegate to the council in the place of E. H. Bruning, who resigned on account of other work.

AID FOR HOME INDUSTRY.

At the order of the council Secretary F. H. Pratt was instructed to communicate with Mayor Mott and Superintendent of Schools McClymonds, asking that when new school buildings are being erected local merchants and manufacturers be remembered in the choice of materials, hardware and appliances to be used in the buildings. The council was invited by the joint committee of the Solano and Contra Costa Building Trades Councils to attend the picnic to be given by these two organizations July 4.

Although the ten days in which to raise their funds has expired without their collecting the amount desired, the King's Daughters Home committees will receive the $100 guaranteed them by the council.

The action of the Bay Cities Carpenters Council in the matter of raising the minimum wage scale to $5 per day, as before the financial stringency, was indorsed, and this scale will go into effect in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda after August 1.

TELLS OF ORPHANAGE.

James French of the San Francisco Building Trades Council was a guest at last night's meeting of the Oakland council. He spoke on the condition of the Union Men's Orphanage and of the work planned.

"We will make this institution one of the best, if not the best, institutions of its kind in the country," said the speaker, "and to this end we will carry on a vigorous campaign for improvements. We now have a model place, and our charges are as well cared for as in any place of its kind in the state."

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Hen Gives It Up and Abandons Nest

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa.—A desertion in the poultry yard of Victor P. Miller, the Bowmanstown landlord, has spoiled his chances of obtaining more than two goslings from five eggs put under a hen. A gander pre-empted the first gosling hatched, and when the hen went to coax her youngster back a Wyandotte rooster captured her nest and hatched out a second gosling. The hen then abandoned the nest.

WRESTLERS READY FOR WORK ON MAT

Gotch and Zbyszski to Meet Tonight in Championship Match.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Frank Gotch and Stanislaus Zbyszko will battle for the wrestling championship of the world at the Coliseum tonight. Critics predict that the American will have a hard fight to pin the giant Pole to the mat twice. His enthusiastic countrymen hope Zbyszko will wrest from Gotch the honors he won in defeating George Hackenschmidt in 1908, and which he has successfully defended since then.

Zbyszko is admittedly the logical opponent for Gotch, as he has emerged successfully from the informal elimination contests. He has defeated Yussiff Mahmout, the challenger against Gotch last year, and practically all of the important wrestlers of the country.

Gotch and his opponent tonight have met once before, but in a handicap match. It was in Buffalo, and the terms of the contest called for the American to throw the Pole twice in an hour. Gotch failed to get even one fall in the allotted time.

Dick Fleming of Chicago has been chosen as referee. Zbyszko made an effort to get a Pole to be allowed to act in that capacity, but his demands were refused. He will be allowed, however, to have a committee of his countrymen at the ringside, and they will prepare a report of the match for general circulation throughout Europe, where Zbyszko is better known than in this country.

The men are scheduled to enter the ring about 9:30 p. m.

Evil of Padding the Census.

It is charged by the Pasadena papers that the census returns are being padded in Los Angeles, the actual count in that city falling far below boasts and expectations. Wichita, Kansas, has challenged the census returns from Oklahoma City on the ground that they are padded. It is said that the returns for the Oklahoma capital show a population of 67,000 when in fact the bona fide inhabitants do not number much over 50,000. While jealousy has prompted Wichita to make the charge, the presentation was strong enough to cause the Director of the Census to order an investigation.

It is foolish and profitless to pad the census. Nothing is gained by a fictitious showing of either population or business. Sooner or later the fraud is revealed to bring discredit on the town. If a correct census be taken in a city where the census was padded ten years previously it makes a bad showing. The basis of comparison being a false one, the real progress of the town is understated precisely to the extent of the false showing of the previous decade.

Omaha's experience is an example worthy of study. In 1890 the census of that city was grossly and systematically padded through jealousy of Sioux City and St. Joseph. On paper Omaha led both her competitors a long way. But alas, there was a day of reckoning. In 1900 the census was correctly taken in Omaha, and it revealed the fact that the city had fewer inhabitants than was shown by the false count of ten years before. Yet it was evident to the most casual observer that Omaha had made great strides in both business and population. There had been an immense amount of building and an enormous increase in bank clearings and postoffice receipts. Yet on paper the city had declined heavily in population.

That was because the basis of comparison was false. The city was called on to pay the penalty of the fraud practiced the previous decade. The padded census had reacted, become a boomerang, in fact, and had struck back with stunning effect.

Then to save their city from being classed as on the decline, the people of Omaha were compelled to acknowledge the fraud of 1890. They had to own up the trick by which the city was given nearly 50,000 fictitious inhabitants. It is safe to say that padding the census will never be repeated in Omaha.

The lesson is one Los Angeles can study with profit. We do not know whether the charges of padding made by the Pasadena papers are true or false, but if they are true a grave mistake is being made—a mistake that will react to plague and humiliate the Angel City. Los Angeles is growing fast enough without making false representations as to the number of inhabitants she contains. She will ultimately suffer as Omaha did if a false basis of future comparison be established and made an official record. There has been tremendous growth in Los Angeles since 1900—probably a larger rate of growth than can be shown by any other city in the country—and her interests will be best served by returning a true count, one that will neither be open to suspicion nor challenge. As Omaha's experience proves this is a matter in which honesty is clearly the best policy.

England's Right to Be in Egypt.

Doubtless the propriety of the criticism of the methods employed by the British in Egypt indulged in by Mr. Roosevelt in his Guildhall speech, will be questioned, and probably challenged, but there is no gainsaying the fact that he discussed the subject with refreshing candor. It may not have been in good taste for him to tell the English how they should manage their own business, but nevertheless he told them some plain truths and laid down some sound principles. What he said is in direct line with the views he expressed in his speech at the University of Cairo, and is in entire sympathy with British rule in Egypt.

Starting from the premise that if England has no right to be in Egypt she should get out; and that if she has a right to be there she should govern with a firmer hand and a more direct exercise of authority, he declared Egypt was better governed today than she has been for 2000 years. He might have gone further and kept within the truth. Egypt was probably never so well governed as she is today, but the world has progressed since the Pyramids were built. All governments ought to improve with the general advance in human progress. It is to England's credit that she rescued Egypt from bankruptcy disorder and misgovernment. She has improved agriculture and reclaimed for profitable cultivation vast areas of land which had lain barren for centuries, provided security for life, property and stable industry, and lifted the Nile valley to a level of prosperity it has not known since the Mohammedan conquest. She has kept the Suez canal open as a free route for the commerce of all nations and made the Nile a great commercial highway between the Mediterranean and the Soudan.

Yet after all is said and done, England's right to exert a controlling influence in Egypt is open to question on sentimental and ethical grounds. The indirection and timidity displayed in dealing with Egyptian affairs is a concession to sentimentality. Hence the application of Roosevelt's epigram, "Sentimentality is the most broken reed on which righteousness can lean." Roosevelt is no sentimentalist, and he is a strenuous believer in the doctrine that the white man should shoulder the burden of making the dark races keep peace and order and conform to western ways of civilization.

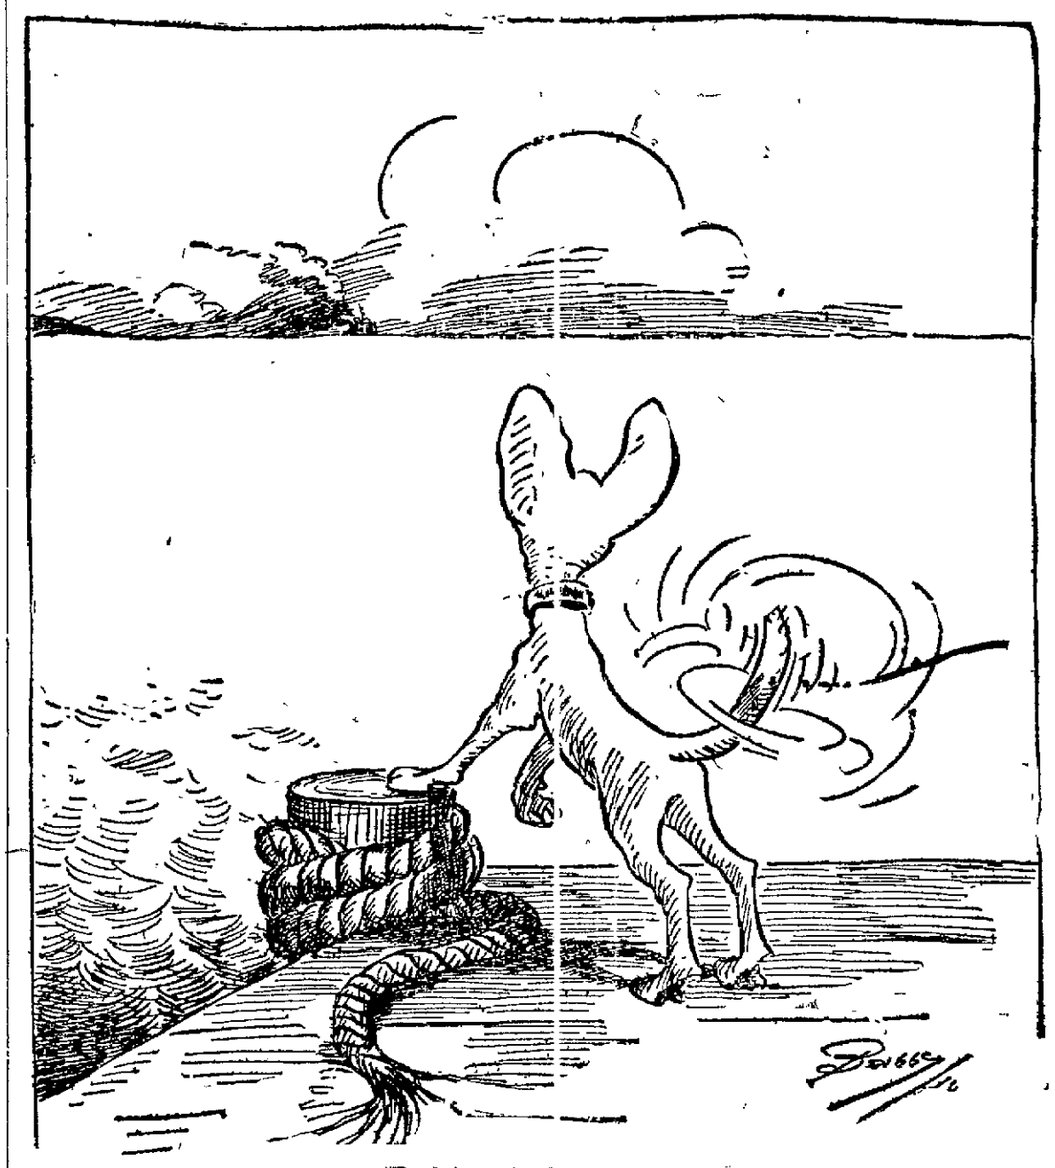

The vital point of the Egyptian situation is that England is contending with an alien civilization in Egypt. The cry of Egypt for the Egyptians is raised by a minority, the descendants of invaders, who seized dominion by force and proselyted the native inhabitants with the sword. The opposition to English rule is racially Arab and religiously Mohammedan. The tribesmen of the desert and fanatical devotion to the Koran are the forces England is contending with. They are alien to the land, but for more than a thousand years they ruled Egypt, the native race of which has not known independence since Cambyses overran the Kingdom of the Pharaohs five hundred years before Christ. A succession of foreign conquerors—Persian, Greek, Roman and Arab—has ruled the land, and it is in the interest of modern civilization and human progress that England maintains peace and order on the banks of the Nile. Should she relinquish the task, the reactionary forces of Islam and the semi-barbarism of the desert would regain control. This is the alternative that Egypt presents.

The hard hand betokens the busy brain and the happy heart—work is life.

The horrible disaster at Leona Heights has a moral for the City Council. Think what may happen if the streets are given up for twenty-four hours to the indiscriminate explosion of fireworks.

Whenever a husband begins to sympathize with the wrongs and trials of an ill-used and unloved wife be sure she is some other fellow's wife, and that his sympathy is not shared by his own spouse.

HE'S COMING BACK!

"For he's coming home to me.
He is sailing o'er the sea.
Yes, he's coming home to me,
Sweet Marie."

—CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

President Taft and the Law

William Howard Taft is not only a great lawyer, but he was an able and a great judge. His patriotism—that is to say, his desire to do the right because it is the right—was nobly and practically expressed and writ so that he who runs may read in his selections of jurists for vacancies on the supreme bench.

There never was a man who had a more pronounced sense of justice than Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican President; but unfortunately for his country and for mankind he was President when war raged from the Potomac and the James to the Osage and the Arkansas. Had he lived, his genius for politics and his love for equity would have brought about the fraternity of the sections by 1868 that his remote successor McKinley accomplished in 1898.

As for Grant, he was a soldier, simple and great. It would be impossible for Taft to send to Congress a message that was tantamount to a military order directing that the law be repealed that made A. T. Stewart, the merchant prince of America, ineligible to the office of Secretary of the Treasury.

Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Benjamin Harrison and McKinley were all licensed lawyers, but Harrison was the only great lawyer of the lot, and none of them had sat on the bench.

But here is Taft, who was distinguished at the bar and eminent on the bench. He is not going to set one foot before the other without reason or precedent, or both, for it. And hence this passage from the letter he wrote Secretary Ballinger last September:

"I have every confidence in both you and Pinchot.

"I know you are both patriotic and sincere, and both favor generally the same result as to conservation, but that you are a lawyer, like me, and insist on the legal way, while Pinchot is impatient of such restraint."

And that is what all this row is about. Is the law paramount? Shall it alone reign?—Washington Post.

Great Speed of Halley's Comet

The great speed of the comet is estimated at 3,000,000 miles an hour by the astronomers. It can be better comprehended when compared to the known speed of man and his agents.

Auto—Fastest mile, 28 1-5 seconds. The same machine would require 10 months, 26 days, 7 hours and and 2 minutes to cross the comet's tail.

Aeroplane—Fastest mile, 52 seconds. Would take 1 year, 11 months, 6 days, 2 hours, 26 minutes and 4 seconds to cover the million miles of "naught."

Bicycle—Fastest mile, 58 3-5 seconds. Would require 1 year, 10 months, 14 days, 21 hours, 46 minutes and 4 seconds to cross the tail.

Railroad trains, at 60 miles an hour, would take 1 year, 10 months, 6 days, 12 hours, 4 minutes.

Best time by a horse (Salvator) 1 minute 35½ seconds for a mile. He would have to run continuously 3 years, 11 days, 11 hours, 33 minutes and 2 seconds.

The Mauretania at her best speed, 32 miles an hour, would require 3 years, 3 months, 28 days and 2 hours to get through.

Best running record for a mile (Conneff), 4 minutes 15 3-5 seconds. It would take 8 years, 1 month, 8 days and 8 hours to cover the distance at this speed.

It would have taken Alfred Payson Weston, walking at his best record (72 miles a day), 38 years and 8 days to have waded through the million miles of molecules in the tail of the comet.

Cry for Hippopotami

Efforts to improve upon nature often bring rewards, but sometimes revenges. When western ranchers exterminated the coyote they were faced by a consuming plague of jack rabbits. Years ago an admirer of its beautiful bloom introduced the water hyacinth in the waters of Florida. Since then the government has spent large sums of money in the effort to clear streams in the South of its multiplying obstruction.

An enterprising plantation owner in Louisiana now proposes to introduce the agile and graceful hippopotamus as a sure cure. It is asserted that the hippopotamus has an insatiable appetite for the hyacinth. It would seem a logical deduction that if Louisiana can add this animal to its fauna it will improve its flora by elimination. All that is now needed is an appropriation by Congress for the importation of the interesting hippo. The State will not miss the hyacinths; what it will do with the thriving and multiplying beasts remains to be seen. Possibly the enterprising hunter will add their steaks to the local menu of adventurous traveling Presidents. Introduced and properly educated in the tributary waters of the cotton belt, this good natured beast may devote an appetite for the boll weevil. Here looms a new and interesting field for investigation by the traveling experts of the Department of Agriculture.—Washington Post.

Dishonorable Names Honored

When in 1566 the Count of Barlaimont characterized the league of Flemish nobles arrayed against his Spanish sovereign as "a band of beggars" the league until then without a name, enthusiastically adopted the one the haughty servant of Spain had given them, and called themselves the "League des Gneux." They made the name a badge of honor for all time. In a similiar spirit the French and American soldiers in Rhode Island during the war of the Revolution christened themselves the "sansculottes" at a feast they gave where potatoes and similar homely viands constituted the menu, with the distilled juice of the corn, and any man considered himself disgraced if he appeared with a whole pair of breeches. This name, originating in this country, was transferred to France, where it was applied as a term of reproach by the aristocrats to the revolutionists of 1789. That the revolutionists did not so regard it is indicated by the fact that in the new calendar they adopted, beginning with Sept. 22, 1792, they applied the term "sansculottides" to the five (or six) supplementary days placed at the end of the last month to complete the year, each of the twelve months having thirty days. These examples from history show how names given in dishonor can be redeemed in honor, a reflection in which those who think they are mis-named may find consolation.—Army and Navy Journal.

Kent's English Brushes

The famous imported Kent brushes are made from what are known as "Dowery" bristles, so called from the fact that the quantity collected by the maidens of Siberia, governs the amount of their dowery. Every one of these Siberian bristles is much heavier than the ordinary hog bristle. Set in long, uneven tufts, they make a brush of superior quality and service.

Kent's brushes are made for a variety of purposes. Price 50c to $5.00.

Dr. Smith McKim a Brutal Drunkard, Charges Wife in Suit for Divorce

MRS. MARGARET E. McKIM, whose divorce complaint charges her husband with habitual drunkenness.

BEATEN BY HUBBY SOCIETY WOMAN ALLEGES

'Bromo Seltzer King's' Daughter Declares Spouse Abused Her for Years.

EXTREME CRUELTY IS CHARGED IN COMPLAINT

Abused in Public and Private and Supported by Father, Says Woman.

RENO, June 1.—The sealed complaint for divorce recently filed by Mrs Margaret E McKim, daughter of "Bromo Seltzer King" Emerson of Baltimore and prominent in New York society, against Dr. Smith Hollins McKim was opened today. If McKim makes no formal appearance the case can be heard in ten days

The complaint says the couple were married in Baltimore in December, 1902, and that there are no children. No property rights are involved. No alimony is asked. In several typewritten pages there are charges in detail of gross drunkenness and physical cruelty, extending from June, 1903, less than six months after their marriage to a year ago, when by the advice of her physicians she was compelled to leave him in order to save herself from becoming a physical and mental wreck.

HABITUALLY A DRUNKARD.

She alleges that the physician has been guilty of habitual drunkenness, contracted in June, 1903, and continued ever since. This, says the complaint, has resulted in incapacitating him for any ordinary business pursuits or avocations of life It is charged that he has failed and refused to supply the wife with the common necessities of life, the plaintiff being wholly dependent upon her father for maintenance. Her father, it is declared, has upon various occasions, obtained different positions for Dr McKim, but because of his gross drunkenness he was unable to retain them. The husband has no other source of income except such sums as he might receive from his professional service, and ever since the contracting of such habitual intemperance he has been dependent upon his father-in-law for his support

CHARGES EXTREME CRUELTY.

Mrs McKim charges her husband with extreme physical cruelty, declaring that for more than a year she has been compelled to live separately from him because of his indulgence in intoxicants. She says that at times he would consume such large quantities of liquor that he would become extremely helpless and unable to care for himself or know what he was doing.

When in such condition he had a habit of keeping a lamp burning upon a small stand near the bed, so close that it could easily be overthrown, and she was so fearful of consequent tragedy that she would sit up until he would go to sleep, when she would extinguish it and seek her own rest.

LIVED IN DAILY FEAR.

She lived in daily fear of accident at his irresponsible hands when he was so intoxicated. Frequently he would abuse and curse her and strike her repeatedly In January, 1908, at the New Western Hotel, in New York City, he hurled her across a room with such force as to break a sofa.

At another time he so violently grasped her arm, sinking his fingernails into the flesh as to create cuts and injuries as to cripple her for several weeks and place her under the care of physicians.

The complaint goes on to say that the plaintiff is a woman of education and refinement and is sensitive of undue public notoriety Her husband's appearances in public places helplessly intoxicated resulted in unpleasant scenes and mortification for her

HUMILIATED HER IN PUBLIC.

He would abuse and villify her at such times. Particularly did he humiliate her during a horse show near Baltimore in May, 1904, when he was in such condition and so violently abused her that the pity of bystanders and friends was excited. About the same time a dinner was given in their honor, but he was in such a frightful drunken condition that she was compelled to absent herself. Her father informed her husband that unless he changed his treatment of his daughter he would take her away to his home, which he finally did. Dr. McKim is now living at 154 Madison avenue, New York.

Big Fire Wipes Out Village in Oregon

PORTLAND, Or., June 1. — Passengers arriving here on the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad from Astoria early today state that the village of Inglis, about fifty miles down the Columbia River from here was practically wiped out late last night by fire The saw mill and yards of the Oregon Lumber Company were destroyed and six houses had burned when the train succeeded in getting by the village. The fire was at that time still burning furiously. The loss, it is stated, will run well into the thousands of dollars Telegraph and telephone wires are down and it is impossible to learn any other particulars concerning the fire

JUNEAU, Alaska, June 1—Judge Overfield in the United States district court yesterday awarded C H Pearles judgment in the sum of $25,000 against Colonel W J Sutherland of London, his former partner in mining ventures here. The case arose over a claim of ownership in the Perseverance mine in the Silver Bow district back of Juneau and has been in the courts several years

FIREMAN FALLS AMONG THIEVES

Inveigled Into Wine Room He Is Beaten and Robbed by Couple.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1. — Inveigled into a side room in the saloon of M. J Kirby, 184 East street, Albert Raeman, a fireman from Elmira, was robbed by two thieves late yesterday. He says a dispute arose over the payment of drinks with a stranger, that the latter shoved him into a room and together with a second man, jumped upon and beat him into insensibility. They then took $30 in gold from his person and left.

An acquaintance came to his rescue and helped him to the Harbor hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Cullinan, after which a report of the affair was made to the police.

KLONDIKE FEVER RECALLED BY RUSH

Throngs Seek to Sail for New Alaskan Gold Fields at Iditarod.

SEATTLE, June 1.—Officials of companies operating steamship to Alaska points on Bering sea estimate that 15,000 people will leave Seattle for Nome and St. Michaels on the early June sailings, drawn to the far north by the reports of rich discoveries in the Iditarod gold fields. The first regular liner to leave for Nome will sail from Seattle tomorrow and every berth has been sold weeks in advance.

EQUALS KLONDIKE RUSH.

Wealthy men have been compelled to take accommodations in the steerage and there is a waiting list at the steamship offices larger than the combined capacity of the north bound steamers So great is the rush to the north that passenger and freight officials of the Alaska steamship lines say the movement, which amounts to a stampede, has been equaled but once in the history of the north and that during the Klondike rush thirteen years ago.

JOBBERS ARE OVERWORKED.

Jobbers are working day and night packing orders that have been pouring in at the last moment, fearful that they will forfeit their freight reservations unless the commodities are aboard ship promptly on the date set by the steamship companies It is predicted that the boats will leave Seattle with hundreds of tons of freight left standing on the docks.

RICH PANS REPORTED.

Seattle men yesterday saw a thirty-page letter written by H M. Mashon, well known in the north as a conservative mining man, in which the richness of the Iditarod was pictured in glowing terms Thirty-five miles of pay-dirt on the Five Creeks already discovered, averaging 500 feet in width, and so rich that it was not unusual to secure anywhere from $5 to $50 per pan, are some of the statements in the Mashon letter, written April 12

That bankers look upon the new camp with favor is shown by the fact that two and possibly three banks will be located there at once.

Sea Captain Sails After Famous Pearl

SEATTLE, June 1—Commissioned to purchase at any price, failing which to resort to seizure if possible, Captain Geo. Frair sails today in the small schooner Eagle to obtain the Samfa, the largest and most famous pearl, as well as one of wonderous beauty, of the South Sea Islands

A rich New York woman whose identity beyond that reference is held a secret by Captain Frair, would possess the beautiful gem, which has long been in the keeping of Chief O'Reilly, the Irish king or ruler of Tongo-Tongo Island.

The woman in question three years ago, when on a tour of the world in her husband's yacht, visited Tongo-Tongo and was received by Chief O'Reilly in his temple, where she was shown the wonderful Samfa pearl. She opened negotiations then for the gem, but was unsuccessful, as have been several others.

Frair was once the shipmate of O'Reilly.

To Unveil Monument To Football Victim

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 1 — The senior class of the United States Military Academy shortly will unveil a tablet to the memory of their classmate, Eugene Alexis Pyrne, who was killed last October in a football game between West Point and Harvard.

The tablet, which is of Carrara marble, will be placed on one of the academy buildings. The borders of laurel leaves and about the hilt of a sword of the classic period is twined a wreath of ivy.

Tired Worn-out Dishes

Dishes and pots and pans get tired and worn out—when they get dirty, greasy and sticky. They need a thorough cleansing—to put new life into them. Soap will not cleanse them below the surface, and besides leaves them with a "soapy" smell that is anything but appetizing.

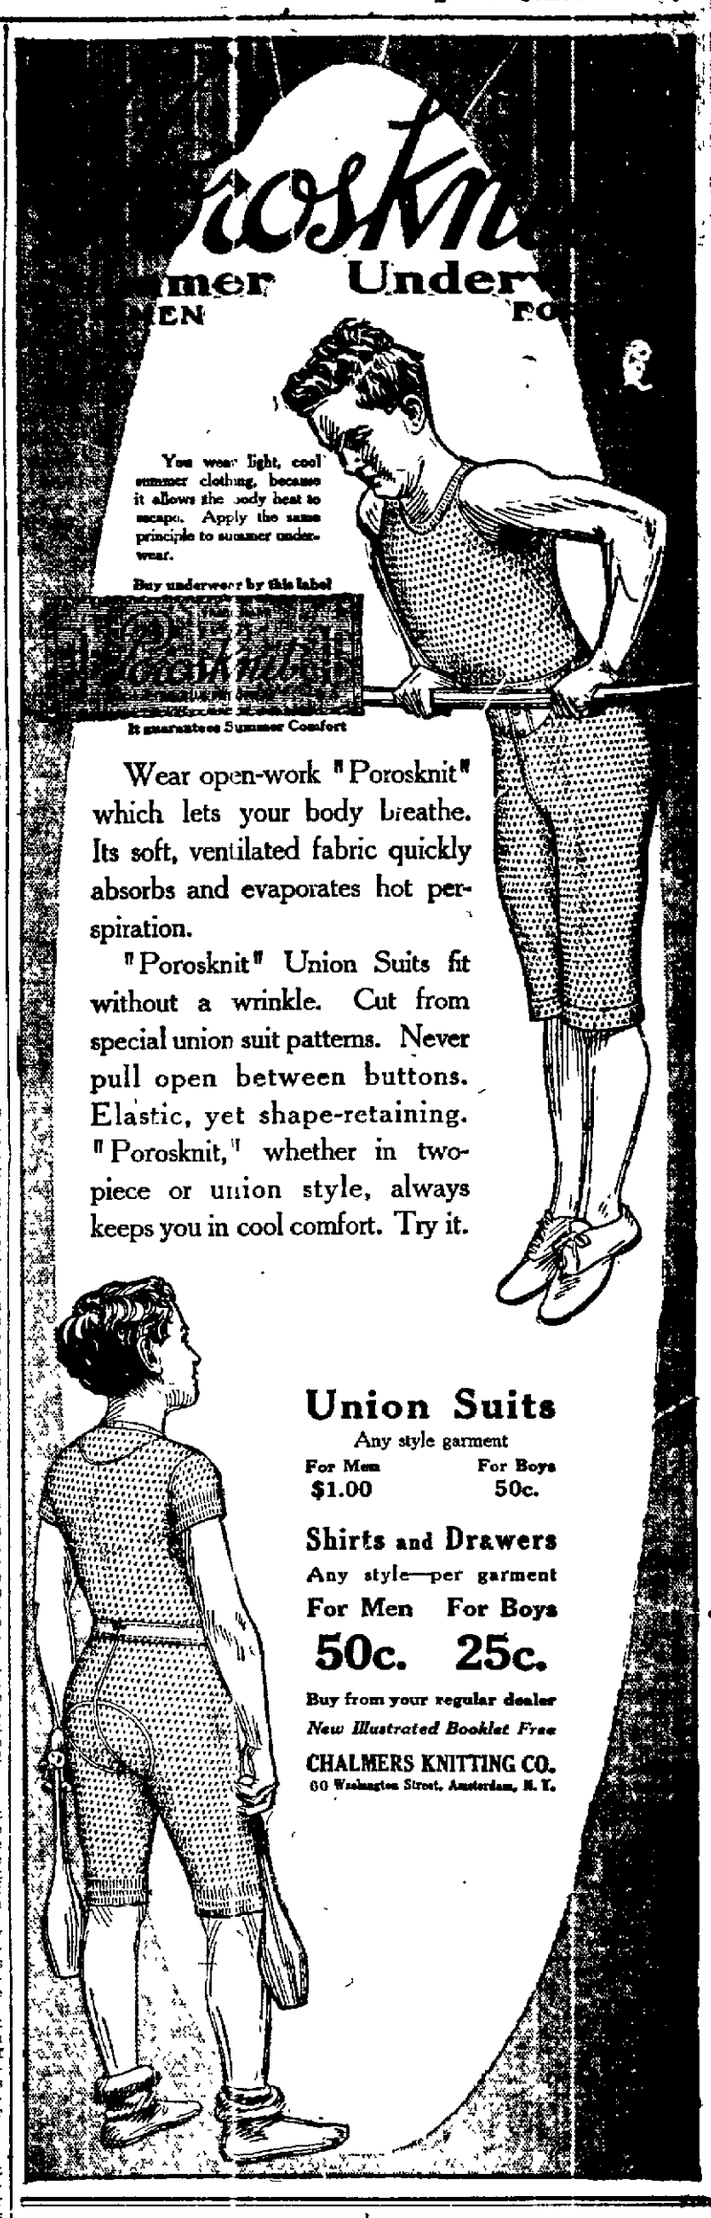

Gold Dust is the real doctor for tired dishes. Gold Dust makes dish-water that digs—gets under the surface and searches out every hidden particle of dirt and germ that ordinary dish-water overlooks. Gold Dust not only cleanses—it sterilizes.

Besides, Gold Dust will cut your dish-washing time right in two, and give you that much more leisure.

Do not use Soap, Naphtha, Borax, Soda, Ammonia or Kerosene with Gold Dust. Gold Dust has all desirable cleansing qualities in a perfectly harmless and lasting form. The Gold Dust Twins need no outside help.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea", made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by The Owl Drug Co., 13th and Broadway, 10th and Washington, 14th and San Pablo.

CHINESE VICTIM OF PLOT FREED

Superior Judge Orders the Dismissal of Wong Kai Kee.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Superior Judge Cabaniss this morning ordered the dismissal of Wong Kai Kee, a wealthy Chinese merchant of New York, who declares that he was the victim of a blackmailing scheme by which his arrest was brought about on an alleged charge of murder committed in Sacramento.

The local authorities communicated with the Sacramento police immediately after Wong was taken into custody and a wire received from the capital city today declared that he is no longer wanted there. Accordingly Detective McMahon requested Judge Cabaniss to grant the petition for a writ of habeas corpus and the Chinese obtained his release.

Wong was en route on a pleasure trip to China with his wife, Tsoy Ah Que and asserts that three Chinese first threatened and then brought about the arrest because he refused their demand for $100, made at the Canton hotel Monday night. He declares that he can prove he has not been in California since 1892 and could not have committed the crime.

1500 MACHINISTS STRIKE IN SOUTH

Los Angeles Metal Tradesmen Tie Up Immense Industry.

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—Fifteen hundred union machinists, patternmakers and molders went on strike here today after a letter from the Metal Trades Council to the merchants and manufacturers' association requesting a conference on the suggestion of increased wages had been ignored. The men demand a minimum scale of $4 a day and an eight-hour day.

Besides the men who went out today the strike will involve hundreds in other metal trades. The Union Iron Works, the Baker Iron Works and the Union Tool Company are the largest employing firms affected.

Workmen affiliated with the unions in adjoining towns have joined in the strike.

At a meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association a resolution was adopted pledging the membership to the open shop.

CUPID'S ARROWS HIT AGED COUPLE

Former Actress' Charms Wins Bridegroom of Seventy-Three Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The charm of the actress, her talents undiminished after having been stored up for years, and her attractions having lost none of their glamor, Mrs. Emma Francis Bernstein, 67 years old, stole away the heart of William Oxford, aged 73, and as the culmination of a "love at first sight" romance, the aged couple were married this morning by Justice of the Peace Flood.

Mrs. Bernstein was formerly the wife of Benjamin Bernstein the actor, who forty years ago was considered one of the foremost comedians on the American stage, and who was greatly beloved in his subsequent career. His wife was his chief support, and it was her kindness to Oxford's granddaughter, to whom she was teaching music, and her kindly manner which attracted his attention and brought about today's wedding.

Oxford is a pioneer merchant of this city, having founded the Mission Stove Company, fifty years ago. The couple have gone to El Verano, Sonoma county, on their honeymoon.

Pugnacious Teamster Sorry He Shot Woman

FRESNO, Cal., June 1.—W. W. Hawthorne, the teamster who ran amuck at Caruthers last evening and wounded Mrs. D. E. Lawton, the proprietress of a hotel, while shooting up the town with a shotgun, was taken before District Attorney Church today, before whom he made admissions that his anger over the fact that he had been struck by another teamster named Bonnaman caused him to lose control of himself and to desire to kill the man who had hit him.

"I was simply mad, that's all," Hawthorne is alleged to have said to the District Attorney. "I wanted to kill Bonnaman."

Hawthorne, however, said the shooting of Mrs. Lawton was accidental, and he expressed sorrow at the thought that she had been injured. The physicians now state that there is an excellent chance for the woman to recover.

Columbia Confers Degeees on Many

NEW YORK, June 1.—At the one hundred and fifty-sixth annual commencement exercises of Columbia University today, honorary degrees were conferred on William Allen White of Emporia, Kan.; Dr. William James Mayo of Rochester, Minn.; Secretary William Henry White, formerly director of construction of the British navy, and others.

Mob Wreaks Wrath On Newspaper Office

LEAD, S. D., June 1.—A mob today broke into the offices of the Black Hills Daily Register of this city and, with sledge hammers, destroyed three printing presses and a linotype machine. No arrests have been made. The attack was attributed to labor troubles.

Oakland Doctors Leave For Medical Congress

Drs. O. D. Hamlin, J. L. Milton and D. D. Crowley will attend the national congress of the American Medical Association, which will convene in St. Louis Monday, as delegates from California. Dr. Crowley left for the East yesterday and Drs. Hamlin and Milton will leave tomorrow. The physicians expect to be absent two weeks.

SOCIETY WOMAN SHOWED HIM GOOD TIME AND NOW SHE FINDS HE'S MARRIED!

Violent Flirtation Ends in Stolen Trip on Miss Morrell's Money; She's Sorry Now and Has Winkler Arrested

PITTSBURG, June 1.—"I would like to be in New York tonight," said Miss M. K. Morrell, a society woman of Seattle, Wash., while she was dining with Harry R. Winkler at the Hotel Dorset, Pittsburg, last Christmas eve. The conversation followed a violent flirtation which, in a few hours, had progressed to the point that Mr. Winkler felt no embarrassment in acknowledging that he was shy of cash.

Miss Morrell was well supplied with ready money and later proved she had an almost unlimited credit on the Puget Sound Bank, Seattle, and the pair made the trip to New York.

Later, tiring of the cold weather, they journeyed to Buenos Ayres, South America, Miss Morrell paying the bills.

They returned to America on March 31 and Mr. Winkler went to Chicago on business. Miss Morrell came to Pittsburg.

Then the woman learned that Winkler was married. She wanted the money returned she spent in showing Winkler a good time, and caused his arrest at Detroit Saturday.

Woman Says She Was Duped

SAN RAFAEL, June 1.—The story of how Mrs. Georgiana De Rohn Baronidis, a Berkeley widow, was induced to part with $16,000 worth of real estate for a $4000 ranch, encumbered with a $4700 mortgage, as begun in the Superior Court here yesterday and its telling will probably take some three days more.

The title of the case is Mrs. Baronidis against Attorney E. K. Smith, his wife Lillian, J. W. Horn of Petaluma and P. L. E. Del Fungo-Giera and others. In the complaint it is alleged that all the parties entered into a conspiracy and defrauded the plaintiff by deception and false friendship.

The deal whereby she says she lost her Berkeley property is alleged to be only one of several to which she fell a victim, and her attorneys state that when this case is settled other parties will be summoned into the court to explain their business relations with the luckless widow.

On the stand Mrs Baronidis did not tell her story, for she was withdrawn after a few minutes' questioning. Once when she touched upon how she had come to know Attorney Smith she almost broke down with an attack of hysteria. She did tell, however, that Smith and his wife had been her neighbors, and that they had always manifested a friendly interest in her affairs; that Smith had time and again impressed it on her that she should get rid of her Berkeley property for income property. She said that he spoke of Del Fungo-Giera and said that he was in on a $600,000 Mexican mining deal with him. Then she told how she had met Giera and he had pictured the Petaluma ranch. She will finish her story tomorrow.

The defendant, J. W. Horn, was called by the plaintiff and testified that the trade has been made, and that at the time the ranch was worth only $3500.

Nurses Piqued at Official

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—If the thirteen men on the board of control of the German Hospital never before realized the evil genius of that weird number, the test is about to be made, for the seventy odd young women who are employed there as nurses are united in their determination that their chief, Miss Helen Barker, be reinstated, the alternative being a walkout. Although Superintendent Werner Roehl blandly declares the storm has blown over, the nurses have a radically different version of the present state of affairs. However, they didn't leave with Miss Barker yesterday, as they had threatened.

"If we nurses would treat Roehl as a lord and demigod and make doormats of ourselves, this trouble at the hospital would never have happened. As long as Miss Barker was matron here we were treated as human beings, but the least notion that we possessed independence was an offense of lese majeste, and Herr Roehl was simply insanely jealous of Miss Barker's authority. But he shall see that he is not omnipotent. The board has asked us to wait three or four days and we intend doing so, but in the meantime we will not be idle," confessed one of the nurses who had been delegated to speak for the insurgents.

"Ho, ho, if the nurses want to leave, the front door is open. We will not let these young women dictate to us. They are here to look after the sick. They are not the bosses," was the emphatic comment made by Superintendent Roehl.

Speaker Cannon's Cousin Killed

CARSON CITY, Nev., June 1.—Mrs. M. C. Gardner, who was severely injured when thrown from an automobile Monday, died yesterday. Mrs. Gardner, who was a first cousin of Speaker Cannon of the House of Representatives, was a pioneer resident of Nevada.

Mrs Clara Bell McDonald, a daughter of Mrs. Gardner, was driving the machine when the accident occurred. The front wheels of the automobile struck a rut and, as Mrs. McDonald lost control of the car, it veered suddenly to one side. Mrs. Gardner was thrown violently to the ground, sustaining the injuries from which she died.

Hats in Theaters Under Ban

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The Supervisors have received so many letters and protests regarding women wearing hats in nickelodeons that they have taken steps to prevent it. Yesterday they unanimously passed to print an amendment of the ordinance prohibiting the wearing of hats in theaters, the amendment including the nickel shows.

"These turban things that women wear are all right enough," says one writer plaintively, "but when I sit behind towers and pyramids and forests of millinery the moving pictures and the bobbing picture hats get so mixed that I can't tell which is which."

This and many similar petitions resulted in the amendment which it is thought more than probable will pass.

Co-ed Saves Baby From Death

TOPEKA, Kan., June 1.—Verne Casebier, a freshman at Washburn College, while on her way to a reception at Bethany College yesterday, snatched a baby boy from in front of a speeding motor car at Tenth and Polk streets, tossed him to one side out of danger and was herself struck by the machine, thrown to the pavement and her right arm broken. The child was too small to tell her its name so she told it to run home, and proceeded to a doctor. The car did not stop.

DECLINES TO AID ROADS IN NORTH

President Taft Approves the Adverse Report of Ballinger.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In approving an adverse report made to Congress by Secretary of the Interior Ballinger on House bill 22,557, which proposed specific aid to the Alaska Gres: Northern Railroad Company for the construction of a railroad, telegraph and telephone lines in the territory, in consideration of the federal government the use "for postal, military and other purposes," President Taft yesterday announced that his administration would not favor legislation designed to aid specific railroad interests in Alaska. The Secretary of the Interior had been asked to give his opinion on the bill to the House Committee on Territories and in his reply stated:

"This department deems inadvisable the enactment of legislation granting government aid to any particular railroad corporation, as proposed in the bill under consideration."

The President favors a general law that will apply to all who comply with its provisions, a law modeled after the policy that has been in effect in the Philippine islands for years.

The backers of the bill have charged that those who opposed their measure were "controlled" by the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate. Governor Clark, former Governor Hoggatt and Lewis P. Shackleford, republican national committeeman from Alaska, have all been included in these omnibus statements. Shackleford made public a statement last night charges that a "lobby" is being maintained in Washington in behalf of these "special privileges" bills, and he openly accused Delmegate Wickersham of being perniciously active in these matters.

ASK REFORMATORY AT SAN QUENTIN

Sweeping Reforms at the State Prison Included in Bill for Legislature.

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—Sweeping reforms in the California penitentiary systems are included in a bill which Judge Frank R. Willis of the Los Angeles County Superior Bench will cause to be presented at the next session of the Legislature.

Willis favors the abolishment of San Quentin as a penal institution and turn it into a reformatory. He would alter the several grades of punishment for felonies and create a board of parole.

The bill will provide that male persons between the ages of 16 and 30 years, convicted of felony for the first time, shall be confined in the "reformatory." Murder and treason are the felony exceptions noted for reformatory commitment. For graver crimes the guilty would be sent to Folsom or the reformatory, at the discretion of the court.

According to Judge Willis' plan the reformatory would be under the control of a board of three men appointed by the Governor. This board would have the power to recommend parole and ultimately to fix terms of service of persons committed, a minimum and maximum period having been named in individual cases by the sentencing court.

21-Year-Old Bride Is Burned to Death

Mrs. Bomberg Victim of Explosion; Two Children Have Narrow Escape.

BAKERSFIELD, June . — Mrs Harry N Bomberg, formerly of Redwood City, only 21 years old and a bride, was burned to death on the Associated Oil Lease, three miles from McKittrick, and the body brought here late last night.

She was heating a mixture of olive oil and turpentine which generated a gas and exploded, throwing burning oil on Mrs. Bomberg's clothing.

She ran to another house before the fire was extinguished.

Her own house had been set on fire and the two children of Richard Locke, asleep in it, narrowly escaped being burned to death.

SAN FRANCISCO SOCIETY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Mrs. Edward Barron was the hostess at an elaborate dinner Monday evening at the Fairmont, when she entertained the Barron-Harvey wedding party. The table, which was set in the gray room, was decorated with American Beauties.

Last evening Mrs. Eleanor Martin gave a dinner for the bride and groom at her Buchanan street residence.

TOO MUCH MOTHER-IN-LAW BROKE UP HIS HAPPY HOME AND HE OBTAINS FREEDOM

Frank W. Knapp Declares to Court That His Wife's Parent Succeeded in Making Her Religious Argument Stick

Too much mother-in-law broke up the nuptial relations that existed between Frank W. and Lenora Knapp, when the husband obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce today in the Superior Court on the ground of desertion.

Knapp told Judge Ellsworth that he and his wife were married by a justice of the peace in Tacoma in November, 1907, and that when his wife's mother learned of the wedding she refused to recognize the ceremony as a nuptial contract on account of her religious faith. When friends called on his mother-in-law and congratulated her upon the acquisition of a son-in-law, she would fly into a rage and declare that there had been no marriage.

Aside from this Mrs. Knapp's mother made life so unpleasant for him that in the following May he determined to come South and establish a home. Leaving his wife behind he settled in Oakland and when he fitted up a residence at 934 Peralta street he wrote asking his wife to join him.

She made no reply. Other letters were sent but came back marked "Unclaimed," "Unknown" or "No such person," and finally Knapp received second-hand information from the North that Mrs. Knapp had decided to remain at home with her parents and have nothing more to do with him.

"Her mother has convinced her that she made a mistake in taking up with you," a mutual friends wrote, "so take my tip and don't expect her to go to you."

Was Too Jealous of His Wife

Just a month after Louise C. Duenwald of Alameda became the bride of George F. Duenwald, in Stockton, nine years ago, according to the testimony upon which Superior Judge Ellsworth has granted the wife an interlocutory decree of divorce, the husband became insanely jealous of Mrs. Duenwald and would not allow her to visit her folks or have her sisters come to their house. He said they would put wrong ideas into her head, and then when Mrs. Duenwald showed a disposition to be friendly with the neighbors he vetoed their society.

Mrs. Duenwald said that her husband would never take her out to amusements of any kind and always insisted upon buying her the cheapest kind of clothes, being so jealous that whenever she asked him for better dresses he would curse at her and say that her only desire for finery was to look nice in the eyes of other men.

Duenwald, according to the wife, was jealous of his own brothers and even accused his wife of flirting with waiters in cafes whenever he took her out to dine.

Stood Inebriety for 15 Years

After putting up with her husband's alleged inebriety for fifteen years, Jane Gavigan, residing in Fruitvale, has obtained an interlocutory decree in the Superior Court from Thomas F. Gavigan. Judge Harris has also awarded to the wife the custody of the two minor children, together with $75 a month as alimony and for the maintenance and support of the offspring. Gavigan must also pay his wife's attorney $150 for professional services rendered in the suit and $25 to cover the costs of the action.

Mrs. Gavigan testified that with the exception of a few weeks of illness during their marital career, Gavigan was drunk all the time and that as a result of his drinking he never provided for his family as he should have done. Gavigan worked steadily at a salary of $125 a month up to the time his wife filed her divorce suit and then he threw up his job and disappeared.

Says Wife Whipped Him

Accusing his wife of horse-whipping and otherwise inflicting physical torture, and of calling him such names as "horse bum," etc., Clyde O. Napier, a veterinary dentist, instituted suit this morning in the Superior Court for a divorce from Alpha T. Napier.

The couple were married in this city in August of last year but their domestic bliss was of only a few months' duration, according to Napier's complaint, because he recites that on the eighth day of last month Mrs. Napier, without cause or provocation, flayed him over the head, shoulders and arms with a horsewhip.

Napier also alleges that his wife has been guilty of slapping and scratching his face in her fits of rage, in addition to kicking him on the shins and beating him over the head with a chair.

Declares He Wasted Income

In her complaint for a divorce from Guy C. Nellist, filed today in the Superior Court, Dora M. Nellist accuses her husband of willfully neglecting her and their three small children and spending his money for drink. She also alleges that Nellist has repeatedly beaten and choked her.

Once, she charges, in order to raise money with which to buy liquor, Nellist went to a friend of the family and told him that his little daughter had died and that the undertaker would not prepare the body for burial until he was advanced $10. The friend sympathized with Nellist and gave him the money, and all the while the child was in the best of health.

Charges Willful Neglect

Willful neglect is the ground upon which Florence M. Berry brought suit in the Superior Court today for a divorce from Harold R. Berry. The couple were married in this city on February, 1909, and lived together only a year. Mrs. Berry asks the court to restore her to her maiden name, which was Gurrey.

Superior Judge Ellsworth this morning granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Eliza Hinters from Oscar Hinters, on the ground of willful neglect. The case was tried in open court and the testimony commonplace.

ASK CITY COUNCIL TO CLEAR STREET

The Board of Public Works Requests Body to Remove Dredging.

The board of public works at a meeting this morning requested the city council to appropriate $5000 for the purpose of removing the dredging from the foot of Fallon street, which has been hindering the work of the Sunset Lumber Company ever since the Lake Merritt work was done. This action was taken on the receipt of a communication from the lumber company to the effect that the company would pay its share of the expense of the work if the city would aid in having the dredging done.

It was pointed out by Commissioner Turner that the city was in part to blame for the fill-in there, as the mud dredged from Lake Merritt last year had broken over the Eighth street bridge and flowed into the estuary in front of the Sunset Lumber Company's property.

The bid of the Tallman-Stevenson Company to furnish the street department with an Overland automobile for $1125 was accepted by the board.

City Electrician Babcock was given authority to raise the electroliers on the Twelfth-street dam up to the present grade, recently established.

SUSPEND FIREMEN FOR NEGLIGENCE

Commissioners Penalize Two Men for Failure to Report Lack of Chemicals.

As a result of their failure to report to Fire Marshall Ball that their chemical engine was completely out of acid John Spicalo, a steward, and James Govan, a driver, both employed in the fire department and station at chemical engine house No. 2, Thirty-fourth and Magnolia streets, were this morning suspended for one week by the board of police and fire commissioners.

The matter was brought to the attention of the board through the report in a newspaper to the effect that the engine did not respond to the fire which destroyed three houses in the Watts tract Monday. When questioned by Fire Marshal Ball as to why they did not respond to the alarm the men announced that their engine was out of chemicals and could have been of no use. Ball reprimanded them for their failure to report this matter to headquarters and then made his report on the matter to the board with the result that the two were suspended.

The salaries of First Assistant Chief of the Fire Department George MacDonald and Second Assistant Chief Samuel Short were raised by the board this morning to $200 and $175, respectively.

The board also appointed D. C. Henninger and H. W. Pratt substitute policemen.

SUGAR OFFICIAL DENIES FRAUDS

The Secretary of Trust Pleads Ignorance of False Weights Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Oliver Spitzer, the former dock superintendent of the American Sugar Refining Company, upon whose shoulders the three remaining defendants in the sugar conspiracy trial declared that the blame for the underweighing frauds rests, was an interested listener today in the United States Circuit Court, where the trial was resumed. Spitzer was released from the Atlanta penitentiary on a pardon and testified for the government. Ernest Gebbecht, superintendent of the sugar company's Williamsburg refinery at the time the frauds were alleged to have been committed, testified further in his own defense.

The defense of Charles R. Heike, secretary of the sugar company, is to follow that of Gebracht.

Gebracht testified that up to the time of the death of H. O. Havemeyer, president of the company, Gebracht's reports of refinery operations were made to him in person.

NO PART IN WEIGHING.

Gebbracht testified that he devoted his entire time to the supervision of the sugar refining operations, and never had anything to do with the weighing of sugar.

Gerbracht said he had never talked to Secretary Heike about sugar weights. He did not remember having seen any of Heike's letters to him regarding such weights before the trial and he let it be inferred that his assistant might have received them. He said it was generally understood that the Government weighers "weighed liberally."

TELLS OF RAID.

After denying having been in the scale houses more than twice while he was connected with the refinery, Gerbracht explained his conversation with Spitzer the day of the raid on the docks, when the false weighs were discovered. Spitzer did not say to him, "I'm caught," as Spitzer testified, but came up and said, "There's trouble on the docks."

Berbracht said he told Spitzer that if there was trouble on the docks it was his (Spitzer's) business, and for him to go and put an end to it.

At this afternoon's session of the trial Gerbracht was temporarily excused and several character witnesses testified that Heike's reputation for honesty, integrity and fair dealing was excellent.

BECK'S AEROPLANE TO BE EXHIBITED

Herring - Curtiss Machine Is Coming as Head of the Orpheum Bill.

The Herring-Curtiss aeroplane is coming to Oakland next Sunday afternoon.

The mate of the $10,000 beauty with which Glenn Curtiss broke the world's record for long distance flying last Sunday in New York, is the property of Martin Beck, manager of the Orpheum Company, and Beck is sending the aeroplane to the Coast.

The Curtiss machine is to make its appearance in all its glory at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday afternoon. The management is announcing it as one of the big cards of the new show that goes on next week.

To dispel the illusion that the Orpheum people are showing merely a model, a copy of the famous Curtiss airship, the Orpheum management announces that the complete machine is to be on exhibition, the working airship and the one with which Glenn Curtiss made his world's record at Rheims in France last year.

Mr. Beck purchased this machine while abroad last summer. He is an enthusiastic aviator himself and regarded Curtiss' machine as the very finest that was exhibited at the famous airship tournament at Rheims.

With the Curtiss aeroplane, there comes to the Oakland Orpheum a series of motion pictures, showing the flights at Rheims last year and the flights at Los Angeles when the aviation meet was held there recently.

There accompanies the aeroplane, too, a lecturer, who gives a short and highly interesting description of the aeroplane, explaining its construction and method of operation.

Fishermen Lose Lives Off North Atlantic Coast When Boats Are Swamped.

HALIFAX, June 1.—Eight lives were lost and half a dozen vessels wrecked at various points along the North Atlantic coast during the last twenty-four hours. Thick fog and a heavy southwesterly gale, which developed suddenly, were responsible.

The French brigantine Manve was wrecked at the entrance of the St. Pierre (Miq.) harbor during the night, six of the crew perishing.

About the same time the large bark Borghild of Frederickshald, Norway, bound from that port for Port Jeddore, was dashed to pieces on Castor Ledges, near Port Bickerton, N. S. Two of the crew were lost and several injured.

In the bay of Fundy the Bath (Me.) tug Pejepscot and two barges went ashore at Cape Spencer and are thought to be a total loss. The crews of these three vessels escaped.

Aviation Fund Raised For Missouri Flight

Ten Thousand Dollars to Be Offered for Aerial Trips from St. Louis to Kansas City.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Governor Hadley and Commissioner of Immigration of Missouri John H. Curran started a fund today that is expected to reach $10,000 which will be given to the aviator who flies from St. Louis to Kansas City, a distance of 288 miles. The governor and commissioner each subscribed $100 to the fund.

It is expected that $5000 will be raised here and a similar amount in Kansas City. The flight must be made within 24 hours, with as many stops as the contestant finds necessary.

KANSAS CITY, June 1.—The Kansas City Star today subscribed $500 to the fund to be given the aviator who flies from St. Louis to Kansas City.

George M. Myers, president of the Kansas City Aero Club called a meeting of the club for this afternoon to consider the raising of the $5000 this city is to contribute.

Divorcee Claims Slice of Jermyn Estate, Alleging Secret Engagement

LENT MILLIONAIRE $2000, ASSERTS WOMAN

Plans Legal Battle to Recover Money Alleged to Have Been Loaned.

COAL BARON'S FAMILY BRANDS CLAIM "HOLDUP"

Mrs. Clara Wadsworth Now in East With Mother En Route to Europe.

Asserting that she loaned $2000 to her millionaire fiancee as he stopped at her Fruitvale home on the way to the Oakland racetrack shortly before his death, Mrs. Clara Wadsworth, a charming divorcee, well known in club circles on this and the San Francisco side of the bay, has entered a claim to the estate of Frank M. Jermyn.

Jermyn who was killed by a street car while struck him as he left the Palace cafe to cross Market street, in San Francisco, New Year's eve, his injuries resulting in his death a few days later, was accounted the coal baron of Scranton, Pa., where his holdings in the fuel mines were large.

ENGAGEMENT KEPT SECRET.

Mrs. Wadsworth did not announce that she was to have married the Easterner until after his death when she told her friends that their wedding had been set for February. The story recalls the oft-repeated statement of Jermyn that he would never marry again while his daughter Josephine, now in Europe, remained single. The dead millionaire's family have already taken steps to contest the widow's claim having advised the Public Administrator of San Francisco to refuse payment.

Not only do the heirs set forth reasons why the $2000 is not to be paid with their consent, but they assert in vigorous language in a letter forwarded to the public official that the affair is a "bold holdup." On the other hand they expect to prove, according to their statements, that Mrs. Wadsworth was given $2000 by Jermyn before his death.

MRS. WADSWORTH IN EAST.

Mrs. Wadsworth with her mother Mrs. Sarah Reeves Atkinson, is now in Scranton enroute to Europe. Business connected with the probating of the will is said to have taken her there, though her intimate friends assert that she told no one of her plans.

Mrs. Wadsworth is an attractive woman and her home in Fruitvale is one of the prettiest in that section.

Mrs. Wadsworth as the divorcee wife of Joseph Albert Wadsworth, former paying teller in the Wells Fargo-Nevada Bank, and son of James Wadsworth, a capitalist. She is a member of the California Club and several other women's organizations both here and across the bay.

MRS. CLARA WADSWORTH, who claims part of dead millionaire's estate, alleging secret engageemnt.

FIVE BADLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Party Returning From Jeffries' Camp Come to Grief in Oakland.

SAN JOSE, June 1.—While returning to their homes in the bay cities after a day spent at the Jeffries training camp at Rowardennan, five persons were seriously injured in the overturning of an automobile about eight miles north of San Jose yesterday afternoon.

The injured are:

NELSON, GEORGE, chauffeur; ankles sprained and body lacerated.

ROBINSON, LEONARD, Burlingame; bruised and lacerated.

ROBINSON, MRS. GEORGE H., his sister-in-law; cut and bruised.

ROHR, J. H., Alameda, legs broken and body badly lacerated.

ROHR, MRS., bruised and lacerated.

The accident occurred near Milpitas on the Oakland road when Rohr, who was driving the machine, attempted to pass a hay wagon. The machine was traveling at a high rate of speed and Rohr was unable to clear the wagon without driving close to the edge of the high-crowned road. The machine skidded, turned over twice, throwing the occupants high into the air.

Rohr was pinioned under the wreckage and several bones in his body were broken. Physicians report his condition serious.

The injured were removed to the O'Connor sanitarium.

The machine in which the party was riding is owned by John H. Rohr, a traveling commission merchant of 922 Chestnut street, Alameda. Rohr left his home several days ago for a tour through the Santa Clara valley.

Steamers From Orient Crowded With Celestials Fearing Head Tax Increase.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 1.—A phenomenally heavy influx of Chinese into Canada through Port Vancouver—a rush which is netting the Dominion and provincial governments an income of $750,000 per annum—was today explained by receipt of information from Hongkong that a report is being circulated among the Chinese that Canada intended shortly to increase the head tax on entry of Chinese from $500 to $1000.

For several weeks customs officials have been puzzled to account for the influx of Chinese. Every trans-Pacific steamship has been reaching port with a full allotment of Chinese passengers, the allowance of these steamers in the coolie carrying trade being based on their tonnage. All the Japanese liners reaching Seattle from Chinese ports have also been carrying Chinese to their capacity, and aside from the few Celestials who were bound for United States points those Chinese landed in Seattle have been coming to Vancouver.

It is expected that every steamer from the Orient arriving at Vancouver and Seattle for the next few months will be loaded with Chinese for Canada.

Runs Amuck; Shoots Up Town; Hurts One

FRESNO, June 1.—The town of Carruthers, twenty miles southwest of Fresno on the west side line of the Southern Pacific, was held up at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon by W. E. Hawthorne, a teamster, who ran amuck as the result of a few drinks and the considerable heat of the day. The only serious result of the affray was the shooting of a woman, Mrs. D. E. Lawton, in the back. She is in a serious condition and may not recover. As a result of a hurry up call to the sheriff at Fresno, a squad of officers went down from Fresno at once and Hawthorne is now lodged in jail here on a charge of assault to murder pending the result of the woman's wound.

Placerville Laborers Dig Up Gold Dust

PLACERVILLE, June 1.—A dollar a pan in gold dust is being taken out of the ground where an excavation is being made for the vault of the new Allerson bank. Workmen engaged in excavating for the vault are panning the dirt, and the pans yield about $1 each. At this rate a large fortune could be made in a week's work. The whole lot on which the new bank building is to stand is said to be just as rich. After every rain gold can be found in the streets of Placerville. As Hangtown this was one of the famous old mining towns of early days.

Northwestern Road Runs First Train

SEATTLE, Wash., June 1.—Word was received at the Seattle offices of the Copper River and Northwestern railroad that the first train yesterday crossed the cantilever bridge at the Miles glacier, over the Copper river, thus putting in effect train service to Mile 104. The Miles glacier bridge is not finished. Three spans are completed, the fourth span being crossed on the false work.

Twenty-eight miles will complete the gap to the mouth of the Chitina river, whence the government is building a trail to connect with the Valdez-Fairbanks trail.

FIREHOUSE SITE GIVEN TO OAKLAND

Mayor Mott to Preside at the Elaborate Ceremony in Elmhurst.

ELMHURST, June 1.—The new $1000 firehouse site donated to the section by the residents and business men will be formally turned over to the city of Oakland with impressive ceremonies that will be held in Redmen's Hall, Elmhurst, tonight. The principal speaker on the occasion will be Mayor Frank K. Mott.

The meeting will be called to order by President J. J. Roggen of the Elmhurst Board of Trade, which fostered the movement for a firehouse. He will then introduce Frank Storer, who will act as chairman of the evening.

Among the speakers will be City Attorney Stetson, Councilman Vose, Councilman B. Pendleton, Councilman Elliott and other members of the Board of Works and City Council.

The Melrose School Band will furnish music for the occasion prior to the turning over the deed of the lot to Mayor Mott. A number of selections will be furnished by the Butzbach Orchestra. The ceremonies will be followed by dancing.

Re-married First Wife; Is Arrested

HATTIESBURG, Miss., June 1.—A second marriage to his first wife resulted in a charge of bigamy here yesterday against J. W. Key, formerly of Michigan. After the first marriage Key obtained a divorce and wedded a young woman of Mobile. Soon afterward, it is alleged, he left her and remarried his former wife.

WAR AIRSHIPS TO DROP BOMBS ON 'FORTIFICATIONS'

Mimic Battle, With Monsters in the Clouds Fighting Land Forces, to Test Aeroplane As Factor in Strife of Future

NEW YORK, June 1.—The actual test of the utility of the aeroplane in warfare will be made for the first time in the history of the military tournament to be held by United States troops and the militia of the several States near Nashville, Tenn., from June 22 to 24. The Government has engaged Charles K. Hamilton, the aviator, to conduct the most extensive practical tests in aerial reconnoitering and bombardment ever attempted.

In addition to Hamilton's machine, which is a duplicate of that in which Curtiss flew from Albany to New York, there will be present at the maneuver the Wright biplane owned by the Government and the dirigible balloon sold to the War Department by Captain Thomas S. Baldwin.

Hamilton, however, is expected to give the most convincing demonstration of the aeroplane as an engine of war. He is considered one of the most daringly proficient air navigators in the world, and upon him will rest the responsibility of showing the doubting Thomases of our Government as well as the military attaches of other powers that the aeroplane can throw projectiles upon fortifications, buildings and troops below.

In executing the work laid out for him he will carry aloft from two hundred to three hundred pounds of highly explosive nitro-glycerine bombs. Racing at a speed varying from forty-five to fifty-five miles an hour, he will release the deadly cargo while at a height of a quarter of a mile above the earth, raining it down upon targets in the two-mile square area below in seventy-five installments.

The targets underneath will consist of dummy fortifications, batteries, arrenals, bridges, trains and troops.

During the four days of the war game there will be intricate evolutions and several grand sham battles. Foulois, with his Wright biplane, will be attached to one army as an observer, while Hamilton will be connected with the other. Just exactly what the offices of the dirigible will be has not been determined.

To aeronautical experts the participation of the Curtiss biplane and the Wright machine in the sham fights presents an exceptional opportunity of comparing the two types when used for practical purposes. Being pitted against each other, they will attempt to demonstrate their respective superiority. Both have their champions.

In their work with the opposing armies at Nashville the biplanes will be sent out by the commanders to discover the location of the various bodies of troops, the disposition of their batteries and the moves they may be contemplating. It will be the first time in the history of the science of war that aeroplanes will scud along above armed forces to bring intelligence to the bodies to which they are attached.

Refuses to Forgive Delinquent Husband

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Reconciliation failed in Judge Graham's court this morning when Sadie M. Pease refused absolutely to forgive her husband, Bronson, an employe in the Post Office department. He said he was willing to take her back if she would drop the suit for divorce, but she recalled his refusal to send her money when she was ill in Boston and would have nothing to do with him.

Neglected Children; Mother Found Guilty

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Mrs. Annie Sorenson, of 353 Eighth street, who was arrested for failing to look out for her two girls and a boy, was found guilty in Judge Deasy's court this morning. Neighbors had complained of her treatment of the children, but on her promise to do better she was allowed to go on her own recognizance.

PIONEER CAPTAIN CALLED BY DEATH

Captain Jacob Jensen Is Summoned After a Long Illness.

ALAMEDA, June 1.—Death claimed Captain Jacob Jensen, a veteran navigator and shipowner yesterday at Byron Springs. Captain Jensen left his home, 2255 Pacific avenue, two weeks ago for a sojourn at the Springs. He had been a sufferer from rheumatism and heart disease and was in a critical condition when removed to the Springs.

Captain Jensen was one of the most prominent shippers of the state, and his death will be widely mourned. He came to California in 1853 when he was but 22 years old and made his first business venture in this state in the mines of Nevada. Success crowned his efforts from the first and the small fortun made in the mines, was invested in the shipping industry, with good results. Among the boats which he owned were the bark Charles B Kenny, barkentine Georgiana, ship Isaac Reed, bark Levi C. Furgess and bark Willie Hume.

Deceased was a director of the Merchants' Exchange of San Francisco, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Master Mariners' Association, Ship Owners' Association and a director of the Merchants' National Bank.

He had resided in this city for 30 years. He is survived by a widow and son, George C. Jensen. He was a native of Denmark and 73 years of age.

The body of the deceased arrived here at midnight. The funeral will be held Friday morning from his late residence, followed by interment in Mountain View cemetery.

PANIC AVERTED IN BOAT CRASH

Ferry Piedmont and Fire Tug Tug David Scannell Meet On the Bay.

Commuters, who crossed the bay last evening at 5 o'clock, on the ferryboat Piedmont, were on the verge of a panic when the boat, in mid-bay crashed into the fire tug David Scannell, which was bound from the Presidio landing to its berth at the Harrison street wharf, and was making good time on the flood tide.

It is stated that within a short distance of the Piedmont, estimated to be about 100 yards, Captain A. G. Thompson sounded two whistles as a signal for the Piedmont to go astern of him. Captain Swoones, who was in the pilothouse of the Piedmont, it is asserted, responded with two blasts, but a moment later signaled to his engine room and reversed the paddles, when it was apparent that a collision was imminent. The David Scannell continued on its course and was caught under the high projecting bow of the ferryboat and was severely jolted. The boat's guard was wrecked, but no damage was sustained by the hull. The Piedmont had her forward rudder broken.

The people aboard the ferryboat were quieted after the fireboat had backed off. No one was injured in the collision.

Society Girl to Become Bride at Pretty Berkeley Wedding

MISS ANNA HOLMES, who will marry Egbert Smith tomorrow evening.

BERKELEY, June 1.—The wedding of Miss Anna Holmes, a society girl of Berkeley, and Egbert Smith, a graduate of Stanford University, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Foster, in Hillegass avenue tomorrow evening. Only members of the family and close friends of the young couple have received invitations to attend.

Miss Holmes has been the recipient of many compliments in the past few weeks, as she has many friends who have been keen to make her prenuptial days a pleasant memory. Yesterday afternoon she was complimented by Miss Esther Sadler and Miss Isabelle Beatty at the Sadler home in Benvenue avenue.

At the home of Mrs. C. C. Hull 2425 Ellsworth avenue, tomorrow evening Mme Jeanne Lowenberg will read a paper on Ireland's unique and interesting play, "Chanteclerc" which in English is "Chanticleer."

There has been widespread discussion of this work, both here and abroad, and among those who have not been intimately informed of its nature it has been thought of as a farce, whose bizarre and novel setting was its chief attraction. But it is said by those who are acquainted with it to contain a deal of philosophy and to convey a moral lesson. It is essentially cynical and essentially French, and much of its quaintness of phrase, the critics state, is lost in translation.

Madame Lowenberg will explain the salient features of the drama and illustrate them by giving excerpts in both French and English and already there is a list of interested subscribers to her lecture among local society women and members of the teaching profession. The evening's program will be pleasantly varied with a number of musical selections given by George Kruger, a well-known pianist of San Francisco.

Saturday evening one of the most pleasant affairs tendered to the graduating class of the Berkeley High School took place at Town and Gown Hall. It was a formal reception given by the Greek Club of the school to the seniors, many of whom are enrolled as members of this progressive organization. Through the efforts of Miss Mary B Cleyes, the founder and director of the club, this body has flourished wonderfully in the past two years, growing from a mere handful of ardent Greek students until it now includes many of the Berkeley High School pupils and almost all the faculty. An interesting musical program was a feature of the function.

MISS OAKLEY IN CHARACTER LINE

Scores a Success With "The Merry Widow and the Devil" Company.

Kolb and Dill are making good at the Macdonough Theater in "The Merry Widow and the Devil." Last night the theater was crowded by an enthusiastic audience, and the stars in the performance were accorded a warm reception. One of the best character parts in the play is taken by Miss Laura Oakley, an Oakland girl. Miss Oakley studied for the stage and has scored a number of successes. Previous to joining the Kolb and Dill company she did excellent work with several traveling organizations.

As Elsie Iceberg in "The Merry Widow and the Devil" Miss Oakley has an excellent opportunity to show her character work. The large audience last night appreciated her efforts and she scored a signal success.

Mayor McCarthy Taken to Hospital

Injured Official's Ankle Gives Him Pain; Reported Resting Easier Today.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1.— Mayor P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco was removed yesterday to St. Vincent's hospital to insure constant attention of physicians and trained nurses, as he is impatient to return home to resume his official duties. McCarthy's broken ankle is known as a Potts fracture. He suffered much pain last night, as the reaction from the shock had set in and it was not possible to keep down the inflammation altogether. He is reported easier today.

Young Ladies' Sodality to Give Clever Drama of Colonial Life

Three of the cast of "The Orphan Girls," which will be presented by the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Elizabeth's Church. Reading from left to right they are: Emma Wealdar, Elizabeth Cox and Lucy Craig.

FRUITVALE, June 1.—"The Orphan Girls," a clever four-act drama of colonial life, will be produced by the members of the Young Ladies Sodality of St. Elizabeth's Church in St Joseph's Hall tonight and tomorrow night. Elaborate plans have been made for the production, the young women having rehearsed for the last three months in an effort to make the presentation surpass any amateur performance of the kind ever staged in the section.

A feature of the entertainment will be the minuet dance to be participated in by eight of the clever amateurs of the sodality. They are Miss Malcita Wadle, Miss Frances Osegueda, Miss Anna Rist, Miss Bernadette Flood, Miss Veronica Grasse, Miss Jennie Cook and Miss Teresa Silligo.

The production is being managed and directed by Mrs. Karl Formes. Music will be provided by the orchestra of the Young Men's Sodality of St. Joseph's Church.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Mabel, the blind orphan, Emma Waidle; Frances, her sister, Eliza Cox, Old Gypsy, Lucy Krieg, Pauline, her crippled daughter, Mabel Ogilvie, Mrs Hammond, Theresa Grasse, Mrs. Elliot of the New York Hospital, Kathleen Murray, Annette, maid to Mrs Allerton, Frances Bold. Leaders in Colonial Society—Martha Washington, Rose Bold, Mrs Carroll of Carrollton, Minnie Boehmer; Miss De Lancey, Josephine Bucher; Mary Warrington, Alvina Keller, Adelaide Winthrop, Mary Elhart; Mrs. Adams, Rosalie Rist; Helen Morris, May Finley, Mrs. Allerton, Jesse Ogilvie, and Lady Catherine Duer, friend of Mrs. Washington, Eileen Quinn.

EXTENSION WORK PROVES POPULAR

Farmers of State Benefited by University Lecture Courses.

BERKELEY, June 1. — University work in extension, carried on by the College of Agriculture through the assistance of the Southern Pacific Company in providing for the trips of the farmers' demonstration train, and through the practice of sending extension lecturers throughout the State, has been of great value during the past year. Interesting figures have been compiled by Professor W. T. Clarke, head of the extension work.

The total attendance at the institutes for the fiscal year just past was 29,108, with an average attendance of 98 farmers at each lecture.

The special demonstration train made a distance of 5674 miles in this State in its journeys lasting more than 68 days.

The total number of visitors who visited the train was 74,663, who viewed the 13 separate exhibits of the college of agriculture in the train. Only 37,000 people visited the train last year.

Besides the visits made by the train, the savants on the tours kept in close touch with 25 schools in the State teaching agriculture, and gave advice when needed.

The cost to the university for the train was $7000.

Freeholder Aspirants File Their Petition

APPOINT WESTMAN ALBANY RECORDER

The Successor of Hinton Will Assume Justice of Peace Duties.

BERKELEY, June 1.—Walter A. Westman, who has been twice a candidate for the marshalship in the city of Albany, was last night appointed by the board of trustees to the position of city recorder and ex-officio justice of the peace. Westman was sworn in by City Clerk George W. Nickerson, and will assume his duties at once.

Justice Westman succeeds C. M. Hinton in the office. Hinton, who was the first recorder of the city, came out as a political opponent of the present administration at the recent election, making a fight with the opposition ticket for the place of city marshal. He was defeated by Chris Miller, and shortly afterward resigned his place.

Before making the appointment last night the members of the board of trustees consulted with City Attorney Judge J. J. Allen of Oakland as to whether it would not be possible to have the city ordinances of Albany enforced by the county courts of Oakland, and was informed that it would be better to have a justice for the city. Westman, who is an old resident of the city, was appointed on the motion of Trustee Lindquist, seconded by Trustee Hanscon.

University Athlete Ill With Pneumonia

ALAMEDA, June 1.—Meredith Parker, star athlete and former graduate of the Alameda High School, is critically ill at the Hoquiam Sanatorium in Washington with pneumonia. Parker left here a week ago with Edmond Higgin to spend his vacation in Washington. He was in good health. His family received a telegram yesterday telling them of the sudden attack of pneumonia. Parker is a freshman at the University of California.

Failed to Provide For His Children

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1. — Joen E St Johns was arrested by Martinez by Detective Cavanaugh and brought to this city this morning on a charge of failing to provide for his two minor children, who live in a house at Eighth and Clementina streets.

EXPECT HOT FIGHT ON IMPROVEMENT

Albany Board of Trustees to Listen to Protest of the Realty Men.

BERKELEY, June 1.—The board of trustees of Albany is to listen to the big protest that is threatened against the improvement of San Pablo avenue June 13 by a resolution passed by the board last night. It is anticipated that a hot fight will develop at the meeting.

For more than a year there has been an agitation for the grading, curbing and macadamizing of San Pablo avenue from the terminus of the street work at the Berkeley boundary on the south to Contra Costa county on the north. Finally a petition was presented to the board, asking that the grade be established and the street work ordered. The avenue is one of the broadest and finest in Alameda county, and is much traveled over, as it joins Richmond, San Pablo and other towns to the north of Oakland and Berkeley.

The work was finally ordered, after considerable trouble with the Oakland Traction Company over the removal of their car tracks from the position they occupy in what is to be the gutter of the new street. The realty companies and property owners signed the petition for the work, and everything was in readiness for the contracts to be let when new trouble arose.

The trouble developed in the form of an unexpected protest from the realty companies that had signed the original petition. They represented to the trustees that they could not afford the big expense of improving the avenue.

The trustees declare that they mean to carry through the improvement, and have set June 13, by resolution, as the day on which they will listen to the protests from property owners.

Alameda Personals

ALAMEDA, June 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Franklin N. Dewey have returned to their Clinton avenue home after a week end spent in San Jose as the guests of the Ernest D. Porters at their summer home. Many long automobile rides were taken in Porter's Locomobile car.

Mrs. Martha Olsen and family have left for their summer home in Sonoma county. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. D. Bement.

Mr. and Mrs. Perham Nahl entertained a few friends at dinner last evening in honor of the second anniversary of their marriage. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W A H Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A Perry and others. The party of Alamedans who will tour Europe under the direction of Dr. F. S. Brush left New York yesterday, sailing for Boulogne-sur-Mer on the Ryndam of the Holland American line from Hoboken pier. They are due to arrive on the other side of the ocean on June 9. The party consisted of Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Brush, Mrs G W Emmons, Miss Gladys Ermons, Miss Marjorie Ermons, Miss Mary Clappel, Miss Caroline Hall, Miss Charlotte Brush, Miss Fate Field, Mrs. F R Fussett, Miss Carolyn Wente, Miss May Wente, Mrs. Mary M Brock of Berkeley, Miss L. F. Mott, Miss D. A. Mott, Dr J. Edward MacNeill, Miss Blanche Blacow, Miss May H. Lockhart of Washington, Pa., Mrs. Jennie A. Smith, Mrs. Mary E. Merchard, Mrs. R. A. Mills of Oakland, Mrs. Sidney J. Conger of Alameda, Captain and Mrs. Robert Minot, Miss Viola Minor and Miss Eleanor Esden.

The itinerary will include Boulogne, Paris, Lucerne, Interlachen, Montreux, Lausanne, Geneva, Chamonix, Marigny, Brigue, Domo d'Ossola, Milan, Genoa, Rome, Naples, Florence, Venice, Verona, Brenner Pass, Innsbruch, Oberammergau, Munich, Dresden, Berlin, Mayence, the Rhine, Cologne, Brussels, Ostend, Dover, London, Oxford, Stratford-on-Avon, Edinburgh, the Trossachs, Glasgow, New York.

Aeolian Fleet Takes Three Days' Cruise

ALAMEDA, June 1.—Eleven yachts of the Aeolian fleet returned last night from a three-days' cruise to Black Point. The yachts left the Alameda mole Saturday noon bearing a pleasure-seeking party of about twenty-five, and arrived at the Aeolian yacht club last night, the first boat dropping anchor at 6 o'clock and the last at midnight. The boats that made the trip were the Iolt, Jensta, Emma, Speedwell, Corsair, Fleetwing, Tigress, Maryland G. and the Nautilus.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

Every old sore comes from some kind of impurity in the blood. It remains an open, discharging place on the flesh because the circulation constantly deposits into the fibres and tissues which surround the spot, the infectious matter with which the blood is contaminated. It is impossible for the sore to heal while the blood is in this impure state. S. S. S. heals old sores because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and removes the cause from the blood. When the blood has been purified there is no longer any inflammatory impurity or infectious matter to irritate the place, and nature causes a certain and natural healing of the ulcer. It is all well enough to endeavor to cleanse an old sore, or stop the itching, or absorb the discharge, with external applications, but a cure can never be reached in this way, because such applications do not reach the blood where the cause is located. S. S. S. does not simply cause a scab to form over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue, and filling the place with firm healthy flesh. S. S. S. is a purely botanical remedy, being made entirely of roots herbs and barks, each of which has a direct and lasting effect in removing impurities and poisons from the circulation. Old people who have suffered for years with a chronic sore will find S. S. S. a most helpful tonic and system builder in counteracting the debilitating effects of the old ulcer. Special book on Sores and Ulcers free to all who write.

POLITICAL GOSSIP POT BEGINNING TO BOIL OVER

Ellery's Managers Indulge in Some Sharp-shooting; George A. Tracey May Make Run Against Congressman Hayes

All of the gubernatorial candidates were busy yesterday in their vineyards cultivating the hardier plants and nursing some of the weaker ones for the fall crops. Nathaniel Ellery used a little pest poison through the medium of his head farmer and by way of by-play announced that Anderson had lost prestige in Humboldt county and that Curry supporters were coming to his side by the scores. This broadside, coupled with the fact that he has gone to Eureka and thereabouts on a sizzling campaign was a surfeit for his followers, and they went to bed happy. But all this time the Anderson forces were at work and Curry is as busy as a bee in and around Red Bluff. He may soon hold the Marathon record for long distance political sprinting.

TRACY AFTER HAYES.

After state politics attention was called to the situation in San Jose and the bailiwick of Congressman E. A. Hayes. The day's sensation began with the official backing of the San Jose Mercury, edited by J. O. Hayes, of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League and the subsequent visit of this editor to the headquarters of the Johnson campaign managers. In view of the fact that it has only been a short time since this same "Red" Hayes announced that he had no desire to accept favors from the league, the new developments cause a few gasps of surprise.

Democrats are now renewing their efforts to persuade George A. Tracy to make a run again for congress in that district. He is the man who gave Hayes such a hard fight, only finishing 4000 votes behind after carrying San Francisco by thirty-four votes. Tracy is said to be willing. It is believed by the Democrats and by many others that Tracy will run well against either Hayes or Mayor Davidson, should the latter succeed in getting the Republican nomination, for which he is making a strong fight at this time. He will make a formal decision in a few days. Yesterday he conferred with the state leaders and several of his friends.

LAUGH ON CURRY.

They are laughing a good deal in the Thirty-ninth district in San Francisco today over the way the friends of Hiram Johnson captured a meeting called in the interests of Curry for governor last night. Everything had been arranged for a big boom, when the Johnson forces captured all the officers and ran the affair. They are going to appoint forty-one vice presidents today to aid Johnson. The only explanation given is that the call was for all Republicans to attend, and the result was the joke.

MILTON A "HAS BEEN."

Speaking of the candidacy of Allison Ware for state superintendent of public instruction, the San Francisco Examiner today says:

Like Prof. Philip Mills Gayley, this candidate feels that the system of education is wrong, all wrong. If elected, Professor Ware, who now has a subordinate position in the San Francisco Normal School, is going to change all this and bring about an ideal condition of grammar and high school courses.

Incidentally Professor Ware has no great regard for poor old Milton and his "archaic English," and takes the following fling at the blind Puritan of the heroic times of Cromwell, Pym and Hampden:

"The student in high schools as they are is introduced to English literature with Milton's 'Lycidas,' 'Paradise Lost' and 'Comus.' These poems have their interest for the specialist in literature and for those of mature taste and large reading, whose appetite for books has been refined and educated to a point where they can appreciate them. But the young mind, overflowing with energy, and fresh from contact with the contemporaneous world of vivid realities, finds in these English songs only a puzzling medley of long forgotten gods and strange inversions of archaic English, that do not sing to him of things present or thing familiar."

AFTER GOLDSMITH.

Having thus elected Milton to the Down and Out Club, Professor Ware goes swashbuckling on his way and tackles another old-timer, one Oliver Goldsmith. Hear how he berates the famous novel of the far off literary light of Old England:

"In the schools as they are, too often the student is introduced to the English novel through the medium of one of the worst novels conceivable for the purpose—'The Vicar of Wakefield,' which also deals with obsolete customs, strange peoples and the unfamiliar past."

Having sent "Dr. Primrose" and his family to join Satan in his fall "from morn to noon, from noon to dewy eve," Professor Ware tells of the faith that is within him and would substitute some "best sellers" for these monarchs of tradition, the literary gods of yesterday. He says:

"Why not give American boys and American girls an introduction to English literature through the old, world-worn poetry and legend and literature of the race, as well as through the best of contemporaneous writings which sing or tell of American, local, familiar thing and people in stirring modern English? For example, a student is far more likely to acquire a taste for fiction if the first novel that he reads be one by Owen Wister or Winston Churchill than if it be by Goldsmith or Fielding."

Too bad not to include The Duchess and Augusta Evans Wilson, with Ouida and Elinor Glyn—there's real literachoor for you! But as Professor Ware would begin the teaching of history with the first election of McKinley—well, perhaps he will wish to begin the teaching of politics with his election as state superintendent of public instruction.

NOTABLE CAREER CLOSED BY DEATH

E. A. Gowe, Richmond Pioneer, Laid to Rest by Berkeley Order of Elks.

RICHMOND, June 1. — The last rites over the remains of E. A. Gowe of this city which were held Monday at the chapel in Mountain View cemetery were conducted by Berkeley lodge of Elks, of which Gowe was an active member. The body was afterwards reduced to ashes at the Oakland crematory.

In attendance at the services was a gathering of Richmond people, intermingled with the former business associates of the dead man.

In the person of Gowe was supplied Richmond's best example of the self-made man; one who had risen from the masses to a position of prominence solely through his individual efforts and his inherent qualities which make for success.

NATIVE OF NEW YORK.

Gowe was a native of New York, but in his early youth he became a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, where he started life as a newsboy selling papers on the streets. As a young man he became a switchman in the railroad yards at Cleveland, and it was here that he suffered the loss of a foot.

Gowe became associated with W. S. Rheem in handling the heavy oil department in the Standard Oil plant at Whiting, Ind. Rheem at that time possessed the same energy and ability which has since advanced him to the head of the Standard Oil interests in this section. Rheem and Gowe became fast friends and business associates. Later they were sent to the Pacific coast by the Standard Oil Company to take charge of the old Pacific plant in Alameda which was the initial step in the march of development and progress which has since resulted in the refining business in this section.

RESIDENCE IN RICHMOND.

Correlative with the coming of the great oil plant to Richmond, Gowe took up his residence here and became one of the heartiest enthusiasts and boosters of Richmond. He became identified with the movement for suitable schools and labored for their development and improvement. From the inception of the city he served effectively on the school and educational boards.

He took part in the laying out of several new tracts in various parts of the city, and was able himself to derive some benefit while laboring for the growth of the place.

At a time when such movements called for unlimited faith and courage he joined in promoting the street car system, assisted in placing the same in operation, and thereby enhanced greatly the value of local property.

ORGANIZED NEW BANK.

During the last year Gowe took a prominent part in the organization of the recently launched First National Bank of Richmond, and was unanimously chosen to serve as its vice president.

Gowe has thus been in the midst of big events connected with the growth of this city, and the history of his career and that of Richmond are largely identical.

He endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact; and the death of no local man has caused such regret.

Gowe was a bachelor and his only near relatives are two sisters, Mrs. O. J. Mayne of Colorado and Mrs. Mergenthal of Richmond.

BANKED HIS CASH IN CAST-OFF VEST

Fire Destroyed the Depository, With Man's Savings of Lifetime.

CHICAGO, June 1. — Lack of faith in banks and the use of an old vest as a depository cost Dominick Rosato his life savings of $747 yesterday.

Rosato placed the money in the inside pocket of his vest and hung it on the back of the kitchen door of his home. His wife empties the stove, filling an ash bucket with the hot coals.

A peddler came along, knocked the vest from the door and it fell into the bucket. Within a few minutes Rosato's pile of bills was reduced to ashes.

He will ship the charred bits of his money to the Treasury Department in the hope that he will be reimbursed. He appealed to United States Senator Foote and swore to an affidavit explaining the circumstances under which six $100 bills, two $50, two $20, a $5 and two $1 were burned.

"That $747 was all I had in the world," said Rosato. "When I have money again I will put it in the bank, where it will not be burned up."

Rescues Playmate But Hero Drowns

MANTI, Utah, June 1.—Donald Kilpack's brief life of ten years ended yesterday in the waters of Gunnison reservoir, but not until the lad had accomplished the heroic rescue of a playmate. With the ten-year-old son of Professor Claire Reed, he was swimming in the reservoir when young Reed got into deep water and sank. Donald brought him up and struggled with him to shallow water. The Reed boy walked out, but Donald, spent with his efforts, was unable to sustain himself and was drowned.

Physician's Machine Kills Four-year-old

VICTORIA, B. C., June 1. — The four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Brinkman of Baleskine Road, was knocked down and killed late yesterday by an automobile driven by Dr. R. L. Fraser, a physician. The child darted in front of the motor car from behind a high mill cart.

ECZEMA ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

All Red and Blistery—Itched So She Could Not Sleep and Scratched Till She Bled—Many Treatments Failed—Cake of Cuticura Soap and

HALF A BOX OF CUTICURA CURED HER PERFECTLY

"My little girl had eczema and was cured by Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. It first started with sores and blisters and was all over her body. She was just red all over and would scratch until it would bleed. It itched so that she could not sleep. I used different medicines but without effect. I washed her with Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment, which resulted in a perfect cure. I used one cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Ointment. Also, as a toilet soap, there is nothing better for pimples. My face was covered with pimples and now it is absolutely free from them since I used Cuticura Soap. So I am never without Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Etienne Barbè, Plaucheville, Avoyelles Parish, La., Oct. 8, '09."

SKIN PURITY

Is Best Promoted by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

The constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted when necessary by Cuticura Ointment, not only preserves, purifies and beautifies the skin, scalp, hair and hands of infants, children and adults, but tends to prevent clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, inflammation, irritation, redness and roughness, and other unsightly and annoying conditions. In the treatment of eczema, rashes and other skin affections that torture and disfigure infants, children and adults, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are unrivaled.

Cuticura Soap (35c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood, are sold throughout the world. What Women Are Doing

Miss Anna Livingston Short wore at a recent luncheon in New York one of the small pokes that while so ugly in themselves some times suit a youthful pretty face admirably It was a black poke much like the green hat with the white plume Miss Geraldine Farrar wore at a concert or two this winter Miss Short's chapeau had as its decoration a large and very perky black tulle bow across and sticking out at the back Her hair was parted in the middle in the front and she looked very fetching in it

Her gown was a one-piece affair of Copenhagen blue braided or embroidered in the same color

London Women Start Very Exclusive Club

LONDON—How many clubs are started in London every year started and never heard of again it would be hard to reckon And yet to fill a long felt want as the promoters would have it still another club has been opened in temporary premises

But this looks like a club that is destined to go It is a club for both men and women and the committee includes such personages as Baroness Bark now the Hon Mrs Yorke Revan Lady Glover Lady Hawarden Lady Lovenhaunt and Lady Muriel Watkins

It is to be a very exclusive club while at the same time there is to be no limit to its membership Yachting parties will be organized for those who want them Fall excursions will be another feature with the Ramblers which is the name the club has assumed and they are to have country quarters at Bushey Park where golf cricket tennis croquet and such games can be enjoyed Theatricals concerts dances all strictly exclusive to members and friends of course will also be on the program

Although founded in London the club hopes in time to extend its operations to other social centres—Paris the Riviera Vienna Cairo and other big social centers

Thief Clips Hair From Girl's Head

NEW YORK—The police here are looking for a thief whose act of petty larceny is without precedent in the records of the New York Detective Bureau

Under cover of a crowd at an open air suffragette meeting in Union Square he snipped off 12 inches of hair from the head of Miss Jeanette Toplit a 16 year old girl student of Columbia University Her hair was worn in a long braid down her back fastened with a ribbon at the neck

The girl did not discover her loss until she prepared to retire for the night The police believe the man who clipped her hair was either a joker with a perverted conception of humor or someone who wanted to sell the hair

Swains Win Out in School Battle

BOSTON—After a long debate on the question as to whether a boy high school student calling on a girl high school student should go home at 9:30 o'clock the Lyceum Society of the Malden High School has decided that the young man may remain as long as he chooses

The question for debate was chosen several weeks ago and gave the young women plenty of time to study up on the matter and if necessary get some actual experience The manner of the question was Resolved That a young man student of the high school calling on a young lady student of the high school should go home at 9 p m

Several young ladies spoke from the floor in favor of the passing of the resolution but many others spoke against it

Although the negatives won out no definite time was set as to when the young high school suitor should go home

Servant War On in Germany

SHE SAW HALLEY'S COMET

MRS ELIZABETH WONDERLY, who is 107 years old

PHILADELPHIA—Mrs Elizabeth Wonderly, one of the few persons living who saw Halley's comet on its last appearance, has just passed her 107th birthday at the Methodist Episcopal home for the aged in this city

She said recently "I remember distinctly seeing Halley's comet, when it appeared in 1835 I was not so young then 32 years old and I recall my father who was a minister, urging people not to be afraid of it

"I remember seeing the comet myself with a number of friends who gathered in the neighborhood, and how we located it with a spyglass

"It caused a great sensation and people were afraid that it might bring the end of the world"

Munich and Nurenberg the Storm Centers of Domestic Strife

BERLIN—The servant question has raise its interrogative head in Germany, more particularly in the Munich and Nurenberg districts Servants and mistresses have formed organizations and have set down their views point by point concerning the grievances at issue The servants have begun the discussion Four of their organizations including a Roman Catholic Servants Union have joined forces and have agreed upon a sort of charter of rights arranged under six heads

The abolition of the present laws and regulations for domestic servants and of the present servants character books

The inclusion of domestic servants under the laws affecting industrial workers generally the extension to domestic servants of all the provisions made by government for the insurance of workers and the recognition of their right to combine

The application to domestic servants of regulations for the limitation of hours of labor and for specified free time, which should include a half holiday every Sunday and a whole week day holiday once a fortnight

Legal regulations to secure healthy conditions in regard to bedroom accommodations which should be liable to inspection by the public authorities and the immunity of servants from obligation to wait upon members of the household when suffering from infectious illness

Compulsory attendance at continuation schools for servants till the age of 18

Abolition of private servants' registries and the introduction of public employment bureaus

These proposals have received consideration from the newly formed Union of Housewives (Hausfrauenvereinigung) in Munich and the spokeswoman of the society Fraulein Paula Schoch has drawn up a pamphlet embodying the German empolyers side of the question To the greater number of the requests the housewives appear disposed to assent

They object however to the abolition of the character books and they are not at all disposed to assent to the proposition that domestic service should be treated as being on a par with manufacturing and commercial employments

Fraulein Schoch does not see how domestic work is to stop absolutely at any given time Attempts to introduce the system of employing daily servants who return to their own homes or lodgings in the evening are successful enough under certain conditions such as flats in towns and small households of adults who do not entertain but they have not yet commended themselves either to servants or families living in more customary circumstances

Indian Princess Dances To Right People's Wrongs

FOND DU LAC—Miss Laura Minnie Cornelius full blooded Indian princess of the Oneidas who made her home in Fond Du Lac for four years is dancing in Europe in the primitive costume of her race with the view of raising funds with which to right the wrongs of her people and secure justice for them from the United States government Miss Cornelius who now prefers to be known under her Indian name of Athelo was graduated from Grafton hall in the class of 1908

The other members of her class were Miss Lucile Pee Fond Du Lac Miss Sarah Seeber Waterloo Miss Emma B Hill Marinette and Miss Vivian Erickson Sheboygan Falls

The Indian maid was a brilliant student and subsequent to leaving Grafton hall went west to acquaint herself with Indian conditions

For some time she held a professorship in Sherman institute in Southern California She then took the law course at Leland Stanford university and upon graduation studied three semesters at Bernard college

While a student at Grafton hall she was a welcome guest in the most exclusive homes of Fond Du Lac She not only possesses a bright mind but a degree of culture that makes her at home in any society And now this learned and cultured girl is dancing the weird dances of her forefathers to secure funds with which to institute litigation to secure for her people some poor remnant of that which was theirs by right

Co-Eds Tell Secrets

BOSTON—Prof Hugo Munsterberg gave a practical demonstration in psychology in connection with classroom work at Radcliffe college Three girls Miss Helen Thayer '11 Miss Ruby Hobbs '11 and Miss Beaton were volunteer subjects

The students each drew a newspaper clipping from among several in the professor's possession and the lecturer then announced that after he had put fifty words to a subjects he would be able to tell which clipping she held

The condition which he imposed was that when he said any word the girl spoken to should within a second say some other word brought to her mind Professor Munsterberg asked the girl to try to deceive him as to which clipping she had just as a criminal would try to mislead him in trying to cover crime which he had committed Professor Munsterberg spoke the words apparently at random at the first girl and she answered back as quickly with any word that came into her head When a word connected with the clippings which she had in her possession was given, however there was a significant pause for as was explained later the first thought in the girl's mind was of her clipping. Before she had time to think of some word to mislead the inquisitor there was a pause of sufficient length to enable the professor to determine which clipping she had

One of the clippings was a story connected with President Roosevelt and the German emperor Word and answer followed each other in rapid succession, until suddenly Professor Munsterberg said 'emperor' Then a pause ensued, which was not broken for eighteen seconds As the subject explained later, she could not think of a single word except those in connection with the clipping The other clippings were as easily identified, although the pause in those two cases was hardly as long

EUROPE'S SEVEN DOWAGERS

LONDON—Queen Alexandra in becoming the Dowager of England assumes one of the most influential and honorable positions that a woman can hold And she becomes the seventh in the remarkable group of royal widows all alive today who have swayed or are swaying the politics of Europe

Russia Italy Spain Holland Portugal and even republican France have royal widows and all but the ill fated Eugenie are powers behind the thrones

The story of the Empress Eugenie is the most brilliant and romantic of all her fate the most tragic and unhappy She was the daughter of a Spanish woman the Countess of Montijo and was brought to Paris about the time of the coup d'etat by which Louis Napoleon confirmed for a time his tenure of the throne of France

A most interesting figure in Europe though one who has always wielded her power so quietly as to be little spoken of is the Dowager Queen Emma mother of Wilhelmina of Holland

This remarkable woman married the selfish ill reputed King William III of Holland when he was nearing his seventieth year but she conducted herself with such admirable sagacity that even he dying was able to recognize her ability in government and in 1889 provision for her regency during the infancy of their daughter was enacted

Queen Christina regent of Spain was chosen to become the second wife of the dissolute Alfonso XII Spain was in an uncertain ... political intrigue at the time and when in 188 Alfonso died the storm of revolution seemed likely to break about the head of the young queen regent

It became known however that she was about to become a mother and the revolutionary party decided to postpone action against the throne Six months after the death of the king a son was born—the present King Alfonso of Spain

The Dowager Queen Amelia of Portugal is one of the most charming as well as one of the most tragic figures in Europe today

She was the daughter of the Comte de Paris of France and her marriage to King Carlos of Portugal was a very happy one But their throne was always tottering and the good sense and charity of Queen Amelia were credited with doing much to hold the sympathy of the people

Marie Sophia Frederika Dagmar the royal widow of Russia is a potent political figure She is especially interesting by reason of the fact that she is a younger sister of the now widowed Queen Alexandra, and there was always a deep affection between the two Danish princesses who were chosen to ascend such mighty thrones

Queen Margherita of Italy has shared a troubled throne and even now in her age and invalidism is a mighty factor in the government of Italy

Name Japanese Baby By Merest Chance

In Japan a curious custom is in vogue with respect to the naming of babies The new born is taken to the temple when it has attained the age of two weeks and to the priest who receives him the father of the little one suggests three names deemed to be appropriate

The priest writes these three names on slips of paper He holds these slips of paper for a few minutes and then throws them over his shoulder sending them as high in the air as possible The slip that reaches the ground last contains the name that is conferred on the waiting baby

The next step in the process is for the priest to copy the name on a piece of silk or fine paper which is handed to the proud parent with these words—

"So shall the child be named."

Wife Sets Plates For Dead Relatives

INDIANAPOLIS Ind—Eugene Adrian a newspaper man at Evansville who has been sued for divorce has filed a cross-complaint in which he alleges he wishes a separation because his wife sets plates at meals each day for departed relatives.

Bustles Are Returning

NEW YORK—There are signs in the fuller back breadths being introduced into skirts that the bustle is again thought of

Every woman dreads the sound not to say the sight of the extender that has played so hideous a part in the styles of the past and it will take more than the hint of one or two dressmakers however large an influence they may have on fashionable wardrobes to again install the bustle as a part of the toilet

It will be interesting to watch the tendency during the next months when racing Europe introduces the fashions that have a good deal to do with the ones that this country sees the following fall and winter But as yet the skirt hangs straight from belt to hem all around

The summer girl of this year is the slimmest creation yet since tailor mades came in She is as straight as a pipe stem except the line is to be curved toward the feet by the cupping of the skirt at the ankles And the short walking skirts add to the slender effect

Colors are more suitable than is usual when so much brilliancy of color is the rule The different colors run into very subtle shades and tones In the yellows one finds in them the clear delicate tints of orchard fruits and garden flowers

Any number of plays on Oriental colorings are possible with the Persian patterned gauzes which are plentiful this spring In black and white toilets there is always a touch of color and usually of a vivid tone The satin belt usually veiled with gauze but gleaming through vividly is often of some such strong tone as turquoise blue geranium bright purple or emple green

Girls white frocks are brightened with pretty flower colored sashes belts and even with silk flowers used as fringes to ribbon garnishments Very lovely corsage ornaments are made of ribbons with dainty silk flowers falling from the ends

Pays Woman $500; Corset Responsible

OLYMPIA Wash—Because John Winters a wealthy Hoquiam merchant refused roughly to take back a corset he had sold to a fair customer and refund the purchase price he must pay Mrs Julia Howell $500 The supreme court has so gravely decreed

In Mrs Howell's suit she alleged Merchant Winters had used shocking language when she took back the corset and had refused to receive it A jury awarded her $1200 The lower court lopped $700 off of this and the supreme court now sustains the judgement.

Seattle Man Takes Bride in a Hurry

NEW WESTMINSTER—The Penman Wooler Company of Paris Ont is short one of its recent English girl importations all because the foreman was too dull to surmise the fact that George West said to be a civil engineer of Seattle wanted a wife and not steady employment when he applied for a job at the big mills

West worked for half a day devoting most of his attention to the thousand girls engaged at the factory Along about noon he saw Miss Florence McMillan and decided ... to

Having her address he left the mills called upon her on Friday and the following day the Rev ... Brown performed the ceremony which made them man and wife West refunded to the Penman company the $... advanced for his bride's passage from England to Paris Immediately after the ceremony Mr and Mrs West left for Seattle

Balked Three Times and Finally Weds

PITTSFIELD Mass—A marriage license was issued to Filippo Salibeni and Paola Negrell Italian young people It was the fourth license procured within eleven months by the man who is seventeen years old The other three were returned to the city clerk Today the courage of the bride reached the sticking point and the couple were married by the parish priest.

TEX RICKARD SAYS HE WILL ACT AS REFEREE IN BIG FIGHT

Jimmy Fitton Wins His Ten-Round Contest at West Oakland Club

RICKARD SAYS JEFFRIES INSISTS ON HIS ACTING

Promoter Will Referee Big Scrap; Position of Writer Explained; McCarey Claims Langford and Burns

By EDDIE SMITH.

IT would seem that the question of referee for the big scrap between Jack Johnson and Jim Jeffries will not down. Last night Tex Rickard tried to end all comment on this subject by having Jack Johnson sign a statement to the effect that he was satisfactory to him and that he had no desire to have him pulled down for anyone else. Rickard announced at the same meeting that Jeffries had said to him that he must act as referee or there would be no fight. All this came about through the fact that Jack Johnson had investigated the charges that had been made against the writer by unscrupulous persons trying to get the referee position and found them to be of little or no foundation, and agreed to have the writer act as third man in the ring. During the time that this referee question has been going on there has been one man who has made it his business to slander the other candidates for the position. This man's name is not Jack Welsh.

When the referee question was an open discussion it was felt that the position laid between Jack Welsh and myself, and when Jack Johnson objected to me and gave no reasons for so doing, mutual friends of ours interested themselves in trying to gain from the champion the reasons for his objections. To these friends Johnson told the numerous stories that had been unfolded to him by the messenger boys of the referee candidates, and these people showed the champion how really foolish they were.

It was then that Johnson said that he was satisfied that he would be treated fairly by the writer and that he would like to have him act as referee. When Tex Rickard had been selected he announced to the press and public that he was taking the position against his will and that he would gladly withdraw at any time that the contestants could agree on a man who was known to be a referee. Rickard later informed the writer and others that he would gladly withdraw at any time the affair could be straightened out. At that time Rickard admitted that he had said he would withdraw and that he would do so as soon as he was satisfied both men would agree on a man for the place. Rickard at that time said that he realized it was a big undertaking for a man of no experience and also said that he would be too busy at the time of the contest to pay much attention to the refereeing end of the battle. Last evening Rickard refused to withdraw, however, and the referee question is apparently settled once and for all in his favor.

STATEMENT OF WRITER

The referee question was settled in so far as the writer was concerned two weeks ago when the men agreed on Rickard but mutual friends interested themselves and the subject was again opened. In so far as it has come about that the affair was again opened and that I was named as the man to take the place of Rickard I feel that it is only right that I should explain that there has been no politics done by me to usurp the position of Mr. Rickard and that had he said at the outset that he intended to go through with the job of referee that none of the friends who had interested themselves would have gone to the front.

The referee question was opened through these people proving to Johnson that the slandering of the referee candidate was the worst of untruths, and in so doing the champion himself opened the referee question with the same belief that everyone else had that Rickard wanted to withdraw.

Jeffries and Berger have said all along that they would rather have an experienced man in the ring if one could be agreed upon who would suit both fighters, and Berger was present when Rickard declared that he would retain not the position last Friday night. Rickard spent three days with Jeffries at Rowardennan and last evening held a secret conference with Johnson prior to meeting with the newspaper men. In that time the promoter made up his mind to take the position himself and there the matter stands.

Rickard says that the matter is closed and that he will act as the third man in the ring and he has assured both men that he will do all in his power to give each a square deal. The referee question for the big scrap has been second only to the location of the battle ground in the matter of trouble for the promoters and it is probable that both Gleason and Rickard are breathing easier this morning now that they have announced that there is no chance for it to be opened again.

JOHNSON AND CORBETT

Jack Johnson has taken exception to the remarks of Jim Corbett, who has taken occasion to go on record as calling the dark-skinned fighter a yellow fighter and has come back with a scorching fling at the ex-champion reminding the Californian of the time he called for the police to pull Tom Sharkey off in their four-round bout in San Francisco when the sailor was roughing him, besides the time and of the time that Corbett had one of his seconds jump into the ring at New York when he was fighting Sharkey to save what Johnson claims inevitable defeat.

Johnson asks Corbett if this is what he means by yellow and asks if he can find anything in his record that will correspond with such tactics. Corbett comes back at the champion saying that he will box him for charity and only ask for ten per cent of the receipts so that he will have enough to buy the colored man a casket after Jeffries is through with him. The last remark is both cruel and uncalled for and at this time comes in very bad taste from a man of Corbett's standing in the game.

Following the unfortunate ending of Tommy McCarthy and the protesting of the ministers there is not the slightest argument as to its being in bad taste. There is no necessity for all this bickering of the men connected with the Jeffries-Johnson contest and it is hoped that with the stories of today that it will cease.

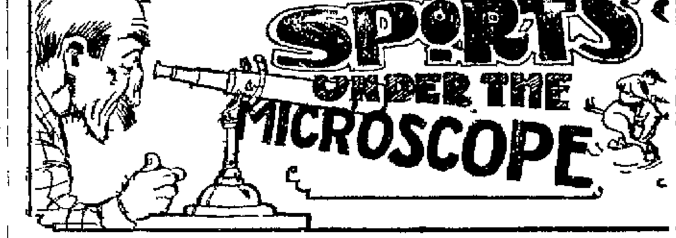

Tom McCarey is again to the front with a boost for himself with the announcement that he has signed Sam Langford and Tommy Burns for Los Angeles. Tom says that he has signed Langford through his manager Joe Woodman and that he signed Burns by cable. Lest the fans forget it might be said that a telegram came from Los Angeles just the other day telling us that Langford would not come to San Francisco at all and that he would do all his fighting at Los Angeles. Burns was sent for by Louie Blot and his backers and is at present on the ocean so it can be seen that the chances are that Tom is not telling the truth. Langford is to meet Al Kaufman in San Francisco on the 28th of June and until Burns gets here we will not know definitely just who he is to meet but we have our doubts about the Los Angeles story.

The permit for the Jeffries-Johnson contest was granted so quickly and quietly yesterday that one would never have known that there was the slightest chance for a protest having been made. Supervisor Johnnie Hergot rushed the matter through in a business like manner and it now looks as if the promoters would have no more trouble. The business men of San Francisco have been after the big affair from the start and it was through this fact that the supervisors voted 16 to 2 in favor of granting the permit.

It is said that trouble is brewing in the camp of Johnson between the managers and that George Little may leave the camp unless there is a change in the present conditions. To the casual observer it would seem that Mr. Jack has been doing all of his own business from the start and just what the trouble is no one seems to know. The story that Billy Nolan may take charge of the camp has gained ground and it is just probable that this may be the case. The writer and Nolan had their little differences when he was managing Battling Nelson but we are willing to admit that Billy has no superior as a manager and that Johnson could get no one better if he looked the world over for a man to fight his battles of finance.

SAM LANGFORD, who is on his way here to meet Kaufman and whom Tom McCarey says he has matched with Tommy Burns.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Pitcher Joe Doyle, who has been with the New York Americans since August 1906, was sold yesterday to Cincinnati.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 31.—Yale won the annual lawn tennis match with Harvard here yesterday, 7 to 2.

NEW YORK, May 31.—For the twentyfourth time the Brooklyn handicap, one of the turf classics of the East, will be run at Gravesend. The field has narrowed down to eight starters, of which Sam Hildreth's pair, Fitzherbert and Firestone, will be favorites.

Wolgast's Fight With Redmond Is Postponed

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 1.—Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, wired last evening that he would agree to postponement of his bout with Jack Redmond till June 24. Otherwise he would call it off. Wolgast says his hands are in bad shape. Ted Murphy, manager of Redmond, agreed to the change of date. Wolgast is in Cadillac, Mich., with T. E. Jones, his manager. This is the wording of the telegram received by Andrews last evening:

"Will have to call off the Redmond match. Am in bad shape physically and have bad hands."

This is the first intimation anybody had that the little Michigan champion has anything the matter with him.

Ketchell Almost Goes Skyward by Explosion of Auto

NEW YORK, June 1.—Stanley Ketchel, the pugilist, narrowly escaped injury yesterday when his touring car caught fire and was destroyed on the road to his headquarters at Woodlawn. The machine broke down in a rainstorm and Ketchel walked half a mile for new batteries. As he was placing these in the machine there was a violent explosion and the car was enveloped in flames. Ketchel said he paid $8000 for it.

PAL MOORE LOSES TO WALSH.

BOSTON, June 1.—Jimmy Walsh of Boston secured the decision over Pal Moore of Philadelphia last night at the end of twelve rounds of fast fighting. Moore refused to weigh in and Walsh demanded and secured twelve rounds of two minutes each in place of ten rounds of three minutes each.

FITTEN WINS CLOSE DECISION FROM MADISON

West Oakland Club Furnishes Fair Sport for the Fight Fans.

The failure of Paddy Ellis and Chuck Larson to appear at the boxing show of the West Oakland Club last night put a dent in the proceedings, for although the boys substituted performed well, the fans were set on seeing Ellis in action against Fitton and Larson tangle with O'Neil. Ellis did not attempt to offer an excuse for his non-appearance. Larson claims he was put on the card without being consulted. It was announced that Church had run out, but the Scandinavian was not permitted to offer an explanation from the ring.

Eddie Madison, the San Francisco four-round artist, was substituted for Ellis in the main event and he proved a big surprise. When the fans found that Paddy was among the absent betting commissioners immediately got busy and offered 3 to 1 on Fitton. Fitton won alright, but it was a mighty close thing, many of the fans being of the opinion that Madison should not have received worse than a draw. Eddie proved to be a cool and clever boxer and against a less shifty man than Fitton would surely have gotten away with the long end of the money. Madison laid off the early pace, and in the first few rounds Fitton did considerable execution with a straight left and a hook to the body. The Madison boy accepted all that was handed him without wincing, and in the fifth round came back and handed Jimmy a few solid wallops. Fitton was beaten to the leads most of the time, the San Francisco boy darting in and smothering the redtop just as Jimmy was prepared to put one over. Madison showed a nice right swing which threatened to bring home the bacon on many occasions but the clever Fitton was wise enough to keep a trifle out of range.

The real slugging bee of the evening was provided by Jack Duarte of Pinole and Fritz Holland of Spokane. Holland was handed the decision after six rounds of fast and furious milling. Holland, who is a ringer for Mike (Twin) Sullivan, has all of the veteran's coolness. Holland's game was to stand off and box while Duarte tried to get into close quarters, where he thought he had a chance to cop the coin with a right swing which he repeatedly tried to put over.

Tommy McFarland made the fans sit up and take notice when he started to mix things with Willie O'Neil. The local fans did not know much about the McFarland boy and they fully expected to see O'Neil cop him in jig time. The boys fought every minute they were in the ring. In every round they got their heads together and slugged, slugged, slugged until it seemed that a knockout must surely result. McFarland ripped some real hard ones into the Australian's body and O'Neil was in a bad way several times. Sam Nelson was easy for Frankie Edwards, the Italian scrapper making his man quit in the second. Willie Meehan won a four round decision from Tommy Hennessy in the four round curtain raiser. Harry Foley refereed all the fights.

BRUNNER IS NOW CHAMPION IN B TOURNEY

Oakland Player Bests Lehner in the Final Game of Billiards.

The bay cities class B tournament at the Oakland Billiard parlor was practically finished with last night's contest. R. B. Brunner and Ernest Lehner were the contestants in the final game. A large crowd was present to witness the finish, which was to settle not only the championship but would in a measure decide the supremacy of the two players. Brunner proved too strong for his adversary and won the match and will now sport the honors of class B championship.

For the second time within a year Oakland billiardists have won the title and first claim on the Brunswick-Balke emblem, defeating the pick of San Francisco's players each time. The game was a spirited affair, Brunner holding the lead up to the thirty-fifth inning, when he was stopped almost completely, scoring but three points in twelve attempts, while Lehner was scoring fast and looked a likely winner. Brunner came back in the forty-eighth and won out with runs of 15, 22 and 37 in succession. Score: Brunner 200, Lehner 172. Lehner and Chapman are tied for second place and will decide same Friday night.

ENGLISH DERBY IS WON BY FAIRI'S LEMBERG

Winner Scores by a Neck After Exciting Race Down the Stretch.

EPSOM DOWNS, Eng., June 1.—The 131st Derby of $32,500 for 3-year-olds, distance about a mile and a half, the classic of the English turf, was won today by Mr. Fairi's Lemberg. Sir John Thursby's Greenback was second and A. P. Cunliffe's Charles O'Malley third. Lord Rosebery's Neil Gow finished fourth.

From the start the race was among the four horses named, Lemberg winning by a nick in a position gained but a few yards from the post.

Neil Gow behaved badly at the post, delaying the start for ten minutes, but the field finally got away in good shape. Greenback settled down in the lead with the two favorites Lemberg and Neil Gow second and fourth respectively. There was little change in positions until the horses were close home, when Lemberg passed Greenback and maintained a bare lead to the finish. Two lengths separated Greenback and Charles O'Malley. Neil Gow was close up in the first flight. The betting was 7 to 4 against Lemberg, 100 to 8 against Greenback and 33 to 1 against Charles O'Malley.

BALRONIA WINS PURSE RACE IN SENSATIONAL RUN

Talent Outgeneral Layers at Every Point; Edwin T. Fryer Takes Six-Furlong Dash at Big Odds; Callaghan Rides 2 Winners

By LEE DEMIER

DESPITE the fact that but one favorite finished first in the races at the Oakland course yesterday, form played a large part in all the results, and the horses which figured best were generally found fighting it out with the leaders at the finish. The only race which stood out as really bad was that of John Louis in the third event, but it must be said for this horse that it was off very badly and from the start could have won only by giving a sensational performance. Silver Stocking showed a sudden return to her real form in the closing event, and romped home many lengths in front of a smart field of sprinters.

The first race of the day, over the six furlong course, produced the only winning favorite of the day in Zinkand, which sold at even money and six to five around post time. There was a brisk play on this one, and the form players got a good start when he outgamed his field at the finish after letting the others set the pace during the early part of the race. Lillian Ray, from the Cotton barn, started out as if she had the race up her sleeve and showed speed enough to make her worthy of some consideration in the future, but she chucked it up at the stretch turn and Lovely Mary assumed the lead. Both Mary and Lillian fell far out of it before the paddock was reached, however, and the favorite galloped gamely up to win by half a length from the long shot, Sir Fretful.

Lookout got the show money after a hard struggle with Littleton and Aunt Kit. There was a stiff play on Littleton and he ran a good race from a very poor start.

In the second Pretension proved to be easily the best, while Charles Green and Onatassa fought it out in mere lengths for the place, the former getting the verdict by a head. El Paso set a sizzling pace but curled up with the heat in the stretch and the first three named rushed past him. Green ruled favorite in this race by a narrow margin over Pretension, which received the bulk of the late play.

The talent overlooked Edwin T. Fryer in the third race for some inexplicable reason, as the old campaigner undoubtedly figured to be a keen contender. As good as ten to one could be had for his chance at post time, when he looked like a three to one shot at the best and he simply galloped home ahead of Tremargo and Round and Round, finishing with his usual irresistible rush in the stretch after trailing his field most of the way.

John Louis was installed a hot favorite in this race but he disappointed his backers cruelly, acting badly at the post, getting off very badly and finally failing to improve his position to any material extent at the finish. Tremargo ran his usual game, honest race and was a good second from the first, finishing Round and Round.

The most exciting race of the day was the purse affair, fourth on the card. The wise players that liked a hot price on a horse that figured to be the one to beat pinned their faith to Miss Roberts. The ones that get their information from the clockers and the rail birds strung their coin on the chances of Balronia. The main support went in on Miss Roberts at 6 to 5 and at bugle call the price on the mare was hammered down to 4 to 5. The price on Balronia was always 5 to 2 and a good chunk of the yellow metal was wagered on the Bayogan filly at the latter quotation. A strong play came in on Miles just at post time, forcing the price down on the colt from 6s to 13 to 5. Starter Holtman dispatched the small but select field off to a good start. At the rise of the gate Vospe took Balronia to the front and kept the filly there all the way, but she had to be driven out to win from Miss Roberts. The latter challenged the winner at the paddock and hung close to the filly, but at the end had to give up the hard task of winning and be satisfied with second money. Oswald B., which trailed his field the first part, came like a cyclone through the lane and just got up to nip out Miles for the place. Redeem broke second but was soon done.

Buckthorne, with Buxton in the pilot house, was the horse that was selected to do the trick in the mile and a quarter race. The layers were loaded up on the chances of the Santello gelding at odds at 2 to 1 and in the early betting considerable coin was wagered at 8 to 5. A strong play went in on Sink Spring and John Louis at post time which made the big price on Buckthorne. Buxton got the latter off in front and then immediately took him back and saved him for the final spurt, but when he called upon him in the stretch he was all in and never improved his position. The winner turned up in John Louis, who was well rated by Coburn and coming from behind gamely outstayed Hancock to the wire. McNally and Hancock had it out for the place, the former was given the verdict by a good margin. Sink Spring gave his backers a touch of hip life for a good distance and then fell out of it. The gelding showed a yellow streak after setting the pace to the last turn.

* * *

After the wise bunch from Oakland got through betting on Billy Myer and Lady Panchita, Silver Stocking came along and won the race easily up to a walk. She lay in waiting distance before reaching the last turn, where Callahan shot her to the front and she passed her field like as if they were standing still and nothing could get near her. Fu Ia held Rezon safe for the place. Lady Panchita led to her turn and then retired.

DOCTORS' MISTAKES

And How These Are Reduced to Minimum in the Methods of an Expert Specialist

DR. PALMER, The Master Specialist

My diplomas from the most celebrated medical colleges and hospitals in the world are hanging in my office, where my patients may see and examine them.

All necessary X-ray examinations are absolutely free to patients. My equipment for X-ray work is the finest and most complete ever produced, and equally perfect results are not possible with inferior apparatus.

Doctors make more mistakes than are made in any other profession. I believe I am qualified to make a definite statement in this regard, as fully half of my work as specialist consists of correcting the mistakes of other doctors. The reason for so many mistakes is easily made plain to any person who will stop to consider the tremendous task assumed by the regular physician. In attempting too much he accomplishes far too little. The greatest mistake of the doctor is the presumption that he can understand the whole human machine and offer help when any part goes wrong. That is where the guessing begins. And he expects pay for every guess.

Let a man with a chronic disorder go to ten different doctors and he is more likely to get ten different opinions than five that are alike. And if five doctors did agree on a diagnosis each one would be sure to offer a prescription different from the other four. There are some two thousand diseases in the list of what are known as chronic ailments and probably twenty thousand symptoms either direct or remote. They range all the way from falling of the hair to pains in the toe, and the average doctor is supposed to know them all, or at least seldom refuses to treat them if he can get pay for his services. He may be conscientious in his desire to help the sufferer, but in undertaking so large a task he is more likely to fail ten times than cure once. And he cannot without infringing a patient's confidence in his ability recommend the services of a specialist instead of his own.

If afflicted with any of the ailments constituting my specialty, seek an expert's and not an amateur's services. You can come to me knowing that I have treated hundreds of cases like your own, and thousands of others very similar. You can rest assured that I will know just what to do—will not make a single misstep in the treatment of your case, and that a complete and permanent cure will follow.

The incurable cases that come under my observation have been those of men who have neglected to seek treatment in time, or having tried to cure themselves with electric belts, patent nostrums, a drug store treatment or some other worthless means. Such treatments are far worse than none at all. They nearly invariably produce complications that are as hard to cure as the original disease. Sometimes they appear to benefit for a time, but as sure as fate their after effects will prove harmful—many times fatal. BEWARE OF THEM. They cannot cure you, no matter how eloquently they are advertised. Seek my scientific and successful Direct ... [illegible] ... into the incurable state.

OAKLAND CELEBRATES HOME-COMING WITH GREAT VICTORY

Beavers and Vernonites Are Winners in Opening Game of Series

GREAT RECORD OF OAKLAND BALL TEAM SINCE MAY SECOND

Readers of THE TRIBUNE on May the second sort of sat up and looked when they read that Oakland had taken a double header from Happy Hogan's fast Vernon team; still they, as well as every other fan in the country, grinned a grin and said, "Huh, Hogan's bunch must have been in mighty poor shape to let those 'dubs,' 'boneheads,' and other kinds of base-ball animals beat them."

But now, now is the time for those that did pin their faith in Oakland to get in and tell all these wiseacres to "go 'way back and sit thee doon," for since May second the team has made a record that is one to be well proud of.

On that date the record of the Oakland team was 12 won and 19 lost. Today it is 33 won and 29 lost, showing that the team has won 21 games and lost 10 since then. Here is the complete record:

Won four and lost three with San Francisco.

Won five and lost two with Sacramento.

Won five and lost two with Portland.

Won six and lost three with Vernon.

Yesterday they defeated Los Angeles in the opening game of the coming series.

DR. FREDERICKS IS CHAMPION GOLF PLAYER

Notable Event to Be Played on Saturday Open to All Comers.

Dr. Fredericks of the Claremont Country Club is the golf champion of Northern California. He won that title on the Ingleside links yesterday by defeating A. A. Cuthbertson of the Presidio Golf Club in the thirty-six-hole finals of the championship. The Claremont player outclassed his opponent from the start and won the match by the onesided score of 10 up and 9 to play.

Robert Eyre won the cup for the second flight from H. C. Golcher by default. Golcher was unable to be present and according to the rules Eyre was declared winner.

The championship round was an interesting one to watch in spite of the onesided score. Fredericks, in the morning round, played beautiful golf turning in a card of 74. Cuthbertson lost most of the holes by one stroke and he usually had a hard chance for the half.

The first hole was halved in four. Cuthbertson weakened on the next two, losing both of them five to six. The fourth was Dr. Fredericks' only bad hole. Bogey is in easy four, but he took five strokes, leaving him only one up. The Claremont player more than made up for this hole by taking the sixth in three, brilliant approaching. Cuthbertson was a bad time on the seventh and took a seven. They halved the eighth and ninth. Dr. Fredericks was three up at the turn. He went out in 39. The Presidio player took 45.

Vincent Whitney won the consolation cup in handy fashion with a card of 82 net for thirty-six holes. His nearest competitor was C. E. Maud, with a score of 116 net. Both Maud and Whitney made the same gross score, but the latter had a handicap of four, while Maud played from scratch. Whitney got a 76 in the morning and an 80 in the afternoon. His card follows:

The next feature on the golfing horizon is the contest for the Captain's Cup, to be played at Ingleside next Saturday. This event is open to all members of that club. Every winner of the event gets his name on the cup, and if he wins three times wins the cup.

There is an interesting match pending at the Presidio Club next week. C. D. Whyte meets Cuthbertson in the finals of a local tournament. In view of Cuthbertson's win over Whyte at Ingleside Sunday this match will attract considerable attention.

Keene Is Winner at Recent Belmont Meeting

NEW YORK, June 1.—James R. Keene heads the list of winning owners for the recent Belmont Park meeting with $1,300. His nearest rivals are B. F. Wilson Jr., $6,410; H. F. Carmen, $5,830, and August Belmont, $4,335.

According to reports of the recent Attell-Murphy fight, Abe did more fighting with his beard than his hands. He went into the ring with a week's growth and used it on Murphy's back like a currycomb. The fight was one of those tapfests which Attell has so often engaged in. The few thousand fans who gathered at the National Sporting Club left the pavilion disgusted.

THE STATE LEAGUE WILL BE 4-CLUB AFFAIR

Sacramento and San Francisco Are Dropped From the Organization.

The owners and directors of the California State League met at Stockton last night and practically decided to reorganize by forming a four-team league to include Oakland, San Jose, Fresno and Stockton. This was necessary owing to the Sacramento club wishing to disband. It has not proved a paying proposition. It was also arranged to play three games each week in the future—one Saturday afternoon and two on Sunday, one in the forenoon and the other in the afternoon.

J. Cal Ewing of the San Francisco State League team wanted to retain his team and offered to meet all expenses throughout the season, but it was necessary to drop another team to even up the league. There was some talk of transferring the Sacramento team to another city, but at a late hour no action had been taken along that line.

It is understood that some of the players in the Sacramento and San Francisco teams will be secured by the other four clubs, and they will be greatly strengthened for the remainder of the season, though only ten of the best men will be carried by each club.

Those present at the meeting were President Frank Herman, who represented the Fresno management, which has had a good paying team at all times; Browne Wills of San Jose, J. Cal Ewing of San Francisco, Cy Moreing Jr. and Messrs. Sibley, Moore and McCall of the Stockton club.

Entire Fortune of Pop Anson Is Gone

CHICAGO, June 1.—"Pop" Anson, idol of Chicago baseball fans for a generation, has lost all of the $300,000 he was reputed to have when he retired from the game in 1898, after having managed and captained Chicago National Leaguers for twenty-two years, leading them to six pennants and winding up with a trip around the globe.

"Pop's" last financial straw blew away yesterday. A mortgage on his home, or rather his wife's home, was foreclosed by the Hibernian Banking Association in default of notes aggregating $6800.

Anson is said to have lost about $80,000 in his billiard hall venture that ended three years ago.

TY COBB DOET NOT LIKE THE WINDS OF WINTER

This Explains Why He Is a Big Failure in the Big Series.

Ty Cobb, the Detroit Americans' great outfielder, is the baseball wonder of the day. We all know that the Georgian has no rivals when it comes to the long hits, the daring work on the sacks, the stolen bases and the terror he brings to pitchers and fielders. Still little is really known of Cobb in comparison with many other players of less renown. Despite his name and fame, the Georgian keeps to himself more than is usual with players of the day, and few people really understand either Cobb or his playing style.

It is generally believed—mainly from the flash and apparent swagger of his play—that Cobb is a swell headed and intolerable sort of pest, inflated, bloviating boastful. He isn't. He was a fresh sort of boy when he began the game but his freshness was not boastful or mere swell headedness. The kid knew he had the goods, he also had a warm temper, and he wouldn't stand for the bossing that young players generally receive. Cobb, the man is modest, quiet and likable chap, worth knowing, worth admiring, and people who have met him either in Detroit or Georgia are invariably charmed with his ways of speech. Once and for all, get the idea that Cobb is a rough, a swell head and a skate out of your mind. He isn't that sort of boy, and he is well worth any man's respect and friendly hand.

Writing of Tyrus Cobb, a Georgian who knows him says that Cobb, the most popular young fellow in Augusta, is not merely a hit or miss batter, whose success has terrorized the pitchers, but a student of the game. "Cobb's ideas as applied to the improvement of his own skill are interesting," says his friend. "He figures that study of the pitchers will do more than all the practice hitting in the world, and the improvement of his percentage seems to bear him out. The man who goes against Cobb is made the object of special attention. If Tyrus can hit him right at the start and keep hitting him he does not worry. If the pitcher proves too much for him Cobb will do some thinking, watching and planning and so far has seldom lost.

"For two years Doc White of Comiskey's team had Cobb for the goat. Twice, it is on record, he made Cobb fan three time during a single game. It looked as if White had Tyrus for a mark forever, and it became a standard joke of baseball that there was never yet a buffalo like that which White held on Cobb.

"Cobb kept up the war against his master. He tried changing his stand at bat and the way he held his stick, but never did he get the ghost of a hit off White till he stepped quickly back of the plate and met the ball after the break. That settled it. After that the buffalo was gone—Cobb had White, and White had Cobb no more.

"Naturally every one wants to know each year why Cobb proves more or less of a failure in the annual world's series. The reason is this: A typically southern player like Cobb cannot play good ball in cold weather. You will remember that spring of 1909 was very cold and that Cobb was hitting away under grade until warmth arrived. The world's series is always played in bitter cold, and under such circumstances Tyrus is a fizzle.

"The real point about Cobb is this—that instead of being simply a wild hit or miss batsman he is a thinker and a student of the game. Moreover, in his home city he is even more popular as a citizen than as a ball player, and nobody could have more friends."

Pitcher Bob Groome is the wit of the Washington team. The Yankees were hitting Groome hard and one of the players called to him: "Get that ball over the plate, Bob." "I can't," said Groome, sadly. "When I get one started over, they stop it."

* * *

No use talking, Tom Jones stiffens up that Detroit team. He fields in grand shape, hits the ball hard and he's got the stuff. You can not find him sticking around any infirmary if there is a chance for him to wax into action and get into his garb.

* * *

Addie Latham retains his speed, but his arm has never recovered its pristine force. His throwing reminds one of an old maid sacking a stone out a White Leghorn. Lath's memory is very good. He can always remember how many men are out.

* * *

President Ebbets of Brooklyn is on the trip with his Superbas for the benefit of his health. He dons a uniform at home every morning and works hard to reduce his weight. One of these days we may expect to see in the box score that "Ebbets batted for Wheat in the ninth."

* * *

At last a ball team has handed Mr. George Suggs a treat. But it wasn't by any means all George's fault. The Reds, as a team, playing miserable ball, filled the scorer's book full of errors and helped Suggs to go down to defeat at the hands of the Giants on last Wednesday.

* * *

Bos on papers are complimenting Manager Lake on his "shrewdness and foresight" in assembling such a speedy team practically without funds. The Boston Post says: "For the first time in years, the National League is represented by a team which will give the fans a run for their money."

* * *

There are pitchers who seldom score a strike out, and yet are successful pitchers. Karger belongs to this kind now. There was a time when the southpaw fanned as many as any pitcher in the country, but of late years he lacks the speed he once wouldn't it be good to hit Dahlen's Darresort at Colma. Kaufman in company

* * *

If by being hit on the head with a base ball will change a man from a Dr. Jekyll of the highest moral rectitude into a Mr. Hyde, with kleptomaniac instincts, why won't it be good to hit Dahlen's Darlings on the bony part? Then we might at least steal a few bases, if not games.

* * *

George Stovall's back, hurt in St. Louis, is giving him a lot of trouble. He has not been right since he was hurt, but shows the same gameness that has always marked his work. If his back hurts when he stretches or swings the bat.

* * *

This may be Ira Thomas' last year in the American League. The big backstop hopes some day to be a minor league magnate and is now on the lookout for a franchise in a Class B organization. Ira, before getting into fast company, played in the Connecticut and Eastern leagues. He was once the backstop for Ed Walsh.

* * *

Graney, formerly of Portland, has made the impression at Cleveland that he is going to make a splendid ball player. While he has not secured many hits, he has hit the ball hard almost every time he faced the pitcher, and his fielding and throwing has been of the best. What is more, he has a lot of life in his work, which is acceptable to McGuire.

* * *

Hemus! The Giants lose four straight to St. Louis! Roger Bresnahan wept over the fate of his old teammates, did he not? Yes he—I don't think. Strawberry ice cream to a child was nothing to the pleasure that Roger must have felt as he kicked the Giants down the toboggan.

* * *

Manager Jack O'Connor of the St. Louis Browns says that pitchers with brains are the ones who last. O'Connor says that it is not only the pitcher with the strong arm who stays in the big league ranks the longest. Just one bit of inexcusable head work on the pitcher's part many cost him a game and frequent lapse pave the way to the minors.

* * *

After looking over some of the exchanges we are convinced that there are enough freaks playing baseball to fill Barnum & Bailey's side show with some really sensational novelties. For instance, Covaleskie of Cincinnati hasn't a heart; Bailey of St. Louis hasn't a head; Leever of Pittsburg hasn't an arm, and Jordan, late of Brooklyn, hasn't any legs.

* * *

Billy Murray, former manager of the Phillies, has been hired by Barney Dreyfuss as a scout for the Pirates. Dreyfuss has been impressed by Murray's ability in getting together the present Philadelphia National League team, and declares that the former Quaker manager is just the man needed to find players to fill the places of some of the old-timers, who must retire before many years.

* * *

Catcher Charley Tonneman of Toronto, who had one of the fingers of his right hand amputated after an injury received in a training trip game at Lynn Mass., is surely having more than his share of hard luck. He is now confined to his room with an illness that is puzzling his medical advisers. The hand is mending nicely, however, and if the present illness proves to be nothing serious, he will be back in the game soon.

* * *

Pitcher Wyatt Lee was no sooner released by Toronto than he was grabbed by Newark. McGinnity's pitching staff is rather weak and Lee should make him a useful man. Last season Newark Wyatt was sent in to hit in pinches in a couple of games and delivered the goods each time. Perhaps that is what attracted McGinnity. Lee lacks great speed, but when used regularly in the outfield hits hard and often.

"I am not worrying about the Cleveland club," said Ban B. Johnson, president of the American League, at Cleveland a few days ago. "The Athletics and Browns are the two clubs that are causing me to lose sleep this year. Connie Mack's team is getting so far ahead that the other clubs will have to hustle to catch it, while the St. Louis team is losing so many games that it is going to have quite a task getting away from the bottom."

* * *

Many a "spit" ball pitcher is content when he has just one style of delivering the most slant, but not so with Ed Walsh of the White Sox, who is considered the best "spit" ball pitcher of them all. Ed pleads guilty to having four distinct methods of pitching the vapor ball. Three of them are thrown overhand, while one is in the order of the raise ball delivered underhand. The last curves a jump while it while the other three produce a fadeaway, a drop and a curve.

* * *

Cy Young has been playing so long that he doesn't care for a ball game as a spectator, except when the contesting teams are new to him. "You missed a pretty game today," a friend told Cy when he found that the veteran pitcher had been cooped up in the hotel one afternoon. "I don't mind missing the game," said Cy. "If strange teams were playing, I would probably enjoy watching them, but I know these American League teams too well for it to be any fun just watching them play."

* * *

Rather than losing his fiance, Robert Mitchell, regarded by many as the best college pitcher ever developed in the South, will abandon the idea of starring in the professional field. Young Mitchell had accepted terms from Manager Chance for a trial with the Chicago Nationals, and was to report before June 1. His sweetheart, however, delivered an ultimatum, and now Mitchell has forwarded his letter of explanation to Chance, telling that his days in baseball are ended, so far as a professional career is concerned.

* * *

After Charley Comiskey had picked Tyrus Cobb as the best all-round ball player in the U. S. A., that gentleman proceeded to throw him down and now scribes of the big brush are after the Georgian. One of them has this to say: "Ty Cobb is trying to play every position on the Tiger team this season and this accounts for his many bone-headed plays."

* * *

Pat Newman, who played a brief engagement with Portland and was the only man ever expelled from a league and then reinstated during one inning, is going to St. Louis to take Abstein's place at first. Funny how the climate of the south turns a bad ball player into a good one. Pete Lister, another Coast League discard, went south and then to Cleveland.

* * *

Confidence is everything. The modern pitcher is chuck full of confidence, gally as a yeggman, contemptuously boastful. The modern batter, or 70 per cent of him, is afraid even to look mean at the pitcher. But there is nobody who will go up in the air so quickly as a pitcher when you get him stung—there is no goat so easy to capture as the pitcher, if you only show a little nerve.

* * *

When President Ebbetts of Brooklyn was in Chicago last week he expressed himself as being perfectly satisfied with Tony Smith, the shortstop secured from the Cubs together with Davidson and Happy Smith of California. Little McMillan has been shortstopping of late, however, while Tony remains on the bench. Which is no fault of Tony's, for he was spiked some time ago and is not yet ready to play. Davidson is in the regular line-up, and making good.

Believing that the speed of several of their players can be improved if taught the art of sprinting, Manager McAleer and Trainer Quirk of Washington have placed most of the players in charge of F. R. Lamar, a sprinter and trainer of sprinters of reputation, and for the last four or five days he has had the squad out every morning teaching them the art of developing speed.

VERNONITES BEAT SEALS IN FIRST OF SERIES

Henley Is Hit Hard by Hogan's Men at Opportune Times.

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—The Hoodlums took a fall out of the Vernon-Seals series at the Chutes this afternoon to the tune of 8 to 1. It was one of the fastest and snappiest games of the season.

Brackenridge worked for the locals and Henley for the San Francisco team. The villagers landed on the Northern twirler in proper style in the third inning and filled the bases with two singles and an error by Henley, who threw wild to third in an endeavor to cut off a run.

The Northerners' only score came in the second, when with one out Lewis singled to center and stole second. Badle popped a high one to left field. McArdle singled to left field and Lewis scored.

Brackenridge twirled stellar ball after the third inning, and allowed but one hit in the last five innings.

Score by innings:

Vernon	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	*—3
Base hits	1	0	0	3	2	0	0	0	*—6
Base hits	1	2	1	1	0	0	0	0	0—5

Two-base hits—Coy, Hogan. Sacrifice hits—Berry, Martirke. Stolen bases—Burrell, Lewis. Struck out—By Henley 6, by Brackenridge 2. Double plays—McArdle to Mohler. Time of game—1 hour and twenty-five minutes. Umpire—Hildebrand.

Berkeley High School Decides to Adopt Rugby

By an overwhelming vote the Berkeley high school has decided to adopt the Rugby code of football. The large vote in favor of the Rugby game comes as a great surprise as Berkeley has been the stronghold of the intercollegiate game ever since the universities took up the Rugby style of football. The Berkeley high students last year presented a memorable petition to the trustees of the school praying that the Rugby game be not forced on the school athletes and asking that the intercollegiate game be allowed to remain as one of the school branches of athletics.

Gotch Will Wrestle Challenger Tonight

CHICAGO, June 1.—Frank Gotch of Iowa will defend the world's wrestling championship against Stanislaus Zbyszsko of Poland in a finish catch-as-catch-can match at the Coliseum. It will be Gotch's first appearance here since he handily defeated Yusef Mahmout in their championship bout more than a year ago. According to the promoters, the men will battle for a purse of $25,000. Zbyszsko has won the right to battle for the world's title by his defeats of Mahmout and other prominent wrestlers.

Moore Fights Draw With Petaluma Boy

SANTA ROSA, June 1.—Roy Moore of San Francisco and Ray Baughman of Petaluma fought twenty rounds to a draw last night in the arena at Sebastopol, under the auspices of the Sebastopol Athletic Club. It was a clean fight, and the decision was undoubtedly fair. Young Baughman is a Petaluma lad, who has not lost a fight in the twenty-odd contests in which he has figured. "Ned" White, the Lakeville capitalist, was the referee. There was a large crowd present.

BASEBALL BY CHINESE FAN.

From Chong Fat, a Chinese baseball fan, who is now in San Rafael, Cal., comes comment that is meaty. "Basle ball," says Chong Fat, "jes' like lottery. Some day you get wellie good luck, some day ev'llbody go up in the air, jes' same firework. Mellican girl in grandstand wellie putty, but jes' same no good for smart game. Pitcher and feller behind bat he look and see wellie nice girl laugh and wink he forget catch ball. He look see girl he no look see ball. Some smart guy he catch ball one hand, he like girl look see. He think he make what you callem big hit. Next time he missum ball he no so smart. No girl in grandstand he more better game."

Chong also talks about umpires. "Umpire, he all light some time. Jim Nealon, he hip good. He no cheatum. Some umpire he can no see. He close eye, go asleep. Grandstand yell, umpire he was up quick, say 'Strike.' He no look see. He jes' gossum. Umpires jes' same Chinaman kite. He full a wind."

WOLVERTON'S MEN SHOW CLASS AGAINST DILLONITES

Timely Hitting and Clever Inside Baseball Give Oaks Flying Start In the Series

By HERBERT G. LOWRY.

GOING skyward, that is what the Fighting Oaks are doing, but not in a way that a lot of managers and followers of other teams would have them. It was a great day for baseball yesterday and the Wolverton Braves took advantage of that day and gave the Los Angeles aggregation a decisive trimming, the score being 6 to 3. And about that beating. I remember a time back when every "Johnny Know All" that followed baseball was a-sittin' up in the grandstands and bleachers, and tellin' everybody next to him what a bunch of "tack heads," "boneheads," "solid chunks of ivory" and other descriptive names for men that Harry Wolverton had under his wing. Down on the bench one day the ex-big leaguer confided to me that he had the best team in the whole league, and "when they get to working right and we get better acquainted my boys will show their heels to every team in this league."

"Ha, ha," laughed Danny Long. "Ho ho," laughed Frank Dillon. "He, he," said Walter McCredie. "Take that noise outside," said Charley Graham, while Happicus Hogan took Wolverton to one side and said, "Harry, me boy, don't let any one hear you talk that way or they will steer you right off to the booby patch."

But now, Holly Gee, what a pain that bunch of five have. Danny Long is up a nights a gnashing his teeth, while the "silver threads are coming among the gold," or whatever color hair he might have. Happicus Hogan, poor Happy, what a time he had of it. Three games out of nine and two of those by a fluke. As for McCredie, he isn't worrying so very much, for right now Los is in the first hole, but then you had better have a care, Judge, for you have got to meet that bunch some more times before the final curtain is rung down.

Now about that game of yesterday. Midget Dank was sent in to the Oaks, while Andy Briswalter did the hurling for Sir Henry Berry's hired men, and but for the foresight of "Hustling Harry" we guess might have had a big defeat charged against us, therefore just give Wolverton credit for copping that game when he yanked the Midget from the game.

Daley, first up in the opening round, went out, Wares to Hogan, and Bernard did likewise. Howard took a walk down to first, while Dillon took a slam in the slats. These two pulled off the double steal, and the former scored on a pretty poke into left by Murphy. Roth slammed a beaut in the neighborhood of short, and it looked like a single, but little Wares showed some class as a fielder and got the ball to Hogan ahead of the sweater. In the second we tied up the score, and a base on balls helped us along. After Carroll had gone by the board is, Wolverton waited long enough for Briswalter to miss the plate four times and meandered to first. Sawyer's out put him on third, and he hit the plate on a daisy to center from the big stick of Maggart.

In the third round the Angels gathered a couple, and then Berry was so happy that he went out and bought eight Owls, half of which he gave to Danny Long. Bernard, first up, took a walk, and by classy baserunning got as far as third on Howard's pretty bunt along third-base line. Dillon slammed one to right that scored the "Doctor," and the Captain registered when the "Count o Tipperary" again hit safely. There he was stuck, though, for in the sixth the Angels began to get gay again and Dank was yanked.

Oakland tied up this score in the third, and, though, Henry was supposed to buy, the best he would purchase was a sack of Durham. Mitze and Dank were out when Cutshaw walked, and on an attempt to get him at second on Wares' bunt both were safe. Then came one Willie Hogan, primed for the occasion, and he slammed a double to left. Result, two runs.

In the fourth we gathered a run that was aplenty to win the game. Wolverton singled past third and went up to second on a jim-dandy bunt along the line by Swander. Maggart out loose his second bit, and it produced the run. There the Oaks hung until the eighth, when they made it two more, because they played baseball as it should be played. Wares chipped one beyond the fielders, and at once stole second. Hogan walked, and on Carroll's sacrifice both moved up a peg. Swander's long fly to center scored Wares, and Hogan registered, while Wolverton kept the fielders chasing him between the lines on Maggart's hit. There is little more to say, for "Sim" Nelson worked par excellent after he took up the burden, and Oaks had runs aplenty to win. The score:

BEAVERS BLANKED BY SENATORS UP NORTH

Mike Hunt Has Easy Time and Team Mates Give Him Excellent Support.

PORTLAND, Or., June 1.—Portland could no nothing with Southpaw Hunt yesterday. Three dinky hits were put over the infield and at no other time were they able to get the ball to the outfield. Gregg pitched almost as good a game, but the bunching of two hits in the second inning gave the Senators the only run of the game. Danzig opened that canto with a single. Van Buren followed with a two-bagger and Danzig scored a moment later on Raymer's grounder to Casey.

St. Aloysius Sodality Nine Defeat Webb Team

The St. Aloysius Sodality of Fruitvale added their fourth straight victory to their fast-growing list by defeating the F. R. Webbs of San Francisco in a fast and hotly-contested game at Fruitvale Sunday morning. Ecker and Cody of the winners won the batting honors, each netting a four-sacker besides a double and single, while Osegueda had the hard-hitting Webbs at his mercy, sending eleven men to the bench. The winners would like to hear from any fast 15-year-old teams around the bay. L. Jullanelli, manager, Fruitvale.

INVESTORS IN EUCALYPTUS LANDS.
An unsurpassed opportunity to secure from twenty-five acres up of eucalyptus in the famous Santa Maria Valley, where the fertile soil and its proximity to the coast makes ideal conditions for the growth of these trees.
The first year you plant the trees, the second and third years you care for them, the fourth year you pay one-fourth on the purchase price of the land and one-fourth each succeeding year for three years. The land is limited to a few hundred acres in quantity and first come first served. A snap like this has never before been offered in California.
Get in on the ground floor and secure a grove worth while for little money.

TRYING TO RESTRAIN GUSHERS

GOULD SYSTEM MAY SUPPLANT COAL WITH OIL

The Traffic Companies Require Visible Supply in Storage Before Changing.

INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS TO MEET IN BAKERSFIELD

Doheny Scoffs at Possibility of An Oversupply of the Liquid Fuel.

BAKERSFIELD, June 1.—The fifteen directors representing the 157 oil producing companies forming the California Independent Producers' Agency, will hold their first business meeting tomorrow since the consolidation of the Coalinga Agency and the adhesion of the Doheny interests. The two projects to be given consideration are the projected pipe line to Richmond and the formation of a subsidiary corporation to provide ample storage facilities for the product of its members' wells.

The Western Pacific, it is announced will burn oil and the probabilities are that the Denver and Rio Grande and the Missouri Pacific will use the crude fuel over their systems.

It is understood, however, that they will not make the change from coal until there is an ample supply in storage to remove all danger of shortage.

VISIBLE SUPPLY.

The transportation companies usually kept six months' to a years' supply of coal in their bunkers and they desire to be assured of an equal quantity of oil at hand before changing to the liquid fuel.

It is estimated that these systems, together with their affiliations, will absorb from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 barrels of California product. The California-Arizona pipe line, projected by Doheny and others, will give a market for about 5,000,000 more barrels. It is probable that this line will be controlled by the California Independent Agency. Doheny declares that double the present output of the State can be marketed without the change of a cent from present prices. The banking interests of Los Angeles and San Francisco have agreed to make advances on oil storage receipts and the way is clear, according to the southern oil king, to lay up a visible supply that will allay the fears of the Pacific-Western railways of a shortage.

PREFERS DEATH TO PRISON LIFE

United States Sergeant Blows Out Brains in Front of Superiors.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Preferring death to disgrace and a probable prison sentence from pending courtmartial proceedings, G. C. Reeves, a first sergeant in the United States Marine, stationed on Goat Island here, snatched a private's revolver from its holster, yesterday, and blew out his brains.

Prior to a recent brawl in which he was accused of participating, and the alleged drawing up of a false report to his superiors concerning a beating he is said to have given a prisoner, Reeves had enjoyed an excellent record covering six years of service, and he will be buried with the usual military honors.

TIN FOIL STOLEN.

Nat Rolliri, 412 Twelfth street, reports to the police that 35 pounds of tin foil valued at $5 was stolen last night from the rear of his store at that address.

RESTRAINING FLOW FROM GUSHER IS THE PROBLEM

DAMAGES THREATENED BY KERN LAND OWNERS

How to Chain the Oily Torrent Is Now Perplexing the Owners.

BAKERSFIELD, June 1. — All efforts to restrain the flow of the Lakeview gusher have come to naught and the one last chance remains in the creation of a Lake about the oily crater. It is to be held down by the weight of its own output.

Its daily yield varies from 45,000 to 60,000 barrels a day and it is being run into artificial earth reservoirs which hold about three or four days' output.

When the well came into oil a great stream flowed toward Buena Vista Lake, the artificial water basin jointly owned by Miller & Lux and Tevis. Under a threat of a two million dollar damage suit in the event that the brownish fluid from the gusher should commingle with the waters of the landowners' lake, there was a hasty beat to quarters of all the available laboring force about Taft and Moron and bulwarks were thrown up across the way of the oily stream.

The creation of a lake about the gusher will, it is believed, overcome the force of the interior gases which are held responsible for the enormous outpour.

The problem now is to chain down the gusher and the world's brightest wits in oil activities are figuring on a solution.

MIDWAY PREMIER ON GUSHER LANDS

Hale-McCloud Well Adjoins the Property of Oakland Company.

The big flow from the Hale-McCloud property, on section 5, in the North Midway, comes as joyous news to a large number of Oakland people who are operating on the adjoining property, known as the Midway Premier Company.

This section is in the heart of a bunch of gushers including the Mayes, Santa Fe, American Oilfields, Eagle, St. Lawrence and Labelle.

President A. J. Snyder of the California Midway made a hasty trip to the company's holdings, Sunday where two rigs are up and spudding in has been started. The company has its houses up for the working force, the boilers have been installed, water connections made and drilling will be prosecuted vigorously.

Mr. Snyder is not alone in his convictions that his company is in the very heart of the gusher strata. It was the cure for the San Francisco Stock Exchange expedition and the "big fellows" within a stone's throw of the Oakland holding are pouring out streams of oil carrying from 2000 to 10 000 barrels a day.

The property is bounded on all sides by the gushers and as the Hale-McCloud struck the big flow at 2000 feet the Oaklanders have not got such a depth to go as they first anticipated. It is moreover comparatively easy drilling in this section.

A woman isn't always angry when she grits her teeth on her car fare.

TRANSFORM PARK INTO FAIRYLAND

Idora to Be Given Over to the Chinese Actors for Week, Beginning Monday.

Gorgeous costumes, elaborate scenery and multi-colored decorations will transform Idora Park into a Chinese fairyland, next Monday, when a wonderful Oriental spectacle will be produced at "the park beautiful" for one week. An 80-foot dragon, wierd illuminated fish and other symbols, which won admiration for the Chinese exhibition during the Portola Festival, will have a part in the Idora production.

With a cast of fifty Chinese actors, a vaudeville bill will be presented, which it is said, is unique in the extreme. Knife and fire jugglers, musicians and sketch artists will entertain in their interesting fashion. The main entrance will be transformed into a Mandarin's garden, while the park will be decked with myriads of colored lanterns, draperies and Chinese decorations. The entire exhibit, which will be in the nature of a free attraction, will be given every afternoon and evening for a week, beginning on Monday.

The park will be turned over to the school children next Saturday morning and afternoon. Special rates have been granted the "kids" and they will be able to enjoy themselves on the many concessions to their heart's content.

Florence Drake Le Roy, the soprano soloist formerly with Conway, will join the Ohlmeyer band for their final week at Idora, beginning on Sunday. Her return will be welcomed by the music lovers who well remember her satisfying work with Conway, last season.

Postpone "Block Day" Until Late in August

Yielding to the urgent advice of their friends the date of the King's Daughters' "block day" has been moved forward from June 2 to August 25, at which date it is believed the best results can be achieved.

Meanwhile the work of organizing and getting ready for "block day" will go on with a view to a thorough and comprehensive canvass of the bay cities.

Other supplementary plans are being considered and the permanent organization, lately effected for the completing of the $100 000 campaign, looks forward to announcing the last dollar raised at a not very distant date.

His Hat Blows Off; Hurt Recovering It

A gust of wind blew John Milina's hat from his head at the corner of Eighth and Union streets this morning while he was riding on an electric car and he stepped off to recover it. He struck the pavement on his head and was taken to the receiving hospital by the police ambulance, suffering from a severe concussion of the brain. From there he was removed to Providence hospital, where Dr. W. H. Rice is attending him.

Milina is 16 years of age and resides with his parents at 947 Campbell street.

REPORT BICYCLES STOLEN.

Nicholaus Milcovich, living at 1454 Castro street, reports to the police that his Elliott bicycle valued at $10 was stolen from in front of the Avenue restaurant, Sixteenth and San Pablo avenue, some time yesterday afternoon.

Louis Zannossi, 721 Fourth street reports that his Rambler bicycle was stolen from Eighth and Broadway yesterday afternoon. The wheel is valued at $5.

William Norton, a messanger boy, reported that his Pierce bicycle, valued at $ 0, was stolen from in front of the Tribune building some time yesterday afternoon.

Sailing Ship Wrecked And Two Men Lost

PORT BICKERTON, N. S., June 1.—The Norwegian bark Berghild bound from Frederickstadt for Port Jedore, N. S., was wrecked on Caster ledges off here today. Two of the crew were drowned and the remainder, nine men, were rescued. Two of these will probably die.

MERCHANTS TAKE UP RATE BATTLE

Exchange Appoints Committee to Look Into the Express Company Charges.

That the Merchants' Exchange of this city will participate in the rate war being waged by the Merchants' Association of New York against what they claim to be excessive charges by the express companies is probable from the fact that at last night's meeting the local body appointed a committee, consisting of H. N. Gard, J. W. Dennis and Secretary Wilbur Walker, to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

Director Dennis, who represented the exchange at the recent test of the auxiliary salt water fire system, reported that, as the tests had been most satisfactory, the city being secure against a great fire in the districts where the mains are laid at the present time, the fact should aid materially in the reduction of the insurance rates.

"We have been promised a 25 per cent reduction by the underwriters," he said, "but this is only a promise. It will be necessary for us to make a fight and I suggest that a committee be appointed to take up the matter.

"If this method should produce no results, then let us take steps to force a reduction. With the backing of all the merchants I believe that we could at least force them to give the proposition serious consideration."

Creigie Sharp and Secretary Walker of the exchange were appointed delegates to the meeting of the Counties Committee of the California Development Board, which will meet Saturday in Nevada City. They will start Friday for this convention, and will probably return Sunday. Delegates will probably be appointed to this meeting from the Chamber of Commerce as well as from the exchange.

Santa Rosa Swept By $120,000 Blaze

SANTA ROSA, June 1.—One of the most extensive fires in years occurred here last night, when the Immense Levin Tanning Company's tannery and the Santa Rosa Shoe Manufacturing Company's shoe factory, the residence of John Bernard and that of Mrs. Straub, adjoining, and a number of other houses were burned. For a time the firemen and scores of citizens, men and women, fought the flames from spreading to the residence section.

The fire started in the tannery shortly after 5 o'clock, and while a number of the men were still at work. The cause is not known, but it is believed to have resulted from an explosion.

The loss is estimated at $120,000, fully covered by insurance. One hundred and fifty people are thrown out of employment at the factory.

Superior Court Gives Hatch New Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Holding that upon the evidence submitted, it is impossible to ascertain on which specific charge Jackson Hatch, accused of embezzling $37,075.43 from Sarah E. Sage, was convicted, the District Court of Appeals yesterday reversed the judgment of the Superior Court and remanded the case for new trial.

Hatch was accused of embezzling the sum mentioned in a number of smaller amounts. He maintained the money was given to him as a loan. This Mrs. Sage denied.

The court held that provided Hatch was guilty he was guilty of a number of embezzlements and that the District Attorney should have singled out one specific count on which to base the prosecution.

Former California Editor Succumbs

NEW YORK, June 1.—Sutherland F. Sutherland, who had been foreign editor of the New York Sun for the last eight years, died yesterday afternoon in his apartments at 1695 Broadway. Sutherland had been ill since last October, but was believed to be improving, and had sent word to his office that he hoped to return to work in about two weeks. He was compelled to return to his bed last Monday.

Sutherland was 57 years old. For many years he had been city editor of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Daily Report before coming to New York. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Greta Sutherland, formerly president of the California Club.

POLL TAX NOTICE

Oakland, March 7, 1910.

Notice is hereby given that the State Poll Tax of two dollars for the year 1910 is now due, and payable at the Assessor's office, room one, Court House, or to a Deputy Assessor.

Sec. 3839 of the Political Code reads as follows:

Every male inhabitant of the State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers, insane persons and Indians, not taxed, must annually pay a Poll Tax of two dollars, provided the same be paid between the First Monday in March and the First Monday in August.

Then it shall be three dollars.

Sec. 3846 of the Political Code makes it the duty of the Assessor to "demand Poll Tax of every person liable therefor, and on the neglect or refusal of such person to pay, he must collect by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by such person."

Under Sections 420 to 435 every person who refuses to give his own name or the name of any person in his employ, or who in any manner obstructs the Assessor or any of his deputies in the collection of the State Poll Tax, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Only those persons under twenty-one or over sixty years of age are exempt. Poll Tax must be paid on demand.

1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made.

2. If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization which certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election or upon his affidavit that he is lost or out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and the time and place of his naturalization, together with his affidavit that he has resided in the United States for five years, and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application, and that he would be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election; provided, however, that if such naturalized citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties or cities and counties of this state, the name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration issued by the party authorized by law to issue such certificate, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of his naturalization. In the event that such naturalized citizen was naturalized in the county, city and county in which he seeks to register, or in the event that he was previously registered within the preceding eight years within the county or city and county in which he seeks to register, and his certificate of naturalization has not been revoked, he shall not be required to produce his certificate of naturalization, nor to make such affidavit of lost certificate in lieu thereof.

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In all other cases upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election. Such affidavit must be made before the County Clerk or officer charged with the registration of voters, or their deputy. If any elector is absent from the county in which he claims residence he may appear before any judge or clerk or any court of record, or notary public, or if the same be in a foreign country, before any minister, consul or vice consul of the United States, and make and subscribe an affidavit as to his residence, specifying in what ward or precinct he claims residence, that he will be necessarily and unavoidably absent from said county on all the days allowed by law for general registration of electors, and setting forth in such affidavit each and all the matters required by section one thousand and ninety-six of the Political Code of the State of California and forward such affidavit, duly authenticated as above, by mail, enclosed in an envelope addressed to the County Clerk of any county, or the registrar of voters in said city and county. Upon receipt of such affidavit by such clerk or registrar of voters within the time allowed by law for registration, it shall entitle the name of such elector to be entered by the clerk in the proper register in such precinct.

5. In every case the affidavit of the party must show all the facts required to be stated in the entry on the register except the date of the entry.

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AFFIDAVITS OF REGISTRATION MUST BE SWORN TO BEFORE THE COUNTY CLERK OR HIS DEPUTIES AND THAT THEY CANNOT, OWING TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE REGISTRATION LAW BE SWORN TO BEFORE ANY OTHER OFFICER.

THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK WILL BE OPEN FOR REGISTRATION UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE FROM 9 O'CLOCK A. M. UNTIL 5 O'CLOCK P. M. OF EACH DAY EXCEPT SATURDAYS, ON WHICH DAY THE OFFICE WILL CLOSE AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

JOHN P. COOK,
County Clerk,
Alameda County, Cal.

Morris Will Invade Oakland With Theater

The Morris Western Circuit company has decided to come to Oakland and will soon build a theater in this city The company is making a western vaudeville circuit and will include Oakland on its list Agents of the company have been in Oakland for some time to obtain a location for their new theater

It is said architects in San Francisco have been engaged to draw plans for the Oakland playhouse although it is not certain at this time where the new theater will be located

It is expected that the company will spend about $100 000 in this city However the matter of Morris coming to Oakland has been discussed so often that it is now a worn out subject

NO RELIEF FELT IN WALL STREET

Active Unloading of Stocks Is Resumed on Market's Opening.

NEW YORK June 1—Active unloading of stocks was resumed with the opening of the market today resulting in violent declines the higher range of the London quotations affording no advantage here

The Western and Pacific railroad stocks were the most affected St Paul fell 3 Atchison Denver and Rio Grande and Iowa Central 2 Northern Pacific 1¾ Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific 1⅝ and Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central Great Northern preferred Missouri Kansas and Texas Rock Island Norfolk and Western and others a point or more

With the exception of a few trivial rallies the trend of prices was downward The standard railroad stocks displayed the most active weakness United States Steel showed some measure of resistance although it lost a point in common with many other stocks St Paul broke 5⅜ Atchison and Union Pacific 3 Rock Island preferred 2⅝ Baltimore and Ohio and Illinois Central 2¼ Reading 2⅜ Atlantic Coast Line 2¼ and Great Northern preferred, Amalgamated Copper and Consolidated Gas

The market was demoralized during the morning by the court injunction against the Western trunk line freight rates which were to have gone into effect today Liquidation was uninterrupted and prices melted away St Paul [illegible] Louisville and Nashville 4⅝ Union Pacific [illegible] Reading 4⅝ Atchison and Denver and Rio Grande 3¾ and Wabash preferred the Pacific and Western railroads generally [illegible] and Amalgamated Copper American Car and Consolidated Gas 1 to 3½

The market ruled pretty steadily following the noon hour Business fell off greatly in [illegible] Central Railroad of New Jersey lost 5

NEW YORK June 1—For some weeks the steel market has been in a waiting mood the [illegible] or railroad movement in either direction being lacking Yesterday noon this was supplied and the market responded to the Wall street news with a decline of from 2 to points

The principal items upon which the market was sold were of course the action of the [illegible] in enjoining Western freight increase and the ordering of a rehearing of the [illegible] But aside from the act [illegible] selling was [illegible] the fact that the government had [illegible] hostile policy after [illegible] In general [illegible] had been abandoned

CHICAGO BROKERS PLAY FOR RALLY

Game Is Popular in the Wheat Pit--Upward Turn Is Looked For.

CHICAGO June 1—Playing for a rally was the most popular game today in the wheat trade

Weather in the spring crop districts was not up to the standard set by the most captious

Foreign markets had turned firm and the disturbing May deal was a thing of the past Announcement was made that all but 500 000 bushels of the bull leaders holdings in the old crop month had been sold

Several strong firms showed themselves openly friendly to an upward turn at least temporarily Dealers taking the opposite side were scattered and had little backing in the news except the official crop report from Oklahoma which however made a flattering exhibit

The opening was ⅛c to ⅝c up with September typical of the whole at 91⅛c to 91¾c That option later touched 91¼c

Cool weather in the corn belt induced buying by commission houses Frost was reported in Illinois September opened ⅛@¼c higher at 58⅝c to 58⅜c but reacted to 58¼@58⅜c

Oats shorts were on the run frightened by the strength of wheat and corn September started a shade to ¼@⅜c up at 35½c to 35⅝c and steadied at 35¼@35⅜c

Because the hog market turned weak there was a rush to sell provisions but the resulting declines were somewhat overcome on the appearance of a little support First prices were 2½c to 27½c off with September deliveries at $21 62½ to $21 70 for pork, $12 15@12 20 for lard and $12 12½ for ribs

The closing prices were as follows

Wheat—July 94⅛@94⅝c September, 92⅛ 92¾c

Corn—July [illegible]c September 58⅝@58¾c, December 5[illegible]¾@[illegible]c

Oats—July [illegible]c September 35⅜c December 36⅛@36⅜c

Pork—July $21 90 September $21 60

Lard—July $11 9[illegible]½ September $11 80

Ribs—July $12 1[illegible]½ September, $11 92½

Rye—Cash 7[illegible]@7[illegible]c July 75c

Barley—Cash 45@60c

Timothy—October $4 35@4 50

CHICAGO June 1—Inter Ocean says Traders said last night that they saw nothing in the immediate future to induce investment buying of wheat except that possibly there was too large a short interest For the first time this season the visible supply in the United States is larger than last year Local stocks are a trifle more than last year There has been enormous liquidation and a good part of the wheat that has been put in the pit during the last week is still there Shorts have been the best buyers and the only hope is that their buying will make rallies from time to time It was the general opinion of traders last night that Liverpool has been madly depressed by its liquidating panic

Chicago traders look upon Liverpool as entirely too low but no understanding the situation there in its entirety they are a little slow to express a positive opinion on it They said however that figuring on a shipping basis it means less than 0c to the American farmer and that American prices will be a long time in getting down on a shipping basis

Corn traders said that the market had been heavily oversold that the country had stopped selling corn and the weather is too cold and the crop has not made good progress For the time being it is a smaller proposition but with a change to warmer weather it is said that there might be a shifting of sentiment which was slightly more in favor of the buying side on breaks All depends upon whether farmers will sell corn freely should a change to higher temperatures come Heavy Argentine offerings are depressing Argentine markets and we are out of line—H W

KEEP JAPANESE AT HOME, HE SAYS

David Starr Jordan Declares Problem Is More Than Economic One.

CHICAGO, June 1.—President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University, who is taking his first real vacation in a quarter of a century arrived in Chicago yesterday on the way to attend a meeting of the Nation Fisheries Commission at Washington. He was a guest of the Delta Upsilon fraternity at the University Club in the evening.

Dr. Jordan's attention was called to the report of the California State Labor Commission, which after an exhaustive study of labor conditions in California expressed the conviction that either Japanese or Hindu labor must be used in the Western State if agriculture is not to suffer.

"It may be true," said Dr. Jordan, "that some of the fruit growers in California have suffered from want of labor and this want may have occasioned a certain economic loss, but the question of Asiatic immigration is so complex in character it cannot be disposed of wholly on an economic basis. There is more than one side to the matter.

"A number of people of California are strongly opposed to having the State inundated with a race which must remain socially inferior and which cannot be amalgamated. These people are content with the arrangement which has been made with Japan. Japan has promised to keep its laboring people from coming to the United States. This arrangement, I believe, is better for Japan and better for the state of California."

BANKER PEABODY RAKES ROOSEVELT

Declares the American People Should Repudiate the Ex-President's Speech.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 1.—George Foster Peabody, the banker, who has been a prominent figure in the councils of the Democratic party, has issued a statement here declaring the Roosevelt speech in London yesterday was "a piece of reckless jingoism which should be promptly repudiated by the American people."

The statement proposes the holding of mass meetings in New York and other large cities to show that the people of the United States are not in sympathy with this suggested American interference with other people, and "to voice our respect for other governments and our adherences to the principles of Washington's immortal farewell address."

Roosevelt Completes His Wedding Plans

NEW YORK, June 1.—Theodore Roosevelt Jr., and his bride-to-be, Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander, have completed preparations for their wedding, which will take place on June 20, and made known the names of friends and relatives who will participate in the church ceremony.

They will be married in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church and the union will be witnessed by some of the most prominent men and women of New York, if not the nation.

There will be no maid of honor, but instead a matron of honor. She will be Miss Elizabeth Bertron, who is to be married tomorrow to Snowden Fahnestock.

The bridesmaids will be Misses Ethel Roosevelt, Jeanette Alexander, Harriet Alexander, Jean Delano and Jessie Millington-Drake.

HARPIST AND SOLOIST FEATURED AT THE BELL

JOE BRUNO and MATT KEEFE, who render sweet melodies this week.

In the role of an itinerant street musician Joe Bruno with his harp is winning the plaudits of the hundreds who are finding recreation and pleasure at the Bell Theater this week, while Matt Keefe, vaudeville's sweetest singer, is just as delightful in his beautiful yodeling songs.

The act is one that everybody enjoys. The bill throughout is a splendid one. "Little Hip," the tiniest performing elephant in the world, is a feature of the bill and the folks, big and little, are all interested in "Little Hip" and his many funny making antics.

GOTHAM-CHICAGO FLIGHT IS NEXT

$25,000 Prize Offered by Two Newspapers for Big Aeroplane Trip.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The New York Times announces that it has arranged with J. C. Shaffer of the Chicago Evening Post for an offer of $25,000 for an aeroplane race between Chicago and New York.

Thirty thousand dollars was offered tonight to the first aviator who flies in an aeroplane from New York City to St. Louis, or from St. Louis to New York. Mayor Gaynor announced the prize at the Hotel Astor last night, where Glen H. Curtiss, who on Sunday wrote a new chapter in the history of aviation by making a flight from Albany to Governor's island, was the guest of a New York paper, whose $10,000 award he won. The prize is offered by this paper and one in St. Louis. Conditions governing the flight will be announced after a conference with aeronautic experts.

A distinguished company gathered to meet the young aviator. At the table the modest Curtiss sat between the mayor and Brigadier General Walter Howe, United States army, in command of the Department of the East.

A flood of congratulatory cablegrams and telegrams was read. Among them were messages from Bleriot, the French aviator; the Aero Club of France, Count Jacques de Lesseps, who recently flew across the English channel; Hart O. Berg, the "father of aviation," and Hubert Latham, the French aviator.

Glenn H. Curtiss will probably be a competitor for both the New York-St. Louis and New York-Chicago aviation prizes.

"I can't see a single reason why both flights should not be made by me," said the aviator, "and I predict if the conditions are right the prizes will be won before the summer is over.

"There certainly will be a Curtiss machine in the contest in charge of either myself or one of my men.

"Offhand I should say the best route for the New York-Chicago flight and for the first leg of the New York-St. Louis flight would be through New York State. The alternate route—by way of Pennsylvania—is undesirable because of mountains."

Executive Seeking "Assistant President"

WASHINGTON, June 1.—It is regarded as practically certain that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Charles Norton of Chicago will succeed Fred W. Carpenter as secretary to the President. There has been considerable doubt as to whether Mr. Norton would give up his work in the treasury at this time to assume the secretaryship.

President Taft is anxious to have as secretary a man who, in a way, would be "an assistant President." He has declared to his friends that he wants a man who will relieve him of the minor details of the executive office, much as Mr. Loeb shared the work of Mr. Roosevelt.

There have been reports that Mr. Norton's appointment would be withheld until after Mr. Carpenter's confirmation as minister to Morocco.

1500 Boston Workers Strike for Increase

BOSTON, June 1. — Refusals of requests for wage increases were the causes of several strikes inaugurated in Boston today. About 1500 men, including machinists; building laborers, wharf and bridge builders, sheet metal workers, cabinet makers and mill men struck.

If their demands are not granted shortly the strikers say more than 10,000 union men will go out.

IDENTIFIES MAN AS A SWINDLER

Palace Hotel Clerk Declares Oakland Hotel Guest Worked Fraud.

A good memory for faces enabled A. W. Jones, a clerk at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, to recognize and have arrested an alleged hotel swindler as the latter was registering at the St. Mark Hotel, in this city, yesterday. Jones was talking to the clerk at the Oakland hostelry when the man, who registered as "William D. Adams," came in, and in him Jones claims to have recognized "M. A. Coburn," who is alleged to have swindled the Palace Hotel out of $40. Leaning over the counter, Jones whispered to the Oakland clerk to notify the police, and the man was taken into custody. He was later taken to San Francisco by Detective Tim Bailey of that city, and will be examined on a charge of petty larceny.

The warrant for his arrest was sworn to by Henry Bray of the Palace, who claims that Coburn, or Adams and a confederate worked a swindling game there. Coburn registered as coming from Fresno, and soon after a man representing himself as a local attorney rang up the hostelry on the telephone, stating that Coburn had been drinking, and that he, the attorney, had taken $500 from him for safe keeping. "Let him run up a bill of $75 or more, he is good for it," said the voice. Then the prisoner, so the story goes, ran up a wine bill and negotiated temporary loans. He is also charged with passing a worthless check on Spider Kelly's saloon, and several other thefts. A search is being made for his confederate.

Marvelous Discoveries

mark the wonderful progress of the age. Air flights on heavy machines, telegrams without wires, terrible war inventions to kill men, and that wonder of wonders—Dr. King's New Discovery—to save life when threatened by coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis, hemorrhages, hay fever and whooping cough or lung trouble. For all bronchial affections it has no equal. It relieves instantly. It's the surest cure. James M. Black of Asheville, N. C., R. R. No. 4 writes it cured him of an obstinate cough after all other remedies failed. 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros.

Disregards Warning; Boy Bather Drowns

WEISER, Idaho, June 1. — Disregarding the warning of his companions, Harry Metcalf, sixteen years old, was drowned while bathing in the Weiser river here yesterday. The body has not been recovered. Metcalf's home was in Vancouver, B. C.

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy, Say Osgood Bros.

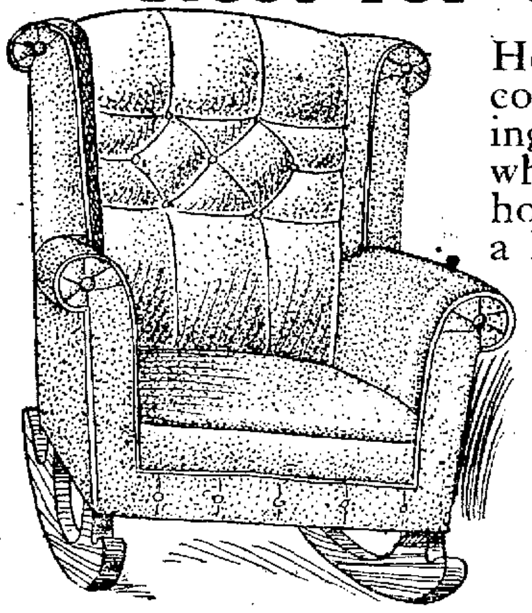

If you are getting thin, you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You cannot be strong if you are thin.

The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh-forming food and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh forming and tissue building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

Osgood Brothers sells every package on a genuine guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. Sent postpaid on receipt of price 50c.

Revolutionists Put On Trial in Russia

RIGA, Russia, Tuesday. — The trial of the so-called Frantzenburg Jenter, the last big case connected with the revolution of 1895, involving 227 accused persons, will begin in a few weeks before the military district court. The accused are charged with membership in revolutionary militia which attacked the sub-treasury at Hasenpot, carried on operations against the Russian troops and committed many outrages on local land owners.

Thirty of the leaders were shot by the punitive expeditions which pacified the Baltic provinces, and eleven others were condemned by court martial and executed. The present accused men constitute the rank and file of the militia. There are over 300 witnesses to be called.
